creditors, and other parties in interest; it is hereby FOUND, CONCLUDED, AND DETERMINED THAT:<sup>2</sup>

I. Jurisdiction and Statutory Predicates

A. This Court has jurisdiction over the Motions and over the Debtor's property, including the appointment of the Receiver, Purchased Assets to be sold, transferred, and conveyed pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). Venue of this Chapter 11 Case and the Motions in this District and Court is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

B. The Debtor's rights, title and interest in the Purchased Assets constitute property of the Seller's bankruptcy estate and title thereto is vested in the Debtor's bankruptcy estate within the meaning of section 541(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

C. The statutory bases for the relief requested in the Motion and provided for herein are sections 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004 and 6006.

D. This Order constitutes a final order within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. §158(a). Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d), and to any extent necessary under Bankruptcy Rule 9014 and Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 7054, this Court finds that there is no just reason for delay in the implementation of this Order and directs entry of judgment as set forth herein.

E. The findings and conclusions set forth herein constitute this Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to this Chapter 11 Case pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014.

<sup>2</sup> All findings of fact and conclusions of law announced by the Court at the Hearing in relation to the Motion are hereby incorporated herein to the extent not inconsistent herewith. To the extent that any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

II. Notice

F. As evidenced by the affidavits or certificates of service previously filed with the Court, demonstrated by the evidence presented at, and based on the representations of counsel at the Hearing, due, proper, timely, adequate, and sufficient notice of the Motions, the Hearing, the Sale, has been provided in accordance with sections 102(1), 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, 9007, and 9014, to each party entitled to such notice, including, as applicable: (1) counsel to CSHACQDIP, LLC, as the DIP Lender; (2) Buyer's counsel; (3) the U.S. Trustee; (4) all persons known or reasonably believed, after reasonable inquiry, to have asserted a lien, encumbrance, claim, or any other interest in any of the Purchased Assets; (5) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (6) the Internal Revenue Service; and (7) all parties set forth in the Debtor's master service list and creditor matrix in this Chapter 11 Case, which lists include (i) parties that had filed a notice of appearance and demand for service of papers in the Chapter 11 Case, including Counsel for the Union; (ii) holders of the 20 largest unsecured claims against the Debtor (on a consolidated basis); (iii) the Office of the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York; (iv) the Office of the Attorney General of New York; (v) New York State Department of Health and (vii) the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. The notice described herein, and in the Motions, was good, sufficient, and appropriate under the circumstances, and reasonably calculated to reach and apprise all known and unknown holders of liens, claims, and encumbrances, and no other or further notice of the Motions, is, or shall be, required. Further, a reasonable opportunity to object to and to be heard regarding the relief granted by this Order has been afforded to parties entitled to notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a).

III. Purchase Agreement and Receiver Agreement

G. Pursuant to the Receiver Agreement as more fully set forth therein, the Debtor seeks authority to enter into the Receiver Agreement appointing the Receiver.

H. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement and as more fully set forth therein, the Buyer has offered to purchase the Purchased Assets in exchange for assumption of the Assumed Liabilities and allowing the Debtor to retain ownership and all other rights to all amounts due (or that come due in the future) to the Debtor, including without limitation all accounts receivable, created, earned or accrued at any time prior to the Receivership Appointment Date (the “Pre-Receiver AR”).

IV. Debtor’s Business Judgment & Best Interests of Estate

I. The Debtor has articulated good and sufficient reasons for this Court to grant the relief requested in the Motions and provided for herein. The Debtor’s pre-petition marketing for the Purchased Assets afforded a full, fair, and reasonable opportunity for any entity to make a higher or otherwise better offer to purchase the Purchased Assets. The Debtor’s determination to enter into the Receiver Agreement and Purchase Agreement constitutes a valid and sound exercise of the Debtor’s business judgment. The terms contained in the Purchase Agreement constitute the highest and best offer for the Purchased Assets and will provide a greater recovery for the Purchased Assets than would be provided by any other available alternative. The Debtor’s determination to proceed by means of a private sale and that the Purchase Agreement constitutes the highest and best offer for the Purchased Assets constitutes a valid and sound exercise of the Debtor’s business judgment. No other entity or group of entities has presented a higher or otherwise better offer to the Debtor to purchase the Purchased Assets for greater economic value to the Debtor’s estate than the Buyer in light of the Receiver appointment.

J. The appointment of the Receiver, consummation of the transactions contemplated in the Purchase Agreement, and the Sale must be approved, must occur promptly to preserve the value of the Purchased Assets and maximize value for the Debtor's bankruptcy estate.

V. Compelling Circumstances for a Prompt Sale

K. Good and sufficient reasons for approval of the Purchase Agreement and the Sale have been articulated. The Debtors have demonstrated compelling circumstances for a private sale outside the ordinary course of business pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in that, among other things, the prompt consummation of the Sale to the Buyer is necessary and appropriate to maximize recoveries for the Debtor's estate. Time is of the essence in consummating the Sale and the transactions contemplated in the Purchase Agreement.

VI. Good Faith

L. The Receiver Agreement, Purchase Agreement, and the Sale were non-collusive, proposed and executed in good faith as a result of arms'-length negotiations, and were substantively and procedurally fair to all parties.

M. The Buyer is purchasing the Purchased Assets in good faith and is a good-faith Buyer within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and, therefore, is entitled to the full protections of that provision, including in the event that this Order or any portion hereof is reversed or modified on appeal; and otherwise has proceeded in good faith in all respects in connection with the sale of the Purchased Assets in that (i) the Buyer recognized that the Debtor was free to deal with any other party interested in acquiring the Purchased Assets; (ii) all consideration to be made or otherwise provided by the Buyer and other agreements or arrangements entered into by the Buyer in connection with the Sale have been adequately disclosed,<sup>3</sup> (iii) the Buyer has not violated section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code by any action or inaction; and (iv) the negotiation and execution of the Receiver Agreement and Purchase Agreement, including the Sale contemplated thereby, were at arms'-length and in good faith.

N. The Debtor, the Buyer, and the Buyer's agents, representatives, and affiliates have not engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the Purchase Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby to be avoided, or costs or damages to be imposed, under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Buyer participated in the sale process in good faith and has not acted in a collusive manner with any of the other bidders, potential bidders, or any other parties interested in the Purchased Assets.

VII. Free and Clear

O. The sale of the Purchased Assets to the Buyer in accordance with the Purchase Agreement will be, as of the Closing Date, a legal, valid, and effective transfer of such assets, and vests or will vest the Buyer with all right, title, and interest of Debtor to the Purchased Assets free and clear of all Liens, Interests and/or Claims (as defined below) accruing, arising or relating thereto any time before the Closing Date except for the Assumed Liabilities.

P. The Purchaser would not have entered into the Purchase Agreement and the Receiver Agreement would not be executed, thus adversely affecting the Debtor, its estate, and its <sup>3</sup> As set forth in the Buyer Declaration, other agreements related the Receiver Agreement and Purchase Agreement, including but are not limited to the (x) "Purchase and Sale Agreement," dated December 18, 2024 (the "Real Estate PSA") between non-debtor Cold Spring Realty Acquisition, LLC, (the "RE Seller") and non-debtor Woodbury Heights Rehabilitation Center Realty LLC, (the "RE Purchaser"), pursuant to which a non-debtor affiliate of the RE Seller has agreed to sell, transfer, and assign to the RE Purchaser certain real property (the "Real Estate"), which contains Cold Spring Hills Center for Nursing and Rehabilitation (the "Nursing Home"), a 588 bed skilled nursing facility and adult day care program, and (y) simultaneously with the execution and delivery of the Real Estate PSA, the RE Seller, as landlord, Debtor, as assignor, and Buyer, as assignee, have entered into an Assignment, Assumption and Amendment of Lease (the "Lease Assignment") to, among other things, assign the tenant interest in the Lease Agreement for the Nursing Home from the Debtor, as assignor, to Buyer, as assignee. The Lease Assignment does not take effect until the commencement of the receivership period under the Receivership Agreement.

creditors, if the Sale were not free and clear of all Liens, Interests and Claims, with the exception of Assumed Liabilities.

VIII. Section 363(f) is Satisfied

Q. The Debtor may sell the Purchased Assets free and clear of all Liens, Interests and/or Claims (except for the Assumed Liabilities) against the Debtor, its bankruptcy estate, or any of the Purchased Assets because, in each case, one or more of the standards set forth in section 363(f)(1)–(5) of the Bankruptcy Code has been satisfied. Each Lien, Interest and/or Claim (other than an Assumed Liability) that is attached to the Purchased Assets to be transferred on the Closing Date: (i) is subject to release or discharge under applicable non-bankruptcy law, (ii) is held by an entity that has consented to the Sale or is deemed to have consented to the Sale; (iii) constitutes a lien against some or all of the Purchased Assets and the price at which such property is to be sold under the Purchase Agreement is greater than the aggregate value of all liens on such property, (iv) is the subject of a bona fide dispute, or (v) is held by an entity that could be compelled in a legal or equitable proceeding to accept money satisfaction of such encumbrance.

R. Those holders of Liens, Interests and/or Claims against the Debtor, its bankruptcy estate, or any of the Purchased Assets who did not object, or who withdrew their objections, to the Sale or the Motion are deemed to have consented thereto pursuant to section 363(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Those holders of Liens, Interests and/or Claims who did object fall within one or more of the other subsections of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.

VII. Collective Bargaining Agreement

S. The Debtor and the Buyer have agreed, and as specified in the Purchase Agreement, Buyer recognizes that the Union is the bargaining agent for Buyer Employees (as defined in the Purchase Agreement) and Buyer has reached an agreement with the Union on a modified Collective Bargaining Agreement (“Modified CBA”), the material terms of which are set forth in the Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”). The existing Collective Bargaining Agreement between the Debtor and the Union is not, and will not be, an Assumed Contract.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. Relief Granted. The relief requested in the Motions, and the transactions contemplated thereby and by (i) the Receiver Agreement and (ii) the Purchase Agreement, are APPROVED as set forth in this Order and on the record of the Hearing, which is incorporated herein as if fully set forth in this Order, and the Sale contemplated by the Purchase Agreement is APPROVED.

2. Objections Overruled. Any and all objections and responses to the Motions that have not been withdrawn, waived, settled, or resolved, are hereby overruled and denied on the merits. All reservations of rights have been noted on the record of the Hearing. Notice of the Motions, the Receiver appointment, the Hearing, and the Sale was fair and equitable under the circumstances, and complied in all material respects with section 102(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, and 6006.

3. Compliance with the Bankruptcy Code. The Receiver Appointment, the Purchase Agreement and the consummation of the Sale is legal, valid, and properly authorized under all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, sections 363(b), 363(f), 363(m), 365(b), and 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, and all of the applicable requirements of such sections have been complied with in respect of the Sale.

