AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF PLANITIFF LIABILITY OF DEFENDANT CITY FOR CONSTITUTIONAL VIOLATIONS MONELL (STATE & FEDERAL)

- 69. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in the prior paragraphs with the same force and effect as is more fully and at length set forth set forth herein.
- 70. At all times materials to this complaint, the defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, acting through its police department, the NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT, had in effect de facto policies, practices, customs and usages that were a direct and proximate cause of the unconstitutional conduct of the defendant police officers.
- 71. The aforementioned customs policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City of New York and the New York City Police Department included but not limited to arresting persons without probable cause, providing false information to prosecutors, falsifying police reports and testifying falsely under oath.
- 72. The defendant City of New York, failed to effectively screen, hire, train, supervise and discipline its police officers and employees, including the defendant police officers and employees herein, for their ability to conduct proper and truthful police work, for their ability to investigate properly and for their ability to determine probable cause.
- 73. The existence of such de facto policies and/or well-settled and widespread customs and practices has been known to supervisory and police-making officers and officials of the Police Department and the City of New York for a substantial period of time.
- 74. Despite knowledge of such illegal de facto policies and practices, the supervisory and police-making officers and officials of the Police Department and the City of New York have not taken adequate steps to terminate these policies and practices, have not disciplined individuals who engage in such practices, or otherwise properly trained police officers with regard to the constitutional and statutory limits on the exercise of their authority, and have instead sanctioned and ratified these policies, customs and practices through their deliberate indifference to or negligent disregard of the effect of said policies, customs and practices upon the constitutional rights of persons in the City of New York.

- 75. Defendant NYC as well as unidentified police officers who were supervisors and final decision makers as a matter of policy and practice, have with deliberate indifference failed to properly train, discipline, sanction and retrain police officers, despite their knowledge of the recurring problem of violations of the Constitutional rights of citizens by seizing persons without probable cause, assaulting and battery a person by the use of excessive and unlawful force, falsely arresting him and falsifying official records etc, and in so failing, the defendant NYC has caused, encouraged, condoned and allowed the defendants in this case to engage in the aforementioned unlawful conduct without fear of consequences for their illegal acts which did cause the plaintiff to be subjected to deprivations of his civil rights. The Defendant City was on notice of Defendant Neville's prior assault, batteries as well as his abusive conduct.
- 76. That the defendant municipality, NYC, alerted to the existence of a significant number of false arrests by its police officers, by repeated complaints, of false arrest, and the use of excessive and unlawful force, exhibited deliberate indifference thereto in that it was obvious to NYC that there was a need for more and/or improved supervision of police officers in order to protect against constitutional violations and in spite or repeated complaints of civil rights violations, there have been no meaningful attempts on the part of NYC to investigate or forestall further incidents.
- 77. That the defendant municipality, NYC, has also been alerted to the use of malicious prosecution brought by its employee officers to cover up the false arrests, the use of excessive and unlawful force and unlawful seizures by its police officers, and that the culture of bringing such false charges and malicious prosecuting victims of NYPD false arrests has been allowed to exist without repercussions to the officers who engage in such behavior. Failure and or deliberate indifference to investigate and or discipline said conduct has become the custom of the Defendant City and its police force to tolerate the improper beating, illegal arrests and other wrongful actions by its police officers. This behavior was permitted to continue in the case at bar.

