-----X

The Plaintiff, Quayshaun Smith, by his attorney, Gregory Zenon, of The Law Office of Gregory Zenon, alleges the following, upon information and belief for this Complaint:

NATURE OF THE ACTION / PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action for money damages brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, and 1988, the Fourth, Fifth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, Article I, Sections 6, 11, and 12 of the New York State Constitution, and the common law of the State of New York, against the City of New York, New York City Police Department, and NYPD Police Officers James Titus, Artem Makaryan, Nicholas Felix, Agron Pervizi, Officer Hern, and Officers J. Doe # 1-15, police officers of the City of New York, in their individual and official capacities. Plaintiff seeks compensatory and punitive damages, affirmative and equitable relief, an award of attorneys’ fees and costs, and such other relief as this Court deems equitable and just.

JURISDICTION

2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the federal claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1331 and 28 U.S.C. §1343 (3) and (4). Plaintiff also asserts jurisdiction over the City of New York under 28 U.S.C. §1331 and §1367. Plaintiff request this Court exercise pendent jurisdiction over those state law claims arising out of the same common nucleus of operative facts as plaintiff’ federal claims.

NOTICE OF CLAIM

3. A notice of claim was filed with the City of New York within the relevant statutory period; 50-h hearing conducted; more than 30 days have elapsed since such filing; the City has inadequately offered to settle Plaintiff’s state law claims.

VENUE

4. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), venue is proper in the Eastern District of New York because this is a judicial district in which the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, and because defendant officers were assigned to a Precinct in Kings County, New York, within the confines of the Eastern District of New York.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff at all times relevant hereto resided in the City and State of New York.
6. At all times hereinafter mentioned, and upon information and belief, defendant, CITY OF NEW YORK, was at all times relevant hereto, a municipal corporation duly organized and existing pursuant to the laws, statutes and charters of the State of New York.
7. THE NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT was at all times relevant hereto, an agency of the defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK.
8. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, and on information and belief, Defendant Police Officers were at all times relevant hereto, employees of defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, as police officers employed by THE NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT.
9. At all times mentioned herein, defendants were acting under color of state and local law, to wit, under color of statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.
10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, and upon information and belief, the individual defendants are named herein both personally and in their official representative capacities as police officers employed by Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK. And that each and all of the acts of the individual defendants alleged herein were done by the individual defendants and each of them under cover and pretense of the statutes and laws of the State of New York, and under and by virtue of their authority as police officers and employees of Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.
11. That as a result of the foregoing, Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is liable for the individual defendant's acts pursuant to the doctrine of "respondeat superior."

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

12. At all relevant times, Defendant Titus committed the false arrest of plaintiff and was personally involved in and liable for plaintiff's false arrest, the actions of all defendant officers described in this complaint, and all other claims set forth below.
13. At approximately 6 p.m. on 3 August 2018, in the vicinity of 1992 East 29th Street, in Kings County, New York, plaintiff was inside a car with two friends, parked on a public street, eating a slice of pizza. At that time Defendant Titus, accompanied by another defendant officer, were in their police vehicle and pulled up alongside the car.
14. Defendant Titus and the other defendant officer then exited their police vehicle with their weapons drawn and ordered plaintiff and his companions to exit their car, for no legitimate reason or purpose.
15. Plaintiff exited his vehicle and observed that both officers were aiming their weapons at him. Defendant

Titus and the other defendant officer ordered plaintiff to place his hands behind his back.

16. Plaintiff then ran in fear for his life.

17. Defendant Titus and the other defendant officer then chased plaintiff down a block into a driveway.

18. Defendant Titus was joined by approximately ten to fifteen additional defendant officers.

19. Defendant officers then surrounded plaintiff and ordered him to freeze and place his hands above his head.

20. Plaintiff then froze and placed his hands above his head.

21. Defendant Titus then observed that plaintiff had complied with the order in that he observed that plaintiff stood in place with both of his hands above his head.

22. Defendant Titus then aimed his taser at plaintiff.

23. Despite and after plaintiff's surrender, Defendant Titus then tased plaintiff in the abdomen, causing plaintiff to become immobilized as Defendant Titus and the other defendant officers ran at him. Plaintiff then fell immobile to the ground face first with his hands behind his back.

24. Defendants Pervisi and Hern then apprehended plaintiff in that they jumped on top of plaintiff, grabbed him about the body, placed their boots about plaintiff's head, face and body, causing multiple injuries, and then Defendant Hern handcuffed plaintiff.