4. Receiver Appointment. The Receiver Agreement, including all other ancillary documents, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, and the Receiver appointment contemplated thereby, are hereby approved in all respects and the Debtor is authorized to enter into the Receiver Agreement. The rights, duties and obligations of the Receiver from and after the date the Receiver is appointed (the “Receiver Appointment Date”) is set forth in the Receiver Agreement and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Receiver is not, and shall not, have responsibility for any Liens, Interests or Claims of the Debtor or its estate arising before the Receiver Appointment Date. The Receiver is not a mere continuation of the Debtor or its estate, and there is no continuity, no common identity, and no continuity of enterprise between the Receiver and the Debtor. The Receiver is not holding itself out to the public as a continuation of the Debtor. The Receiver is not a successor to the Debtor or the Debtor’s estate by reason of any theory of law or equity, and the appointment of the Receiver does not amount to a consolidation, merger, or de facto merger of the Receiver or the Debtor.

5. Approval of Purchase Agreement. The Purchase Agreement, including all other ancillary documents, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, and the Sale contemplated thereby, are hereby approved in all respects.

6. Closing Conditions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Order, the Buyer shall not be required to close the Sale under the Purchase Agreement unless and until (i) the conditions precedent to Closing set forth in the Purchase Agreement have been satisfied, or waived in writing by Buyer, in accordance with the Purchase Agreement; (ii) the Receiver has been appointed; (iii) the Buyer and the Union have entered into the Modified CBA, or if the Modified CBA has not been finalized, the parties have agreed to be bound by the terms of the MOU, and (iv) the transactions contemplated in the Real Estate PSA have been consummated. In accordance with the Purchase Agreement, the Buyer’s obligation to effect the Closing of the Purchased Assets shall also be subject to obtaining all approvals required by applicable law to be obtained from any Governmental Entity to consummate the transactions contemplated in the Purchase Agreement, which shall have been received or obtained on or prior to the Closing Date; specifically including, but not limited to, Buyer shall have obtained non-contingent final approval from PHHPC and the Commissioner of DOH for Buyer to become the licensed operator of the Nursing Home and the Business.

7. Authorization. Pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtor, acting by and through their existing agents, representatives, and officers, are authorized and empowered to take any and all actions necessary or appropriate to: (a) consummate and close the Sale pursuant to and in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Order and the Purchase Agreement; (b) transfer, convey, and assign all right, title, and interest to all Purchased Assets, including any and all property, licenses, and rights to be conveyed in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Order and the Purchase Agreement; and (c) execute and deliver, perform under, consummate, and implement this Order, the Purchase Agreement, and all additional instruments and documents that may be reasonably necessary or desirable to implement this Order, the Purchase Agreement and the Sale, including any other ancillary documents, or as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to the performance of the obligations as contemplated by this Order, the Purchase Agreement and any such other ancillary documents.

8. Binding Effect. This Order will be binding in all respects upon the Debtor, its bankruptcy estate, all creditors, all holders of equity interests in the Debtor, all holders of any Liens, Interests and/or Claims against the Debtor, any and all alleged holders of Liens, Interests and/or Claims against or on all or any portion of the Purchased Assets, all counterparties to any executory contract or unexpired lease of the Debtor, the Buyer and all agents, representatives, and affiliates of the Buyer, and any trustees, examiners, or other fiduciary under any section of the Bankruptcy Code, if any, subsequently appointed in the Debtor's Chapter 11 Cases or upon a conversion to chapter 7 under the Bankruptcy Code of the Debtor's case. The terms and provisions of the Purchase Agreement and this Order will inure to the benefit of the Debtor, its bankruptcy estate, its creditors, the Buyer and all agents, representatives, and affiliates of the Buyer, and any other affected third parties, including all persons asserting any Liens, Interests and/or Claims in the Purchased Assets to be sold to the Buyer pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, notwithstanding any subsequent appointment of any trustee(s), party, entity, or other fiduciary under any section of any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code, as to which trustee(s), party, entity, or other fiduciary such terms and provisions likewise will be binding.

9. Free and Clear Sale.

a. Pursuant to sections 363(b), 363(f), 365(b) and 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, upon the Closing Date and pursuant to and except as otherwise set forth in the Purchase Agreement, the Debtor's rights, title and interests in and to the Purchased Assets will be transferred to the Buyer free and clear of all encumbrances, claims, interests, and liens, including mortgages, restrictions, covenants, easements, hypothecations, charges, indentures, loan agreements, instruments, collective bargaining agreements, leases, licenses, options, deeds of trust, security interests, other interests, conditional sale or other title retention agreements, pledges, and other liens (including mechanics', materialman's, possessory and other consensual and non-consensual liens and statutory liens), judgments, demands, encumbrances, rights of first refusal, offsets, contracts, rights of recovery, claims for reimbursement, contribution, indemnity, exoneration, products liability, derivative and vicarious liability, transferee liability, alter-ego, environmental, or tax, decrees of any court or foreign or domestic governmental entity, or charges of any kind or nature, if any, against the Debtor or the Purchased Assets, including any restriction on the use, voting, transfer, receipt of income or other exercise of any attributes of ownership, debts arising in any way in connection with any agreements, acts, or failures to act, including any pension liabilities, retiree medical benefit liabilities, liabilities arising under or related to the Internal Revenue Code, of the Debtor or any of the Debtor's predecessors or affiliates, claims, whether known or unknown, choate or inchoate, filed or unfiled, scheduled or unscheduled, noticed or unnoticed, recorded or unrecorded, perfected or unperfected, allowed or disallowed, contingent or non-contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, matured or unmatured, material or non-material, disputed or undisputed, whether arising prior to or subsequent to the commencement of this Chapter 11 Case, and whether imposed by agreement, understanding, law, equity or otherwise, including claims otherwise arising under doctrines of successor liability (other than Assumed Liabilities) (collectively, the "Liens, Interests and/or Claims").

b. For the avoidance of doubt, the term Liens, Interests and/or Claims, includes, without limitation, rights with respect to any Liens, Interests and/or Claim (1) that purport to give any party a right of setoff or recoupment against, or a right or option to affect any forfeiture, modification, profit-sharing interest, right of first refusal, purchase or repurchase writer option, or termination of, any of the Debtor's or the Buyer's interest in the Purchased Assets, or any similar rights; or (2) in respect of taxes, restrictions, rights of first refusal, charges of interest of any kind and nature, if any, and including, without limitation, any restriction of use, voting, transfer, receipt of income, or other exercise of any of the attributes of ownership relating to, accruing, or arising at any time prior to the Closing Date, with the exception of Assumed Liabilities.

10. Valid Transfer.

a. On the Closing Date, this Order will be construed and will constitute for any and all purposes a full and complete general assignment, conveyance, and transfer of all of the Purchased Assets, including any causes of action that are not Excluded Liabilities, or a bill of sale transferring good, valid, and marketable title in and to the Purchased Assets to the Buyer pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Order and the Purchase Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, Excluded Assets and Excluded Liabilities are not included in the Purchased Assets and such Excluded Assets and Excluded Liabilities shall remain property of the Debtor's estate. Excluded Liabilities shall remain with the Debtor's estate.

b. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Order, the transfer of the Purchased Assets to the Buyer pursuant to the Purchase Agreement and the consummation of the Sale and any related actions contemplated thereby do not require any consents other than as may be specifically provided for in the Purchase Agreement and Receiver Agreement, constitute a legal, valid, and effective transfer of the Purchased Assets, and will vest the Buyer with all of the Debtor's rights, title, and interests in and to the Purchased Assets as set forth in this Order and the Purchase Agreement, as applicable, free and clear of all Liens, Interests and/or Claims of any kind or nature whatsoever (other than Assumed Liabilities).

c. The Buyer will be authorized, as of the Closing Date, to operate under any license, permit, registration, and governmental authorization or approval of Debtor constituting Purchased Assets, and all such licenses, permits, registrations, and governmental authorizations and approvals are deemed to have been, and hereby are, directed to be transferred to the Buyer as of the Closing Date as provided by this Order and the Purchase Agreement. To the extent provided by section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code, no governmental unit may revoke or suspend any grant, permit, or license relating to the operation of the Purchased Assets sold, transferred, assigned, or conveyed to the Buyer on account of the filing or pendency of this Chapter 11 Case or the consummation of the Sale. Each and every federal, state, and local governmental agency or department is hereby authorized to accept any and all documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the Sale.

11. Provider Agreements.

a. Nothing in this Order or the Asset Purchase Agreement releases, nullifies, precludes or enjoins a governmental unit from taking any action under police and regulatory statutes, regulations or program requirements (including but not limited to Medicare and Medicaid participation requirements and environmental laws or regulations), and to enforce any associated liabilities for penalties, damages, cost recovery, or injunctive relief that any entity would be subject to as the owner, lessor, lessee, or operator of the Facility after the date of entry of this Order. Nothing contained in this Order or in the Asset Purchase Agreement shall in any way diminish the obligation of any entity, including the Debtors, to comply with environmental laws.

b. Additionally, with respect to the United States and the State of New York, nothing in the APA, the Receivership Agreement, or any order approving the APA or Receivership Agreement shall release, nullify, preclude or enjoin claims, liabilities, rights, defenses or causes of action each may have under applicable non-bankruptcy law with respect to the applicable Medicare provider agreements (“Medicare Agreements”) or the applicable Medicaid contracts (“Medicaid Contracts”), including, without limitation, all rights, claims, and defenses of and to setoff and recoupment under non-bankruptcy law with respect to the applicable Medicare Agreements or the applicable Medicaid Contracts and under section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, and all such claims, liabilities, rights, defenses, and causes of action are preserved, including the United States’ and the State of New York’s police and regulatory power against the Debtor and any non-Debtor party, as well as any defenses that the Debtor or non-Debtor party may have with regard to such police and regulatory power.

c. Further, nothing in this Order, the Purchase Agreement, the Receiver Agreement, or related documents authorizes the transfer or assignment of any governmental (a) license, (b) permit, (c) registration, (d) authorization or (e) approval, or the discontinuation of any obligation thereunder, without compliance with all applicable legal requirements and approvals under police or regulatory law. Nothing in this Order shall relieve any entity from any obligation to address or comply with information requests or inquiries from any governmental unit as defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(27) (“Governmental Unit”). Nothing in this Order shall affect any setoff or recoupment rights of any Governmental Unit. Nothing in this Order divests any tribunal of any jurisdiction it may have under police or regulatory law to interpret this Order or to adjudicate any defense asserted under this Order.

d. Further, nothing in this Order, any other order, or any agreement related to the sale of the Purchased Assets shall be construed as authorizing the sale, transfer, or assignment of the applicable Medicare Agreements or the applicable Medicaid Contracts to the Buyer free and clear of successor liability for any liability arising from such Medicare Agreements or Medicaid Contracts, nor as restricting the United States’ or the State of New Yorks’ rights of setoff and recoupment arising under the Medicare Agreements and Medicaid Contracts. For the avoidance of doubt, the Medicare Agreements and Medicaid Contracts shall not be sold pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, but shall be assumed and assigned pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and all applicable Medicare and Medicaid statutes and regulations, the Anti-Assignment Act, and all applicable non-bankruptcy law, as applicable.

e. For the avoidance of doubt, and without affecting the rights of the United States or State of New York, except as expressly set forth in the Purchase Agreement, as between the Debtor and the Buyer, the Buyer is only responsible for obligations in connection with the Medicare Agreements and Medicaid Contracts arising subsequent to the assumption of such contracts and agreements by the Debtor and assignment of the Medicare Agreements and Medicaid Contracts to the Buyer in accordance with section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, which will occur effective the Closing of the Sale. Nothing in this paragraph or Order shall relieve any party from any obligations under the Medicare Agreements and Medicaid Contracts under applicable nonbankruptcy law. Further, except as expressly set forth in the Purchase Agreement, the Receiver is not responsible for the obligations of the Debtor under the Medicare Agreements and Medicaid Contracts, and the Debtor is not assuming and assigning such agreements and contracts to the Receiver in such capacity.