- 78. Moreover, the action of the individual defendants resulted from and were taken pursuant to a de facto policy and/or well-settled and widespread custom and practice of the City of New York, which is implemented by police officers of said City. Where the use of unlawful and excessive force is concealed by false arrest and malicious prosecution upon innocent citizens. Where the upward mobility of the officers within ranks is accomplished. This conduct is open and notorious and frequently used by officers to conceal improper conduct by said officers. This is a well established practice and custom of the defendant NYC police department which has been the subject of a voluminous number of civil rights actions.
- 79. The existence of such de facto policies and/or well-settled and widespread custom and practices have been known to supervisory and police-making officers and officials of the Police Department of the City of New York for a substantial period.
- 80. Each and every year, thousands of civil rights actions alleging false arrest and unlawful imprisonment and the use of excessive and unlawful force by police officers are brought and "settled" by the defendant New York City. Each year, the defendant, New York City spends millions of dollars to resolve said actions. Each year hundreds if not thousands of matters containing allegations of false arrest, unlawful and excessive force and unlawful imprisonment by the defendant New York City and its police officers are settled and/or brought to trial. A multitude of these matters could be cited if necessary. Of greatest concern, is the fact that the defendant NYC is in possession of all information concerning thousands of similar matters settled. Furthermore, these facts alone substantiate the fact that not only is the defendant New York City aware of said police practices and usages, but moreso, that defendant NYC has failed to stop said practices and has condoned said practices and usages.
- 81. Upon information and belief, and without limiting the foregoing, the City of New York has specifically failed to terminate said practices in the following manner:
  - (a) Has failed to properly train, instruct, and discipline police officers with regard to the existence of probable cause;
  - (b) Has failed to properly train, instruct, and discipline police officers with regard to falsifying police reports and providing misleading information to prosecutors.
  - (c) Has failed to properly train, instruct, and discipline police officers with the use of excessive and unlawful force:

- (d) Has failed to properly train, instruct, and discipline supervising officers with regard to their review of charges and reports of matters involving injury to persons and of use of force and excessive force thereon;
- (e) Has failed to properly instruct, and discipline police officers with regard to perjuries testimony and police reports;
- (f) Has permitted police officers to maintain the "blue wall of silence" and to conceal and fail to report the misconduct of other police officers;
- (g) Has structured procedures and standards at the Civilian Complaint Review Board, the Office of Chief of Department, and Internal Affairs in such a manner that an officer's denial of the charges is ordinarily sufficient to remove the threat of any discipline or restraint upon the officer's conduct and to prevent any objective review of the officer's conduct.
- (h) Has failed to require police officers to accept independent and objective review of civilian complaints and imposition of discipline.
- (i) Has failed to properly structure the police department to review and discipline the existence of unlawful conspiracy by defendant officers.
- 82. Defendant City of New York is directly liable and responsible for the acts of defendants because it has repeatedly and knowingly failed to properly supervise, train and discipline said officers and because it repeatedly and knowingly failed to enforce the rules and regulations of the New York City Police Department and the laws of the State of New York and the United States.
- 83. The knowing and repeated failure of the defendant City of New York to properly supervise, train and discipline said officers actually caused the injuries to plaintiff alleged herein.
- 84. Upon information and belief, defendant City of New York knew or should have known that the acts alleged herein would deprive plaintiff of his rights without due process of law, in violation of the First, Fourth, Fifth, Ninth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and Article 1, §§1, 6, 8, 9, 11 and 12 of the Constitution of the State of New York, including, without limitation, such rights as plaintiff's rights to freedom from loss of liberty, freedom of speech, rights to petition for redress of grievances, right to be free from unreasonable seizures and the use of excessive force, right to due process, and right to equal protection of the laws.
- 85. The defendant City of New York is also directly liable and responsible for the acts of defendants under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
- 86. As a result of the foregoing conscious policies, practices, customs and/or usages, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has permitted and allowed the employment and retention of individuals as police officers and employees whose individual circumstances place the public or segments thereof at substantial risk of being the victims of unlawful and/or unreasonable behavior. Such polices, practices customs and/or usages are a direct and proximate cause of the conduct alleged herein and otherwise a direct and proximate cause of the injuries to the plaintiff herein.

87. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty, sustained great emotional and physical injuries, was subject to great humiliation, and was otherwise harmed, damaged and injured.

  - (a) Plaintiff was deprived of his rights to speak freely and to petition the government for redress of grievances, in violation of §§ 8 and 9 of the Constitution of the State of New York;