25. The injuries plaintiff sustained included but were not limited to pain and suffering; a taser prong in the abdomen that pushed deeper into plaintiff's body when he fell to the ground and defendant officers apprehended him; bruising and swelling about the mouth and body; and a broken upper left front tooth that resulted in plaintiff losing the majority of said tooth.

26. Defendant Titus and other defendant officers then dragged plaintiff down the block and into a police car and kept him there.

27. Plaintiff demanded medical treatment from the defendant officers at the scene but was denied even though the defendants spent additional time at the scene before leaving.

28. Plaintiff again demanded he be taken to a hospital while he was being driven to the precinct but was again denied and delayed proper medical treatment by Defendants Felix and Makaryan who drove plaintiff to the precinct instead of a medical treatment center.

29. Once at the precinct, defendant officers including but not limited to all named officers continued to deny plaintiff timely medical treatment; they shackled plaintiff hand and foot and placed him in a cell.

30. An ambulance arrived and plaintiff was taken, shackled, to Coney Island Hospital where he was only treated for the taser wounds but not his tooth, despite the fact that he requested additional help and was in severe pain.

31. Plaintiff was then taken back to the precinct still shackled and placed in the pens still shackled.

32. Plaintiff spent hours in the cell in pain, denied phone calls and food.

33. Plaintiff was then told detectives wanted to speak to him. He was taken upstairs where he was left alone in a room with a one-way mirror. He was later informed by Defendant Titus that he had been subjected to an ID procedure without his consent with negative results concerning which the police had a description of the robber who did not match plaintiff's description.

34. Plaintiff was taken back into the cells and spent additional hours in the pens, still shackled hand and foot.

35. Defendant Titus then entered the cell and apologized. He explained there was a robbery, that plaintiff's arrest was a case of mistaken ID, and that plaintiff was being released.

36. Some time later a female officer entered the cell, unshackled plaintiff, took him to the front desk and processed his release.

37. As plaintiff left the precinct Defendant Titus escorted him out the front door, apologized again, and explained that the person they were looking for did not even resemble plaintiff.

38. Defendant Titus then apologized to plaintiff again and stated that he expected that he would "get in trouble" for his treatment of plaintiff.

39. Plaintiff's injuries have resulted in medical treatment and a diagnosis that he needs dental surgery for the damage to his mouth and to replace his tooth.

40. Plaintiff currently is still in pain from the assault and still in the process of scheduling the procedures required to fix the damage to his mouth.

41. Plaintiff has also suffered the social repercussions of a missing front tooth.

42. At all times during the events described above, defendant police officers were engaged in a joint venture and formed an agreement to violate plaintiff's rights. The individual officers assisted each other in performing the various actions described and lent their physical presence and support and the authority of their office to each other during said events.

43. Additional defendant officers who were present witnessed all of the above and failed to intervene and failed to protect plaintiff in the obviously illegal actions of their fellow officers against plaintiff.

44. During all of the events above described, defendants acted maliciously and with intent to injure plaintiff.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(FALSE ARREST AND ILLEGAL IMPRISONMENT)

45. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

46. Defendants subjected Plaintiff to false arrest, imprisonment, and deprivation of liberty without probable cause.

47. Defendants deprived Plaintiff of civil, constitutional and statutory rights and conspired to deprive plaintiff of such rights and are liable under federal and state law.

48. There is further indication that the actions of the arresting officers in this case were the result of racial profiling.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(MUNICIPAL LIABILITY and NEGLIGENT HIRING, TRAINING and SUPERVISION)

49. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

50. The City is liable for the damages suffered by plaintiff as a result of the conduct of their employees, agents, and servants, in that, after learning of their employees' violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights, they failed to remedy the wrong; they have created a policy or custom under which unconstitutional practices occurred and allowed such policies or customs to continue, and they have been grossly negligent in managing subordinates who caused the unlawful condition or event. The City has been alerted to the regular use of excessive force and false arrests by its police officers, but has nevertheless exhibited deliberate indifference to such excessive force and false arrests; that deliberate indifference caused the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights in this case.

51. Moreover the City is liable for the damages suffered by plaintiff as a result of the conduct of their employees, agents, and servants, in that, the City has failed to properly train and supervise its employees. Upon information and belief, the individually named defendants in this action have been the subject of many prior civilian complaints and prior lawsuits alleging civil rights violations. Though the City of New York has paid hundreds of thousands of dollars in settlements for civil rights actions against defendants, the City has failed to take necessary steps to ensure that these particular officers are not in a position to further violate the civil liberties of civilians. This City has been on notice that these officers are unfit for their present positions, yet continues to employ them, and empower them to violate the civil liberties of people like the plaintiff.