12. Retention of Receivables by Debtor. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in the Receiver Agreement, the Purchase Agreement or any other agreement or document, the Debtor shall, without limitation, retain all ownership and other rights to all Pre-Receiver AR. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtor shall, without limitation, retain all ownership and other rights to all Pre-Receiver AR, notwithstanding anything contained in Sections 1.12, 1.14, 2.7, 2.10, 2.12, 2.14, 3.2, 3.16, 4.3, 4.6 and Section 5.3 of Receiver Agreement,

13. Lien Release. Upon consummation of the Sale, if any person or entity (other than Greystone Funding Company LLC), that has filed financing statements, mortgages, mechanic's liens, lis pendens, or recorded real property interests, or filed any other documents or agreements evidencing Liens, Interests and/or Claims against or in the Purchased Assets shall not have delivered to the Debtor prior to the Closing, in proper form for filing and executed by the appropriate parties, termination statements, instruments of satisfactions, releases of all Liens, Interests and/or Claims that the person or entity has with respect to the Purchased Assets (unless otherwise assumed in, or transferred by, the Purchase Agreement), or otherwise, then: (a) the Debtor is hereby authorized to execute and file such statements, instruments, releases and other documents on behalf of the person or entity with respect to the Purchased Assets; and (b) the Buyer is hereby authorized to file, register, or otherwise record a certified copy of this Order, which, once filed, registered, or otherwise recorded, will constitute conclusive evidence of the release of all Liens, Interests and/or Claims in the Purchased Assets of any kind or nature; provided, that notwithstanding anything in this Order or the Purchase Agreement to the contrary, the provisions of this Order will be self-executing, and neither the Debtor nor Buyer, nor the Receiver, will be required to execute or file releases, termination statements, assignments, consents, or other instruments in order to effectuate, consummate, and implement the provisions of this Order. For the avoidance of doubt, upon consummation of the Sale, the Buyer and/or the Receiver is authorized to file termination statements, lien terminations, or other amendments in any required jurisdiction to remove and record, notice filings or financing statements recorded to attach, perfect, or otherwise notice any lien or encumbrance that is extinguished or otherwise released pursuant to this Order under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code and the related provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

14. No Interference. Except to the extent included in Assumed Liabilities, all entities, including all lenders, debt security holders, equity security holders, governmental, tax, and regulatory authorities, parties to executory contracts and unexpired leases, customers, dealers and sale representatives, and trade or other creditors holding Liens, Interests and/or Claims of any kind or nature whatsoever against or in the Debtor and its bankruptcy estate or the Purchased Assets arising under or out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to, the Purchased Assets or the transfer of the Purchased Assets to the Buyer hereby, or the operation of the Debtor's business in connection with the Purchased Assets, are forever barred and estopped, from asserting any Liens, Interests and/or Claims of any kind or nature whatsoever arising (x) before the Receiver Appointment Date as against the Receiver or any property of the Debtors' estate in possession of or operated by the Receiver and (y) prior to the Closing as against the Buyer and its permitted successors, designees, and assigns, or property, or the Purchased Assets. Following the Closing, no holder of Lien, Claim, and/or Interest in or against the Debtor and its bankruptcy estate or the Purchased Assets will interfere with the Buyer's title to or use and enjoyment of the Purchased Assets based on or related to such Lien, Claim, and/or Interest or any actions that the Debtor and its bankruptcy estate may take in this Chapter 11 Case or any successor case.

15. No Successor Liability. By virtue of the Sale, to the extent allowed by applicable law and except as otherwise set forth in this Order, the Buyer (including its designees, successors, assigns, and affiliates) shall not be deemed or considered to (a) be a successor (or other such similarly situated party), or otherwise be deemed a successor to the Debtor, including a "successor employer" for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), or other applicable laws; (b) have any responsibility or liability for any obligations of the Debtor, or any affiliate of the Debtor, based on any theory of successor or similar theories of liability; (c) have, de facto or otherwise, merged with or into any of the Debtor; (d) be an alter ego or a mere continuation or substantial continuation of any of the Debtor (and there is no continuity of enterprise between the Buyer and any Debtor), including within the meaning of any foreign, federal, state, or local revenue, pension, ERISA, tax, labor, employment, environmental, or other law, rule, or regulation (including filing requirements under any such laws, rules, or regulations), or under any products liability law or doctrine with respect to the Debtor's liability under such law, rule, or regulation or doctrine; or (e) be holding itself out to the public as a continuation of any of the Debtor or their respective estate.

16. No Responsibility. For the avoidance of doubt, the Buyer shall not be responsible for any Liens, Interests and/or Claims and Excluded Liabilities (other than Assumed Liabilities in the Purchase Agreement), including in respect of the following: (i) any labor or employment agreements; (ii) any mortgages, deeds of trust and security interests; (iii) any intercompany loans and receivables between the Debtor and its owner(s), (iv) any pension, multiemployer plan (as such term is defined in Section 3(37) or Section 4001(a)(3) of ERISA), health or welfare, compensation or other employee benefit plans, agreements, practices and programs, (v) any other employee, worker's compensation, occupational disease or unemployment or temporary disability related claim, including, without limitation, claims that might otherwise arise under or pursuant to (a) ERISA, (b) the Fair Labor Standards Act, (c) Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, (d) the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, (e) the National Labor Relations Act, (f) the Age Discrimination and Employee Act of 1967 and Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended, (g) the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, (h) the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, (i) state discrimination laws, (j) state unemployment compensation laws or any other similar state laws, or (k) any other state or federal benefits or claims relating to any employment with the Debtor or any of its predecessors; (vi) liabilities arising under any Environmental Laws with respect to any assets owned or operated by the Debtor at any time prior to the Closing Date; (vii) any bulk sales or similar law; (viii) any tax statutes or ordinances, including, without limitation, the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; and (ix) any Excluded Liabilities.

17. Assumption and Assignment. If the Buyer identifies any contract or unexpired lease that the Buyer wishes to designate as an Assumed Contract in connection with the Sale, the Buyer shall notify the Debtor and the Debtor shall provide notice to the non-Debtor counterparty of the intention to assume and assign such Assumed Contract to the Buyer, including an indication of the cure amount to be paid in connection with such assignment, if any, and such notice shall provide an opportunity for the non-Debtor counterparty to object to such assumption and assignment. In the event no objection is interposed, the assignment of the Assumed Contract shall be effective without further order of the court. The assumption and assignment of such Assumed Contracts in connection with the Sale is hereby approved and in the best interests of the Debtor, its bankruptcy estate and creditors, and other parties in interest, it being understood that such Assumed Contracts, if any, are an integral part of the Purchase Agreement and the Sale and, accordingly, such assumption and assignment is reasonable and enhances the value of the Debtor's bankruptcy estate and satisfies the requirements of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

18. Collective Bargaining Agreement. The Debtor is not assigning any Collective Bargaining Agreements to the Buyer, and the Debtor's existing Collective Bargaining Agreements are not Assumed Contracts.

19. Employee-Related Liabilities. Except as otherwise required by a Modified CBA, the Buyer shall have no liability to pay wages, bonuses, severance pay, benefits (including, without limitation, contributions or payments on account of any under-funding with respect to any and all pension plans) or any other payment with respect to employees or former employees of the Debtor. Except as otherwise required by a Modified CBA, Buyer shall have no liability with respect to any Collective Bargaining Agreement, employee pension plan, employee welfare or retention, benefit and/or incentive plan to which the Debtor is a party and relating to the Purchased Assets (including, without limitation, arising from or related to the rejection or other termination of any such agreement), and Buyer shall in no way be deemed a party to, successor to or assignee of any such agreement, and no employee of Buyer shall be deemed in any way covered by or a party to any such agreement and all parties to any such agreement are hereby enjoined from asserting against Buyer any and all claims arising from or relating to such agreement.

20. Additional Authorizations. The Debtor, including the Debtor's officers and agents, is/are hereby authorized to execute such documents and do such acts as are necessary or desirable to carry out the transactions contemplated by the terms and conditions of the Receiver Agreement, Purchase Agreement, and this Order. The Debtor will be, and hereby are, authorized to take all such actions as may be necessary to effectuate the terms of this Order and the relief granted pursuant to this Order. No consents or approvals, other than those expressly provided for in the Purchase Agreement or this Order, are required for the Debtor to consummate the Sale.

21. Limitation on Debtor's Actions. Absent the Buyer's express written consent, the Debtor shall not settle or otherwise resolve any existing or future litigation with any third party or any Governmental Entity other than any settlement pursuant to which (i) any liability thereunder will be an Excluded Liability, (ii) no payment from the Buyer or Receiver is sought or required, and (iii) no restrictions are placed on or affecting the Purchased Assets, the Receiver or the operation of the business.

22. No Fraudulent Transfer. The consideration provided by the Buyer to the Debtor pursuant to the Purchase Agreement constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration under the Bankruptcy Code, Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act, Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law within the meaning of section 544(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia. The Receiver Agreement and the Purchase Agreement were not entered into, and the Sale is not being consummated, for the purpose of hindering, delaying, or defrauding creditors of the Debtor under the Bankruptcy Code or under any other applicable law. Neither the Debtor nor the Buyer have entered into the Receiver Agreement or the Purchase Agreement, or are consummating the Sale with any fraudulent intent, or otherwise improper purpose prohibited by law.

23. Good Faith Buyer and Section 363(m) Protection. The Sale is undertaken by the Buyer without collusion and in good faith, as that term is defined in section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and, accordingly, the reversal or modification on appeal of the authorization provided herein to consummate the Sale will not affect the validity of the Sale (including the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts by the Buyer, if any, and the sale free and clear of all Liens, Interests and/or Claims), unless such authorization and consummation of such Sale are duly stayed pending such appeal. The Buyer is an entity that has purchased the Purchased Assets in good faith, as contemplated in section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and, as such, is entitled to the full protections of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

24. No Collusion. As a good-faith purchaser of the Purchased Assets, the Buyer has not colluded with any of the other bidders, potential bidders, or any other parties interested in the Purchased Assets, and therefore the sale of the Purchased Assets may not be avoided pursuant to section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

25. No Sub Rosa Plan. Neither the Sale nor the Receiver appointment impermissibly restructures the rights of the Debtor's creditors nor impermissibly dictates the terms of a liquidating plan or a plan of reorganization of the Debtor. This Order does not constitute a sub rosa plan.

26. No Conflict. Nothing contained in any plan of liquidation or reorganization, or order of any type or kind entered in this Chapter 11 Case, any subsequent chapter 7 or chapter 11 case of the Debtor, or any related proceeding subsequent to entry of this Order, will conflict with or derogate from the terms of this Order, the Receiver Agreement or the Purchase Agreement.

27. Failure to Specify. The mere failure to specifically include any particular provisions of the Receiver Agreement or Purchase Agreement, including any of the documents, agreements, or instruments executed in connection therewith in this Order will not diminish or impair the efficacy of such provision, document, agreement, or instrument, it being the intent of this Court that the Receiver Agreement and Purchase Agreement and each document, agreement or instrument described therein be authorized and approved in its entirety.

28. Time Periods. All time periods set forth in this Order will be calculated in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a).

29. Amendments and Waivers. The Receiver Agreement and Purchase Agreement and any related agreements, documents or other instruments (or any provision thereof) may be amended, supplemented, or waived by the parties thereto in accordance with the terms thereof without further order of this Court.

30. Non-Severable. The provisions of this Order are nonseverable and mutually dependent.

31. Debtor's Continued Ownership and Control of Pre-Receiver AR. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Purchase Agreement or the Receiver Agreement, all Pre-Receiver AR is an excluded asset and is not being purchased by the Buyer. The Debtor shall retain all ownership and control of all Pre-Receiver AR. Whenever the Buyer receives payment on any Pre-Receiver AR, the Buyer shall promptly transfer all Pre-Receiver AR to the Debtor within 3 business days of receipt. The Debtor (and any of its agents) shall be entitled to take all actions it deems appropriate to facilitate the payment and collection of the Pre-Receiver AR. The Debtor shall be entitled to review all records of payments to ensure all Pre-Receiver AR is paid to the Debtor and this Court will retain jurisdiction to hear and determine any dispute arising from this paragraph.

32. Terms of Order Control. The terms of this Order shall govern, to the extent of any inconsistencies between the terms of this Order and the Purchase Agreement, the Receiver Agreement, or any other document (a) approved in connection with the Motions or (b) entered into in connection with this Order, the Purchase Agreement, or the Receiver Agreement; provided that nothing controls the terms of documents not specifically approved by this Order or other orders entered by this court.

33. No Stay. Notwithstanding the provisions of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h), 6006(d) or 7062 or any applicable provisions of the Local Rules, this Order will not be stayed after the entry hereof, but will be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry, and the fourteen (14) day stay provided in Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) is hereby expressly waived and will not apply.

34. Continuing Jurisdiction. This Court will retain jurisdiction to, among other things, interpret, implement, and enforce the terms and provisions of this Order, the Receiver Agreement, and the Purchase Agreement, all amendments thereof, supplements thereto, and any waivers and consents thereunder and each of the agreements executed in connection therewith to which the Debtor is a party or which has been assigned by the Debtor to the Buyer, and to adjudicate, if necessary, any and all disputes concerning or relating in any way to the Sale or the Receiver Appointment.

35. New Bank Accounts. In order to facilitate the transition of operations to the Receiver, the Debtor is hereby authorized to open new bank accounts at Metropolitan Commercial Bank (“MCB”) and MCB is hereby authorized and directed to allow the Debtor to open such bank accounts. Greystone shall be entitled to a lien and/or security interest in such accounts to the same extent, validity and priority as Greystone’s lien and/or security interest in the Debtor’s existing accounts at MCB, provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall constitute an admission by the Debtor (or the Committee) of the validity, extent or priority of Greystone's liens.

WHEREAS, in the Executive Law § 63(12) Special Proceeding, on April 12, 2024, the Honorable Lisa A. WHEREAS, the Home and the Receiver recognize that eliminating uncertainty regarding the Home’s finances and ownership in a manner that ensures the Home complies with the law is in the best interests of the Home’s residents;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and covenants herein contained, it is mutually agreed by and between the signatories to this Agreement as follows:

ARTICLE 1: RECEIVERSHIP

1.1. The Home hereby confirms its request to the Department to approve the assumption of the operation of the Facility by the Receiver.

1.2. The Receiver, having complied with all of the requirements of the Department, is hereby appointed as receiver of the Facility to commence its operations as Receiver at 12:01 a.m. on _____, 2025 (the date on which the Receiver is authorized to act as receiver of the Facility is hereinafter sometimes referred to as the “Receivership Date” or the “Effective Date”). The Receiver accepts the appointment as Receiver of the Facility and will execute this Agreement in the appropriate space provided at the end of this Agreement. The Receiver shall accept the use and possession of the real property occupied by the Facility through a lease with a third party, and the use and possession of the equipment and all other tangible assets used by the Home in their then present “as is” physical condition. The Receiver shall maintain the conditions and fund operations and liabilities of the Facility including, future rental amounts of the Home only in the amount required to pay debt service on the Facility HUD insured loan, from the Facility’s cash and accounts receivable, from dates of service after the inception of the Term of Receivership (as defined below), from institutional and private working capital loans, and from managing the payables and obligations of the Facility efficiently. Eliezer Jay Zelman, as the authorized Member or Officer of the Receiver shall be the signatory, as Receiver, on the Home’s payroll account for purposes of paying all payroll and payroll taxes for the employees of the Home during the Term of Receivership. The Receiver may fund as working capital sums necessary to cover the Facility’s needs and expenses, to fund its obligations hereunder and in respect of the Receivership and to maintain the Facility in good repair. Any funding provided directly by the Receiver to the Facility during the Term of Receivership shall be documented as a loan from the Receiver to the Facility and repaid at usual commercial rates at a time or times when the Facility is capable. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall make the Receiver responsible for any claims, obligations, liabilities, costs or expenses howsoever arising or relating to any period prior to the Effective Date hereof, all of which shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary, remain the responsibility and liability of the Home.

1.3. Except as herein provided, the duration of appointment of the Receiver as receiver of the Facility shall be for a period of not more than eighteen (18) months from the Receivership Date, subject to renewal or extension or earlier termination as provided below (the "Term of Receivership"). The Department may, in its discretion, extend the duration of this Agreement until appointment of a new receiver acceptable to the Department or the issuance of an operating certificate to a new established operator. The Home, provided the Receiver is in substantial compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, shall join with the Receiver to seek Department approval to renew or extend this Agreement for a period or periods not to exceed an additional twelve (12) months. Any such extensions shall be on the same terms and conditions as set forth herein or such other terms and conditions as may be agreed upon in writing by the parties, provided, however, subject to Section 1.9, that the duration of this Receivership may be terminated sooner if:

- (i) anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, the Department determines, in its sole discretion, that material deficiencies have occurred at the Facility during the Term of Receivership which warrant the removal of the Receiver;
- (ii) the Receiver has been convicted of a crime;
- (iii) otherwise mandated by law;
- (iv) upon the mutual written consent of the parties; or
- (v) the Department determines, with respect to matters other than deficiencies as set forth in clause (i) above, in its sole discretion, that the Receiver is not in substantial compliance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement; provided, however, that in such event, the Department will have provided the Receiver with written notification of the nature and extent of its non-compliance, and the Receiver has failed, in the Department's opinion, to make sufficient progress toward attaining compliance.

1.4. The Receiver waives any right to a hearing under any section of the Public Health Law relative to revocation of an operating certificate, and agrees to surrender the operating certificate issued to it upon the revocation of the operating certificate, expiration or termination of this Agreement, or expiration or termination of any extension thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Home agrees that, in the event a bona fide purchaser of the Facility, or a buyer under an asset purchase agreement, has pending an application for establishment under Section 2801-a of the Public Health Law (the “Establishment Application”), it will consent to extensions of the Receivership to the Receiver, subject to Department approval, including further renewals, if necessary, for as long as the Establishment Application is pending and has not been proposed for disapproval by the Public Health and Health Planning Council or the Department for any reason. Whether such Establishment Approval has been proposed for disapproval shall be determined by reference to the minutes of the applicable meeting of the Public Health and Health Planning Council (“PHHPC”) and the Department’s staff reports on the PHHPC agenda.

1.5. The Receiver agrees that the Independent HealthCare Monitor (the “IHM”) will remain in place:

- (i) during the pendency of this Receivership,
- (ii) during the pendency of an Establishment Application submitted to the PHHPC by a bona fide purchaser, and
- (iii) in the event the PHHPC approves an Establishment Application submitted by the Receiver or another bona fide purchaser, until such transaction closes.

1.6. The Home agrees to promptly and diligently execute all documents necessary to transfer full possession and control of the operations of the Facility to the Receiver.

1.7. The Home hereby waives any rights it may have under the Public Health Law, or otherwise, to terminate this Agreement or terminate the appointment of the Receiver as receiver except as expressly set forth in this Agreement.

1.8. Provided that the Facility has a Title XIX provider agreement, the Receiver shall be reimbursed as an operator through the Medicaid program pursuant to 10 N.Y.C.R.R. Subpart 86-2. The Department shall not be responsible for any expenses incurred by the Receiver and related to the operation of the Facility which are not reimbursed pursuant to Subpart 86-2 or by any other payor.

1.9. The Home, in connection with the appointment by the Department of the Receiver, waives the right to terminate this Agreement or contest the appointment of the Receiver except for: (i) claims related to the Department's alleged failure to honor or its breach or default under this Agreement, or (ii) breaches or defaults by the Receiver.

1.10. The parties agree that this Agreement shall not be terminated without the prior written approval of the Department.

1.11. If, for any reason, this Agreement expires or is terminated, including but not limited to termination ordered by the Commissioner of Health for failure of the Receiver to operate the Facility in conformance with Titles 10 or 18 of the N.Y.C.R.R., the Medicare/Medicaid requirements for long term care facilities, the Public Health Law and/or this Agreement, the Home agrees that operation of the Facility will not revert to the control of the Home and/or its partners, but the Home within a reasonable period of time (not less than five (5) days) shall have the right to propose another voluntary receiver ("Substitute Receiver"). The appointment by the Home of a Substitute Receiver shall be subject to approval by the Department in the same manner. The Home, the Department and the Substitute Receiver shall enter into a substitute receiver agreement similar to this Agreement. In the event that the Home does not propose a substitute receiver within the time period delineated by the Department, the Department may appoint a substitute receiver without the approval of the parties hereto or the need to petition the Supreme Court. In the event that the Home timely proposes a receiver that the Department disapproves the Home may propose another substitute receiver within a reasonable time (not less than three (3) days). If the Department disapproves the second proposed receiver, it may appoint a substitute receiver without the approval of the parties hereto or the need to petition the Supreme Court. The expiration or termination of any substitute receiver agreement shall be governed by the same procedure. The parties hereto agree that the Department may disapprove a proposed substitute receiver if, in the Department's sole discretion, such proposed substitute receiver has a familial relationship or past or present business or employment relationship with the Home. In the event the Substitute Receiver is terminated, or the substitute receiver agreement expires, the Department may appoint a third receiver without the approval of the parties hereto or the need to petition the Supreme Court.

1.12. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, all accounts receivable, related to the period on or after Receivership Date, shall, upon collection, be used by the Receiver for the benefit of the Facility pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and consistent with all provisions of law. The use of the pre-Receivership Date accounts receivable and other assets shall be used to pay claims (as defined in Section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code), in accordance with the priorities set forth in Section 507 of the Bankruptcy Code.

1.13. The Receiver or the Home may apply to the Department for such rulings as from time to time they may deem necessary in delineating the extent of the authority of the Receiver.