52. Moreover, when the City was informed of the specific wrongdoing in this incident, it failed to take necessary steps to investigate the incident and to discipline the officers at fault. Defendant Officers have been responsible for numerous prior civil rights violations including false arrests and excessive force. Though it was apparent that this incident represented a gross abuse of power by the defendant officers, the City failed to take necessary steps to investigate this matter and see that the individual officers were disciplined.

53. The aforesaid event was not an isolated incident. The City has been aware for some time, from lawsuits, notices of claim, complaints filed with the Civilian Complaint Review Board, and judicial rulings suppressing evidence and finding officers incredible as a matter of law, that a disturbing number of their police officers use excessive force, unlawfully search and seize citizens, bring charges against citizens with no legal basis, perjure themselves in charging instruments and testimony, and fail to intervene in and report the obviously illegal actions of their fellow officers. Nevertheless, the City has allowed policies and practices that allow the aforementioned to persist.

54. For example, the well-documented failures of the Civilian Complaint Review Board ("the CCRB"), a City agency, to substantiate obviously meritorious citizen complaints have gone uncorrected. The CCRB regularly finds complainants lack credibility based on the fact that such complainants have also brought lawsuits to remedy the wrongs they have experienced, a practice that often results in not substantiating the most serious charges brought to them. In addition, the CCRB virtually never initiates their own findings of false statements against officers who have made false statements to the CCRB in their own defense, nor do they initiate findings that officers have failed to report their fellow officers' misconduct; thus, officers have no real incentive to come forward, or to testify truthfully at the CCRB. The CCRB has no enforcement mechanisms once making a finding against an officer; it can only make recommendations to the NYPD, once finding misconduct by an officer.

55. The NYPD, once receiving a substantiated complaint by the CCRB, fails to adequately discipline officers for misconduct. The NYPD Department Advocate, which is endowed with the responsibility of following up on substantiated CCRB charges, is understaffed and under- utilized. Furthermore, in the extraordinarily rare event that the CCRB substantiates a complaint and the Department Advocate proves the case in an internal trial against an officer, the police commissioner still maintains the power to reduce the discipline against such an officer.

56. Further, the City has no procedure to notify individual officers or their supervisors of unfavorable judicial review of their conduct. Without this notification, improper search and seizure practices and incredible testimony go uncorrected. Additionally, according to a report of the New York City Bar Association issued in 2000, the City has isolated their law department from the discipline of police officers, so that civil suits against police officers for actions taken in their capacity as police officers have no impact on the officers' careers, regardless of the outcome of the civil actions. Alan Hevesi, as New York City Comptroller, in 1999 reported that there was "a total disconnect" between the settlements of even substantial civil claims and police department action against officers.

57. The City is aware that all of the aforementioned has resulted in violations of citizens' constitutional rights. Despite such notice, the City has failed to take corrective action. This failure and these policies caused the officers in the present case to violate plaintiff's civil rights, without fear of reprisal. Furthermore, although the City has been on notice, through plaintiff's complaints to the City via his criminal defense attorney while his charges were pending, the City has failed to remedy the wrong.

58. Plaintiff has been damaged as a result of the deliberate indifference of the City to the constitutional rights of the City's inhabitants.

59. The City is liable for the damages suffered by plaintiff as a result of the conduct of their employees, agents, and servants, in that, after learning of their employees' violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights, they failed to remedy the wrong; they have created a policy or custom under which unconstitutional practices occurred and allowed such policies or customs to continue, and they have been grossly negligent in managing subordinates who caused the unlawful condition or event. The City has been alerted to the regular use of excessive force and false arrests by its police officers, but has nevertheless exhibited deliberate indifference to such excessive force and false arrests; that deliberate indifference caused the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights in this case.

86. Defendants agreed to violate the plaintiff's rights in the manner described above. Namely, defendants made an agreement to conspire together to racially profile plaintiff, and to cover up their false arrest and their violations of plaintiff's rights.

87. Defendants took action in furtherance of this agreement by conspiring together to falsely charge plaintiff with the crimes described above, to fabricate a version of events that would justify their false arrest and violations of plaintiff's rights, and to initiate criminal proceedings against plaintiff by their misrepresentations about plaintiff.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Defendants should have exercised their authority to stop plaintiff from being subjected to false arrest and all additional violations described throughout. Defendants were in a position of power and authority over plaintiff and held plaintiff's life, liberty, property and livelihood in their hands. Here, defendants are specifically liable for all of the unlawful acts plaintiff suffered, and had a duty to protect him.