1.14. The Receiver shall operate the business conducted at the Facility on and after the Receivership Date for its own account. Receiver shall solely be entitled to, and responsible for, all profits and losses and capital requirements of the business conducted at the Facility during the Term of Receivership in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement. The Receiver shall be entitled to all revenues accruing with respect to the operation of the business conducted at the Facility both prior to, at the election of the Receiver, and commencing with the Receivership Date and thereafter during the Term of Receivership. The Receiver shall be liable for all post-Receivership accounts payable and other liabilities, including taxes of all kinds (including but not limited to payroll, provider, income, and real property taxes), and employee severance and benefit obligations arising out of or relating to the operation of the business conducted at the Facility during the Term of Receivership. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any profit generated during the Receivership shall be retained by Receiver, subject to the terms set forth in Section 2.8 of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 2: REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND AGREEMENTS OF RECEIVER

The Receiver represents, warrants and agrees as follows:

2.1. It shall not act as an agent of the Department nor represent or hold itself out as an agent for the Department in any matter nor shall it hold itself out as a political subdivision of the State.

2.2. It shall not act as an agent of the Home, or any of its owners.

2.3. It shall not act as an agent of the owners of the Facility, if different than that of the Home and its owners.

2.4. It shall act in good faith and shall not delegate its duties and responsibilities to any other individual or entity, except that it may, on behalf of the Home, hire its own administrators and staff.

2.5. It shall operate the Facility in substantial compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, including, but not limited to, the requirements for participation in the Medicare/Medicaid programs, and any court order. The Receiver shall implement the recommendations of the IHM until such time that an Establishment Application is approved by PHHPC, and until such transaction closes.

2.6. In its operation of the Facility as Receiver, the Receiver shall not engage in any practice that may result, directly or indirectly, in any financial gain to itself in its capacity as Receiver, except as expressly set forth herein. The Receiver shall be paid, and is authorized to withdraw, fees for services as Receiver in such amounts and at such times that will not impact the continued operation of the Facility, it being understood that (i) the total sum of such fees shall not exceed Four Hundred Eighty Thousand Dollars ($480,000) per year; (ii) such fees shall be satisfied by revenue from operation of the Facility during the Term of Receivership; and (iii) the reimbursability of such fees shall be in accordance with 10 N.Y.C.R.R. Subpart 86-2.

2.7. The Receiver shall hold the assets of the Home in trust for the Home and shall take no action which would result in diminution of the assets entrusted to it by the Home. It is also agreed to by the parties that the Receiver shall not be responsible for any and all payables, liabilities or obligations of any kind incurred before the inception of the receivership and that those shall remain the responsibility of the Home which the Home shall pay in the ordinary course. The Home shall have no right to any accounts receivable arising for services that occurred after inception of the Receivership and it shall make no collection efforts with regard to the same.

2.8. In the event of the expiration or termination of the Receivership, the Receiver shall execute and deliver such assignments, reassignments, conveyances, releases and other documents as may be reasonably required to restore the parties to the status quo ante and to transfer the assets, liabilities and operations of the Facility, and divest itself of all incidents of ownership thereof to such person(s) or entities as the Home shall designate, subject to the approval of the Department.

2.9. The Receiver, within ninety (90) days after the end of each calendar quarter, shall provide the Department and the Home with an accounting, performed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied, of its operation of the Facility during the term of its Receivership. Nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to limit the provisions of Paragraph 4.3 herein. The provisions of this section shall survive the expiration or termination of this agreement.

2.10. All funds generated for the services provided during the Term of the Receivership shall be retained by the Receiver and, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, utilized to fund the Facility's operations and its obligations as provided under this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, but subject to making payments necessary to ensure the health and safety of residents and only if the Receiver will have adequate operating funds both before and after the reimbursement, the Receiver may make priority reimbursement distributions of funds necessary to reimburse the Receiver for any sums advanced/loaned directly or indirectly to the Facility or for its benefit for its operations including, but not limited to, for leasehold improvements (“Advances”). Any Advances shall be reflected in the accountings referred to in Paragraph 2.9 herein, in accordance with the provisions of that paragraph. Upon termination of the Receivership, after all liabilities incurred during the Term of Receivership have been paid, any remaining profit and funds shall be accounted for by the Receiver, and, subject to the approval of the Public Health and Health Planning Council, shall be paid to the Home unless otherwise agreed by the parties, and pursuant to and consistent with any applicable court order. Provided, however, that the Receiver may pay its pro rata share of any cash receipts assessment incurred during the Receivership Period.

2.11. It is acknowledged that the Home will not have an adequate remedy at law in the event of a breach or threatened breach by the Receiver of any of its obligations hereunder and the Home shall be entitled to such equitable and injunctive relief as may be available to restrain a violation or threatened violation of the provisions of this Agreement, or to compel compliance with and enforce the provisions hereof. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the Home from pursuing any other remedies available to it for such breach or threatened breach, including the recovery of damages, provided that the Home shall not pursue any remedy against the Receiver for any actions the Receiver takes or does not take pursuant to any court order, or any recommendation by the IHM.

2.12. The Receiver shall not incur any obligation or make borrowings secured by the Home or any part of the Home or the Home’s assets, or undertake any transaction which would place an encumbrance upon the assets of the Home during the Term of Receivership without the prior written approval of the Home, not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, and the Department; with the exception that the Receiver may collateralize Facility loans secured by the Receiver including working capital lines of credit during the Term of Receivership with Facility accounts receivable accruing on or after commencement of the Term of Receivership. In the event any execution or attachment is issued against the Receiver and/or the Home, the Facility or its property, relating to obligations which accrued during the Term of Receivership, such encumbrance shall be cured or removed by the Receiver within twenty-one (21) days after notice in writing to the Receiver of such encumbrance or cured or removed within a reasonable time in the event that the same cannot be cured or removed with reasonable diligence within such twenty-one (21) day period. In no event shall any lien or encumbrance be permitted to continue for more than sixty (60) days. Notwithstanding the forgoing, it is agreed by the parties that the Receiver may lease equipment and/or furnishings in any amount as it may determine, provided that the quality of care delivered by the Facility is not adversely impacted by the same.

2.13. Receiver is authorized to execute and perform this Agreement and neither the execution nor delivery of this Agreement nor compliance with its terms and conditions will constitute a breach or violation of any agreement or instrument to which it is bound.

2.14. For any period on and after the Receivership Date, the Receiver shall lend its name to such administrative and/or judicial rate appeals as the Home, in good faith and as applicable, deems appropriate to file under the Medicaid, Medicare, or any other third-party reimbursement or insurance program. The Receiver shall in good faith cooperate with the Home, in preparing, filing and prosecuting such appeals before the appropriate administrative or judicial bodies. The conduct of such actions or proceedings relating to periods prior to the Receivership Date shall lie within the exclusive discretion of the Home. It is expressly understood that the Receiver, at its own cost and expense, may file such rate appeals as it may deem appropriate arising from its operation. Monies generated by all appeals shall be retained by the Receiver in accordance with Paragraph 2.10 herein.

2.15. During the Term of Receivership, the Receiver shall keep and maintain accurate records of the time its personnel devote to the management and operation of the Facility, indicating in reasonable detail the nature and extent of the matters on which they worked so that the time may properly be allocated to appropriate cost centers.

2.16. It shall be deemed an event of default hereunder, if the Receiver shall file a voluntary petition in bankruptcy or shall be adjudicated a bankrupt or shall file any petition or answer seeking reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under the present or any future Federal, State or other statute or law, or shall seek or consent to or acquiesce in the appointment of any trustee, receiver or liquidator of the Receiver or of the Home, and such appointment shall not have been vacated or stayed, on appeal or otherwise, or if within twenty (20) days after the expiration of any such stay, such appointment shall not have been vacated.

2.17. It shall be deemed an event of default hereunder, if the Receiver is convicted of a felony in connection with any activity or program subject to the regulations, supervision or administration of the New York State Department of Health, or in violation of the New York State Public Officers Law, in a court of competent jurisdiction or of a crime outside of the State which, if committed within the State, would have been such a felony.

2.18. The Receiver shall elect in its discretion which contracts, leases and agreements referred to in Paragraph 3.6 of this Agreement it wishes to assume, and any such agreements (or any other agreements of the Home) not so elected shall not be assumed by the Receiver.

2.19. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to diminish any rights that any person or entity not a party to this Agreement may have to proceed against the Receiver with respect to obligations arising out of transactions or events exclusively occurring on or after the Receivership Date and during the period the Receiver acts as such, subject to the terms of this Agreement. The Receiver hereby agrees to and does indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Home from and against any and all losses, damages, costs and expenses, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees, penalties and fines, arising from, relating to or incurred by the Home in connection with any and all of the same.

2.20. There is no action, suit, or other legal, administrative, arbitration or other proceeding or governmental investigation pending or, to the knowledge of the Receiver, threatened with respect to the Receiver.

2.21. The agreements, representations, warranties and obligations of the Receiver set forth in this Article 2 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

2.22. The Home shall be entitled to access to all of the books and records relating to the operation of the Facility during the Receivership, at the Facility, during normal business hours upon two (2) days prior notice to the Receiver and upon the condition that this does not interfere with the operation of the Facility.

2.23. Notwithstanding the provisions of this or any other agreement to the contrary, the Receiver shall not add a new member, transfer or otherwise dispose of any membership interests or voting rights, or modify the management or legal structure of the Receiver during the term of this Agreement, without the prior written approval of the Department.

2.24. The Receiver shall devote whatever time is necessary, including on-site presence, to accomplish its duties and responsibilities.

ARTICLE 3: REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND AGREEMENTS OF THE HOME

The Home represents, warrants and agrees as follows:

3.1. It has full power and authority to execute and perform this Agreement, subject to approval of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (“Court”) where its Chapter 11 bankruptcy Case No. 25-22002 (“Bankruptcy Case”) is pending, and shall fully cooperate with the Receiver as and when requested by the Receiver in connection with the Receiver’s duties hereunder.

3.2. The Home hereby makes available to Receiver all items of tangible personal and real property and equipment belonging to or leased by the Home on the Receivership Date and used in the operation of the Facility and all permits and licenses of the Home relating to the Facility, to the extent permitted by applicable law and any such leases previously delivered by the Home to Receiver, and all of the Home's possessory interest therein, including, but not limited to, all of its accounts receivable, whether existing as of the date hereof or hereafter arising, and all of its cash as well as all prepayments received by the Home with respect to services to be rendered by the Facility on or after the Receivership Date and the use of the Premises by the Receiver (which Premises are owned by the Home). Until an Establishment Application is filed by the Receiver, or by another bona fide purchaser, and is approved by the Public Health and Health Planning Council, and such transaction closes, the existing concession in which Cold Spring Acquisition and Cold Spring Realty arranged with each other as related parties and have operated, whereby Cold Spring Acquisition pays no rent to Cold Spring Realty, and instead pays only the debt-service on the mortgage for the real property directly to the mortgagee and/or its servicer, shall continue.

3.3. It shall not incur any additional obligations or make additional borrowings secured by the Facility or any part of the Facility or the Home's or Facility's assets or undertake any new transaction which would cause a lien, security agreement or other encumbrance to be placed upon the assets of the Receiver or the Facility during the Term of Receivership without the prior written approval of the Receiver and the Department. In the event any execution or attachment is issued against the Receiver and/or the Home or its property, relating to obligations which accrued prior to the Receivership Date or obligations unrelated to the operation of the Facility, such encumbrance shall be cured or removed within twenty-one (21) days after notice in writing to the Home of such encumbrance, or cured or removed within a reasonable time in the event that the same cannot be cured or removed with reasonable diligence within such twenty-one (21) day period. In no event shall any lien or encumbrance be permitted to continue for more than sixty (60) days.

3.4. It shall not be entitled to any compensation for entering into this Agreement or the Receivership arrangements contemplated herein.

3.5. The Home and its members shall not retain any authority over the operation of the Facility after appointment of the Receiver, and shall not attempt to exercise any direction over the Receiver with respect to such operation.

3.6. If the Home has not already done so, within ten (10) days hereof, the Home shall submit to the Receiver a true and correct list of all material contracts and agreements to which the Facility is a party or to which it may be bound, which relate to the Facility, its property or its operation including, without limitation, service contracts, and union agreements. The Home represents that no unfair labor practice proceedings have been filed or are pending against it at the National Labor Relations Board. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize cancellation of any contract or agreement in contravention of law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Receiver shall evaluate the Facility's contract with any related party and re-negotiate a fee that reflects the amount that a prudent buyer would pay in an arms-length transaction pursuant to Medicare Cost Report Guideline 2135.2.

3.7. The Home shall remain liable for any Medicaid or Medicare overpayments determined by audit to have been made relating to any period prior to the effective date of this Agreement.

3.8. The Home shall keep the Receiver apprised with respect to any potential settlements of rate disputes with the Department, and the Receiver shall keep the Home apprised of any such settlements.

3.9. The Home shall remain liable for any liabilities relating to any period prior to the effective date of this Agreement.

3.10. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to diminish any rights that any person or entity not a party to this Agreement may have to proceed against the Home with respect to financial obligations arising out of transactions occurring prior to the date hereof.

3.11. To the best of its knowledge, other than as disclosed to Receiver and the Department in writing, there is no action, suit, or other legal, administrative, arbitration or governmental investigation pending or, to the knowledge of the Home, threatened with respect to the Home or the Facility.

3.12. The Home represents that the lease of the real estate is non-arm's length and that, pursuant to paragraphs 1.2 and 3.2 above, no rent will accrue or be charged to the Receiver, other than the amount required to pay debt service on the Facility HUD insured loan, for the duration of this Agreement.

3.13. The Home represents, warrants and agrees that it has not encumbered the real estate of the Facility in any way not heretofore disclosed to the Receiver and the Department in writing, and that it shall not during the term of the Receivership encumber the real estate or any lease relating to the Facility in any way without the prior consent of the Receiver and the Department.

3.14. Neither the execution or delivery of this Agreement will constitute a breach of any contract or agreement entered into by the Home.

3.15. It is acknowledged that the Receiver will not have an adequate remedy at law in the event of a breach or threatened breach by the Home of any of its obligations hereunder and the Receiver shall be entitled to such equitable and injunctive relief as may be available to restrain a violation or threatened violation of the provisions of this Agreement, or to compel compliance with and enforce the provisions hereof without the necessity of posting a bond or security. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the Receiver from pursuing any other remedies available to it for such breach or threatened breach, including the recovery of damages. The prevailing party in any dispute concerning this Agreement shall be entitled to the reimbursement of its reasonable counsel fees incurred in connection with such dispute.

3.16. The Home shall turn over to the Receiver possession of all Facility assets, including but not limited to, all resident personal accounts along with an accounting thereof. The Home shall turn over access to, and management of, all Facility bank accounts and electronic access codes and methods relating to the same for which the Receiver shall have access and control over all such assets and the Home further agrees to fully and timely cooperate with the Receiver in implementing the provisions of this Agreement including, but not limited to, providing the Receiver's representatives with authorizations to communicate with the Department in connection with this Agreement. Accounts receivable that accrued/arose from services from prior to the Receivership Date shall belong to the Home.

3.17. The Home represents that in the past six (6) months, there have been no extraordinary withdrawals of funds.

3.18. The Agreements, representations, warranties and obligations of the Home set forth in this Article 3 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement and/or the Receivership.

ARTICLE 4: POWERS, DUTIES, RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE RECEIVER

Except as limited in this Agreement with respect to fees or otherwise, the powers, rights, duties and obligations of the Receiver shall include those accorded a receiver appointed in an action to foreclose a mortgage on real property and in equity, and the Receiver shall also have the powers, duties, rights and obligations as if appointed under Section 2810(2) of the Public Health Law, unless otherwise limited herein, including, but not limited to, the following:

4.1. The Receiver may sue and be sued in its capacity as receiver for the Facility.

4.2. The Receiver shall use reasonable care, diligence and prudence in the use and maintenance of the Facility and the building in which the Facility is located.

4.3. The Receiver shall maintain an appropriate system of financial accounts with respect to the operation of the Facility, shall meet all reporting requirements of the Department, and shall itemize receipts and expenditures in a current and business-like manner in accordance with New York State rules and regulations as well as the New York State RHCFA Accounting and Reporting Manual. The Receiver shall have full control over and take full responsibility for all accounts and bookkeeping with the Facility during the Term of Receivership.

4.4. The Receiver may enter into and amend contracts, and incur reasonable expenses for the maintenance and operation of the Facility.

4.5. The Receiver shall not be required to obtain a bond.

4.6. The Receiver shall collect incoming payments from all sources and apply them to the costs incurred in the performance of its functions hereunder, except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement.

4.7. In the event that the Department determines that deficiencies exist at the Facility, and in accordance with applicable law imposes a civil penalty, such penalty may be assessed against the Receiver. During the Term of Receivership, the Home shall be responsible for deficiencies arising prior to the Receivership Date including but not limited to any reasonable costs and expenses necessary to ameliorate the same and any civil penalties which may be legally imposed by the Department or found to be due to a third party as a result of the same.

4.8. The Receiver may hire and fire such personnel and consultants, including, but not limited to, professional consultants, as from time to time it may deem necessary or advisable, except as prohibited by law or regulation. The Receiver may not hire in any capacity, retain as a consultant or in any other way utilize the services of any member of the Home. Consultants shall be required to keep and maintain accurate records of the time they devote to the management and operation of the Facility indicating in reasonable detail the nature and extent of the matters on which they worked so that their time may properly be allocated to appropriate cost centers. The Department, at this time, takes no position as to the reimbursability of such expenses under the Medicaid program.

4.9. The Receiver may either at its expense: (i) continue the Home's and/or Facility's malpractice and general liability insurance and other forms or types of insurance coverages and may secure malpractice and general liability insurance and other forms and types of insurance coverages in its own name and/or it may be added by endorsement to the Home's and/or Facility's malpractice and general liability insurance policies or (ii) obtain other malpractice and/or general liability insurances and other forms and types of insurance coverages from other sources and in such other amounts as it may determine. The Receiver shall cause the Home to be listed as an additional insured on any such insurance provided in this Section. The Department, at this time, takes no position with respect to the reimbursability of such expenses under the Medicaid program.

4.10. Prior to making any capital or leasehold improvement, except in the case of an emergency, the Receiver shall advise the Home of its plans. The Home's consent shall not be required.

4.11. The Receiver represents that it has no employment, consulting agreements or other business agreements of any kind whatsoever with the Home or any principal of the Home and no agreement of such kind will be entered into during the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5: OPERATION OF THE FACILITY

5.1. The Department shall not be responsible for any debts and obligations incurred in the operation of the Facility by the Receiver during the Receivership.

5.2. The Receiver shall operate the Facility and enter into the functions and responsibilities hereunder on the Receivership Date.

5.3. The books and records of the Facility shall be in the exclusive possession and control of the Receiver, and the Home shall have reasonable access to same. The Receiver shall prepare and make available to the Home upon request monthly accountings of pre-Receivership accounts receivable collected, to which the Home has retained ownership under this Agreement. Nothing herein shall be deemed to transfer ownership of the books and records to the Receiver. Upon termination of the Receivership, the Receiver and the Home shall have access and a right to the books and records of the Receivership.

5.4. The Receiver and the Home shall make all books and records, accounts, agreements and documents of whatsoever nature, or copies thereof, relating to the Facility available to the Department upon demand. There will be no charge to the Department for any copies made.

ARTICLE 6: SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE HOME

6.1. No provision contained herein shall be deemed to relieve the Home from any civil or criminal liability incurred or imposed by law by reason of acts or omission of the Home prior to the appointment of the Receiver. The Home waives no right with respect to disputing or contesting any asserted liability.

ARTICLE 7: RELATING TO THE DEPARTMENT

7.1. An amended operating certificate shall be issued to the Receiver as of the Receivership Date or, as soon as is practicable. Such operating certificate shall remain in effect during the period the Receiver serves as Receiver of the Home hereunder. Upon termination of the receivership pursuant to Paragraph 1.3 herein, the Receiver shall surrender the amended operating certificate to the Department.

7.2. The Department shall promulgate a Medicaid reimbursement rate for the Receiver in accordance with Subpart 86-2. The Department, provided all conditions of participation in Title XVIII and Title XIX are met, agrees to recommend to the United States Department of Health and Human Services that a Title XVIII Provider Agreement be issued to the Receiver and to issue a Title XIX Provider Agreement to the Receiver.

ARTICLE 8: MISCELLANEOUS

8.1. This Agreement may be executed in any number of original, facsimile or pdf counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which, when taken together, shall constitute but one agreement.

8.2. This Agreement shall be binding upon the parties hereto. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to or shall be construed to confer any rights or remedies on any person or entity not a party to this Agreement.

8.3. In the event a dispute arises between the Home and Receiver out of or with respect to this Agreement, its application or interpretation, such dispute shall be submitted to arbitration as follows:

Upon seven (7) days' notice in writing from one party to the other, each shall select one (1) person and the two (2) people so selected shall select a third person, to serve as a panel of three (3) to hear and decide such dispute. In the event the two (2) selected arbitrators cannot agree upon the third arbitrator, the parties shall submit to the American Arbitration Association for the selection of the third arbitrator. The hearing shall be held within a period of two (2) weeks from the time of such written notice. The panel shall not be bound by the rules of evidence and its decision, from which there shall be no appeal, may be legal or equitable in nature or a combination of both or may represent a compromise which the panel deems fair and equitable under all the facts and surrounding circumstances then prevailing. The award of the panel may be entered, in accordance with the provisions of the Civil Practice Law and Rules, as an award and judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Such award, in any event, shall not in any manner bind the Department.

8.4. In case any one or more of the provisions contained in this Agreement shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect as may be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions contained herein shall not be affected or impaired thereby in any manner.

8.5. The parties agree to execute and deliver any and all necessary documents to give full force and effect to this Agreement.

8.6. Article headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and are not a part of this Agreement. Such headings shall not affect the meaning or construction of any provision herein. Inappropriate gender references in this Agreement shall be deemed to be correct.

The Buyer shall provide Company with all correspondence and materials in connection therewith. The principal of the applicant shall always be the DOO except that: (i) if such principal fails DOH's character and competence review, Buyer may substitute a Person for such principal; and (ii) Buyer may add to the Persons listed in the Application with the consent of the Company, which shall not be unreasonably withheld.

Section 6.3 Efforts; No Inconsistent Action.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions hereof, Buyer and the Company shall cooperate and use their commercially reasonable, good faith efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and to cause the conditions to each other's obligation to close the transactions contemplated hereby as set forth in Article X to be satisfied. In addition, each of Buyer and the Company will give notice to one another of, and a reasonable opportunity to participate in, any discussions with any Governmental Entity regarding notices and applications required to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Buyer and the Company shall cooperate with each other to the extent reasonable in connection with the foregoing.

(b) In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, Buyer and the Company shall, at their own respective cost and expense, use their commercially reasonable, good faith efforts to file their respective applications or filings with any applicable Governmental Entity whose Approval is required in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as promptly as practicable following the Receivership Date.

(c) Buyer and the Company shall cooperate and use their respective commercially reasonable, good faith efforts to obtain any Approvals required for the Closing, to respond to any requests for information from a Governmental Entity, and to contest and resist any Action and to have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned any Order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) that restricts, prevents or prohibits the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, Buyer and the Company shall provide the other the opportunity to make copies of all material correspondence, filings or communications (or memoranda setting forth the substance thereof) between such party or its representatives, on the one hand, and any Governmental Entity, on the other hand, with respect to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Buyer and the Company acknowledge that all such information provided pursuant to the foregoing sentence shall be subject to the terms of any confidentiality agreement.

(d) Buyer and the Company shall notify and keep the other advised as to: (i) any material communication from any Governmental Entity, including any “30-day letters,” regarding any of the transactions contemplated hereby; and (ii) any Action pending and known to such Party or, to its knowledge, threatened, which challenges the transactions contemplated hereby. Any such supplemental disclosure will be deemed to have cured the breach of any representation or warranty made in this Agreement with respect to such disclosed matter only if such supplemental disclosure does not result in a Material Adverse Effect on the Business (it being understood that the consummation of the Closing after the supplemental disclosure will be deemed to constitute a waiver of any such breach).

Section 6.5 Prior Knowledge. If Buyer or the Company had knowledge prior to the execution of this Agreement that any representation or warranty of the other Party contained in this Agreement was not true and correct as of the date hereof, Buyer or the Company, as the case may be, may not assert such breach of a representation and warranty as a basis not to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In the event the Closing occurs, Buyer and the Company hereby expressly waive, relinquish and release any right or remedy available to it at Law, in equity or under this Agreement to make a Claim against the other Party for damages that such Party may incur, or to rescind this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, as the result of any of the other Party's representations or warranties being not true or correct, if such Party knew that such representation or warranty was not true or correct at the time of the Closing, as demonstrated by written confirmation.

Section 6.6 New Accounts. Within five (5) Business Days after the Receivership Date, the Company shall establish a new operating bank account (the "New Operating Account") and a new payroll bank account (the "New Payroll Account"), both of which shall be under the control of the Receiver (the "New Accounts") and over which the DOO or another employee of the Company designated by the DOO, and another person designated by the Receiver, shall have signature authorization. (A) With respect to all accrued vacation time, accrued sick time, and personal days to which any Buyer Employee is entitled, as of the Receivership Date, pursuant to the policy applicable to such Buyer Employees immediately prior to the Receivership Date, Buyer shall, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable local Law, assume the liability for such unused vacation time, sick time, and personal time, "fully burdened and bundled" with all taxes, including Social Security and other applicable taxes, and all employer benefit plan contributions that Company would be required to make with respect to such vacation time and personal days upon payment thereof and allow such Buyer Employee to use such accrued vacation time and personal days, all as set forth in a detailed schedule, delineated by each Buyer Employee, to be delivered by Company at Closing. Buyer shall indemnify and hold Company harmless with respect to any liability for claims by a Buyer Employee in any way relating to such accrued and assumed vacation time and personal days, fully burdened and bundled as aforesaid, that may arise on or after the Receivership Date.
  - vii. Buyer shall be responsible for compliance with WARN and comparable New York State legislation with respect to events that occur on or after the Receivership Date. The Company reserves the right to send notices it deems appropriate under WARN and comparable New York State legislation in connection with the Closing. During the period prior to the Closing, the Buyer shall not act in any manner that way trigger WARN.
  - viii. The Company and its Affiliates shall retain the right to enforce any and all agreements relating to Intellectual Property retained by the Company or any of its Affiliates with respect to the Buyer Employees after the Closing.
- (c) No Duplicate Benefits. Nothing in this Agreement shall require or cause duplicate benefits to be paid or provided to or with respect to a Buyer Employee under any employee benefit policies, plans, arrangements, programs, practices or agreements with respect to the same period of service.

Section 8.2 Employee Rights; No Third Party Beneficiaries. Nothing expressed or implied in this Article shall confer upon any employee of the Company or its Affiliates or upon any Buyer Employee or upon any legal representative of such employee, any rights or remedies, including any right to employment or continued employment for any specified period, of any nature or kind whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, shall create a third party beneficiary relationship or otherwise confer any benefit, entitlement, or right upon any person or entity other than the parties hereto.

Section 8.3 Union Contract. Buyer recognizes that SEIU 1199 Health Care Employees (“Union”) is the bargaining agent for Buyer Employees and agrees to negotiate a Collective Bargaining Agreement with the union in good faith. From and after the Receivership Date Buyer agrees to continue contributions to the 1199 SEIU Health Care Employees Pension Fund (“Pension Fund”) with respect to the Buyer Employees, as may be modified in good faith negotiations with the Pension Fund.

Section 8.4 Withdrawal Liability. Buyer and the Company intend to satisfy the obligations under Section 4204 of ERISA and to take any other actions required or desirable so that no withdrawal liability (pursuant to Section 4201 et seq. of ERISA) is imposed upon the Company as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. To that end:

(a) Buyer shall be obligated to contribute to the Pension Fund for substantially the same number of contribution base units (as defined in Section 4001(a)(11) of ERISA) for which the Company had an obligation to contribute to the Pension Fund in respect of the Business prior to the Closing.

(b) Buyer shall provide to the Pension Fund, for the first plan year of the Pension Fund (the “Plan Year”, which is the calendar year) beginning after the Closing and for each of the four (4) Plan Years thereafter, a bond or escrow (or letter of credit or other security that is acceptable to the Pension Fund) that complies with Section 4204(a)(1)(B) of ERISA, in an amount equal to the greater of:

- i. the average annual contribution required to be made to the respective Pension Fund by the Company with respect to the Business for the three (3) Plan Years preceding the Plan Year in which the Closing occurs, or
- ii. the annual contribution required to be made to the respective Pension Fund by the Company with respect to the Business for the last Plan Year completed before the Plan Year in which Closing occurs.

(c) The cost of the bond or escrow (or letters of credit or other security) required under Section 4204(a)(1)(B) of ERISA and subsection (b), above, and any fees and costs associated therewith, shall be paid by the Buyer.

(d) Any such bond or escrow (or letter of credit or other security) shall provide (i) that it shall be paid to the Pension Fund if Buyer withdraws from the Pension Fund, or fails to make a contribution to the Pension Fund when due, at any time during five (5) full plan years beginning after the Closing, and (ii) that it will be released or returned to Buyer under all other circumstances.

(e) The parties hereto shall cooperate and jointly apply to each Pension Fund before the first day of the first Plan Year beginning immediately after the Closing to obtain an exemption or variance from each of the bond/escrow requirements of Section 4204(a)(1)(B) of ERISA and the sale contract language of Section 4204(a)(1)(C) of ERISA, to the extent an exemption or variance is available with respect to each. The cost of any such application shall be borne by the Buyer.

(f) To the extent provided in Section 4204(a)(1)(C) of ERISA, if Buyer withdraws from either Pension Fund in a complete withdrawal, or there occurs a partial withdrawal from either Pension Fund with respect to the Business within such five (5) years, the Company will be secondarily liable for any withdrawal liability (pursuant to Section 4201 et seq. of ERISA) that it would have had with respect to the Business, but for this Agreement, if the liability of Buyer with respect to the Pension Fund is not paid by Buyer; provided, however, that the preceding language will be void and of no effect, if the parties obtain an exemption or variance from the requirements of Section 4204(a)(1)(C) of ERISA.

(g) The Company shall comply with its obligations, if any, under Section 4204(a)(3) of ERISA.

(h) Each Party agrees to indemnify and hold the other Party harmless from and against any and all losses, costs, liens, claims, liabilities or damages (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements) arising from or relating to a breach of such Party's obligations under this Section or any act or omission of such Party or any affiliate thereof in connection with the obligations that such Party has under this Section.

Section 8.5 Assistance. The Company and Buyer agree to cooperate fully with respect to the actions necessary to effect the transactions contemplated in this Article, including (subject to applicable Law) the provision of records (including payroll records) and information as each may reasonably request from the other.

ARTICLE IX TAX MATTERS

Section 9.1 Liability for Taxes and Related Matters.

(a) The Company shall be liable for Taxes and shall prepare or cause to be prepared all Tax Returns relating to the Purchased Assets for periods ending prior to the Receivership Date and the Buyer shall be liable for periods ending on or after the Receivership Date.

(b) Buyer shall be liable for Taxes and shall prepare and file all Tax Returns relating to the Purchased Assets for periods ending after the Receivership Date.

Section 9.2 Cooperation. Buyer and the Company agree to furnish or cause their Affiliates to furnish, to each other, upon written request, as promptly as practicable, such information and assistance relating to the Purchased Assets or the Business (including, access to books and records) as is reasonably necessary for the filing of all Tax Returns and other Tax filings, the making of any election related to Taxes, the preparation for any audit by any taxing authority, and the prosecution or defense of any claim, suit or proceeding relating to any Tax Return. Buyer and the Company shall cooperate, or cause their Affiliates to cooperate, with each other in the conduct of any audit or other proceeding related to Taxes. Buyer and the Company shall provide, or cause their Affiliates to provide, timely notice to each other in writing of any pending or threatened Tax audits, assessments or litigation with respect to the Purchased Assets or the Business for any taxable period for which the other Party may have liability under this Agreement. Buyer and the Company shall furnish, or cause their respective Affiliates to furnish, to each other copies of all correspondence received from any taxing authority in connection with any Tax Audit or information request with respect to any taxable period for which the other Party or its Affiliates may have liability under this Agreement.

ARTICLE X

CONDITIONS OF PURCHASE

Section 10.1 General Conditions. The obligations of Buyer and the Company to effect the Closing shall be subject to the following conditions, unless waived in writing by each of the Parties, that at the Closing Date:

Section 10.2 Conditions to Obligation of Buyer. The obligation of Buyer to effect the Closing shall be subject to the following conditions, except to the extent waived in writing by Buyer:

- (a) Representations and Warranties of the Company. The representations and warranties of the Company contained herein shall be true and correct as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except as otherwise contemplated by this Agreement), except to the extent that the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct would not, individually or in the aggregate, have or reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.
- (b) Covenants of the Company. The Company shall not be in breach or default in any material respect of its obligations and shall have complied in all material respects with all covenants set forth in this Agreement that are required to be performed or complied with by it at or prior to the Closing.

- (d) Officer's Certificate. Buyer shall have received a certificate of the Company signed by an authorized officer of the Company to the effect that the conditions in Section 10.2(a), 10.2(b) and, to the extent such Approvals must be obtained by the Company, 10.2(c) have been satisfied.

- (e) Closing Deliveries. Buyer shall have received the documents referred to in Section 4.2.

Section 10.3 Conditions to Obligation of the Company. The obligation of the Company to effect the Closing shall be subject to the following conditions, except to the extent waived in writing by the Company:

- (a) Representations and Warranties of Buyer. The representations and warranties of Buyer contained herein shall be true and correct as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except as otherwise contemplated by this Agreement), except to the extent that the failure of such representations and warranties to be true and correct would not, individually or in the aggregate, have or reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the benefit of this Agreement and the Real Estate Contract to the Company.
- (b) Covenants of Buyer. Buyer shall not be in breach or default in any material respect of its obligations and shall have complied in all material respects with all covenants set forth in this Agreement that are required to be performed or complied with by it at or prior to the Closing.
- (c) Approvals. All Approvals required by applicable Law to be obtained from any Governmental Entity to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby shall have been received or obtained on or prior to the Closing Date; specifically including, but not limited to, Buyer shall have obtained non-contingent final approval from PHHC and the Commissioner of DOH for Buyer to operate the Business on terms and conditions that will not have a material adverse effect on the operations of the Company or its Affiliates.

- (g) Closing Deliveries. The Company shall have received the payments and documents referred to in Section 4.3.

ARTICLE XI TERMINATION OF OBLIGATIONS

Section 11.1 Termination of Agreement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Agreement may be terminated at any time before the Closing as follows and in no other manner:

- (a) Mutual Consent. By mutual consent in writing of Buyer and the Company.
- (b) Material Breach:
- i. Default by Buyer. In the event that the Buyer has materially breached, defaulted or failed to fulfill any representation, warranty or covenant of this Agreement prior to Closing, and the continuance of such material breach, default or failure by the Buyer which continues for thirty (30) days following the receipt by the Buyer of written notice from the Company specifying the material breach, default or failure within which to cure such material breach, default or failure, the Company shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement by written notice to Buyer.
  - ii. Default by the Company. In the event that the Company has materially breached, defaulted or failed to fulfill any representation, warranty or covenant of this Agreement prior to Closing, and the continuance of such default or failure by the Company which continues for thirty (30) days following the receipt by the Company of written notice from the Buyer specifying the material breach, default or failure within which to cure such material breach, default or failure, the Buyer shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement by written notice to Company.
  - iii. Material Adverse Event. In the event of a Material Adverse Event, Buyer shall have the right to terminate this Agreement or to seek to specifically enforce this Agreement (without the posting of a bond).
- (c) CON Application.
- i. In the event that: (i) Buyer fails to prosecute the Application diligently (as evidenced by Buyer's responsiveness to requests from DOH for further information within deadlines imposed by DOH) and in good faith; or (ii) a member of Buyer fails DOH's character and competence review, and Buyer has exercised any right to substitute such Person listed in the CHOW Application pursuant to Section 6.2, and after such substitution Buyer's Application is not approved due to a character and competence issue or an inability to demonstrate sufficient financial resources, then Buyer shall be deemed to be in default pursuant to Section 11.1(b)(i).

- ii. In the event that DOH informs either party in writing of a final, non-contingent, unconditional and unappealable determination that CON Approval will not or cannot be granted, then any one of either the Buyer or the Company may send written notice to the other that this Agreement shall terminate.

(d) Closing Not Consummated by Fixed Dates. If the Closing has not occurred on or before the Outside Closing Date either Party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other; provided that if the Closing has not occurred due to the breach of this Agreement on the part of a Party, then the breaching Party may not terminate this Agreement pursuant to this subsection.

(e) Termination of Real Estate Contract or the Receiver Agreement. This Agreement shall terminate upon any termination of the Real Estate Contract or the Receiver Agreement.

Section 11.2 Effect of Termination. Upon termination all obligations of the Parties under this Agreement shall terminate without further liability of any Party to another; provided that the obligations of the Parties contained in this Article XI, Article XII, and Sections 7.2, 13.1, 13.2, 13.5, 13.8, 13.10, 13.11, 13.13, 13.14, 13.15, 13.18 and 13.19, and all provisions of this Agreement necessary for the interpretation and enforcement thereof and any confidentiality agreement shall survive any such termination and the provisions regarding the payment of the Deposit shall survive any termination of this Agreement. A termination under Section 11.1 shall not relieve any Party of any liability for an intentional breach of any material covenant or agreement under this Agreement or be deemed to constitute a waiver of any available remedy (including specific performance if available) for any such breach.

ARTICLE XII INDEMNIFICATION; SURVIVAL

Section 12.1 Obligations of the Company. Effective as of the Closing, the Company shall indemnify and hold harmless Buyer, and each of its directors, officers, employees, Affiliates, agents and assigns from and against any and all Indemnifiable Losses based upon, relating to or arising from: (a) the Excluded Liabilities; (b) breach by the Company of any representations, warranties or covenants contained herein; (c) liabilities of the Business arising from or relating to any period prior to the Receivership Date, other than Assumed Liabilities; (d) the Resident Assets to the extent that the Company's schedules delivered in connection therewith at Closing are inaccurate and/or the proper amounts are not transferred to Buyer; and (e) Company's failure to file Tax Returns as required by Section 9.1.

Section 12.2 Obligations of Buyer. Effective as of the Receivership Date, Buyer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company and each of its directors, officers, employees, Affiliates, agents and assigns from and against any and all Indemnifiable Losses based upon, relating to or arising from: (a) the Assumed Liabilities; (b) breach by Buyer of any representations, warranties or covenants contained herein; (c) liabilities of the Business exclusively arising from or relating to any period on and after the Receivership Date; (d) the Resident Assets to the extent such assets are properly transferred by the Company to Buyer; (e) liability for claims by Buyer Employees for vacation time or personal days from and after the Receivership Date; (f) failure by Buyer to satisfy Buyer's obligations as required by Section 8.4; (g) liability for charges to the Company's employer's unemployment insurance account for unemployment insurance benefits awarded to Buyer Employees terminated within six (6) months after the Closing Date; and (h) failure by Buyer to pay Transfer Tax as required by Section 9.1.

Section 12.3 Procedure. The following procedures shall apply with respect to Indemnifiable Claims:

(a) Notice of Claims. Any Party seeking indemnification of any Indemnifiable Loss or potential Indemnifiable Loss arising from a claim asserted by a Party or by a third party shall give written notice to the Party from whom indemnification is sought. Written notice to the Indemnifying Party of the existence of a third-party claim shall be given by the Indemnified Party promptly after its receipt of an assertion of liability from the third-party, and in any event within twenty (20) days of such assertion.

(b) Defense. In the case of a third-party claim, the Indemnifying Party may, at its option, control the defense of an Indemnifiable Claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Indemnified Party shall have the right to retain counsel of its choice at its own expense and participate in the defense of the Indemnifiable Claim. If the Indemnifying Party does not assume such defense or the Indemnifying Party notifies the Indemnified Party within thirty days that it will not assume such defense, the Indemnified Party may control the defense of such claim and may settle the claim on behalf of and for the account and risk of the Indemnifying Party, who shall be bound by the result. In all cases, the Party without the right to control the defense of the Indemnifiable Claim may participate in the defense at its own expense.

(c) Settlement Limitations. Notwithstanding anything in this Section to the contrary, neither the Indemnifying Party nor the Indemnified Party shall, without the written consent of the other Party, settle or compromise any Indemnifiable Claim or permit a default or consent to entry of any judgment, unless such settlement or compromise includes a complete release of the Indemnified Party with respect to liability related to such Indemnifiable Claim. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, if a settlement offer solely for money damages is made by the applicable third-party claimant, and the Indemnifying Party notifies the Indemnified Party in writing of the Indemnifying Party's willingness to accept the settlement offer and pay the amount called for by such offer without reservation of any rights or defenses against the Indemnified Party, the Indemnified Party may continue to contest such claim, free of any participation by the Indemnifying Party and the amount of any ultimate liability with respect to such Indemnifiable Claim that the Indemnifying Party has an obligation to pay hereunder shall be limited to the lesser of (A) the amount of the settlement offer that the Indemnified Party declined to accept plus the Indemnifiable Losses of the Indemnified Party relating to such Indemnifiable Claim through the date of its rejection of the settlement offer, or (B) the aggregate Indemnifiable Losses of the Indemnified Party with respect to such claim. If the Indemnifying Party makes any payment on any claim, the Indemnifying Party shall be subrogated, to the extent of such payment, to all rights and remedies of the indemnified Party to any insurance benefits or other claims of the Indemnified Party with respect to such claim.

Section 12.4 Limitation on Indemnification.

- (a) In all cases, any amounts for which a Party shall be entitled to indemnification hereunder shall be net of any insurance proceeds received by such Party (less any deductible) for such matter; provided, however, that the Party seeking indemnification hereunder shall not be required to seek recourse against any insurance company before pursuing remedies under this Agreement or otherwise.
- (b) Unless provided expressly in other sections of this Agreement, the remedies in this Article XII shall be the sole and exclusive remedies of the Parties with respect to the matters arising out of this Agreement, absent fraud or intentional misrepresentation; provided, however, that this Section 12.04(b) shall not limit a Party's right to seek and obtain equitable remedies, including, without limitation, specific performance, with respect to any covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement.
- (c) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, a Party shall not be entitled to indemnification under section 12.1 or Section 12.2 until the total of all its otherwise Indemnifiable Damages hereunder exceeds in the aggregate twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), (the "Basket"), at which point the full amount of all the Party's Indemnifiable Damages shall be recoverable from the other Party. Further, the Company's indemnification obligations under Section 12.1 shall in the aggregate not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000.00).

Section 12.5 Survival. This Article XII, Article IX, Article XIII, and Sections 2.3, 2.4, 2.5, 6.5, 6.7(b), 7.1, 7.2, 7.3, 8.1(b), 8.2, and 8.4 shall survive the Closing and shall remain in effect indefinitely. Unless otherwise indicated elsewhere herein, the representations and warranties of the Company and Buyer set forth in this Agreement shall survive for a period of eighteen (18) months from the Closing Date. Any matter as to which a claim has been asserted by written notice setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such claim to the other Party that is pending and unresolved at the end of any applicable limitation period shall continue to be covered by this Article notwithstanding any applicable limitation period (which the Parties hereby waive) until such matter is finally terminated or otherwise resolved by the Parties under this Agreement or by a court of competent jurisdiction and any amounts payable hereunder are finally determined and paid.

Section 12.6 Tax Consequences. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Buyer shall not be indemnified or reimbursed for any tax consequences arising from the receipt or accrual of an indemnity payment hereunder.

Section 12.7 Remedies Exclusive. This Article is effective from and after the Closing. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the remedies provided for in this Article shall be exclusive and shall preclude assertion by any Indemnified Party of any other rights or the seeking of any and all other remedies against the Indemnifying Party for claims subject to this Article. Each Party hereby waives any provision of Law to the extent that it would limit or restrict the agreement contained in this Section.

Section 12.8 Mitigation. The Parties shall cooperate with each other with respect to resolving any claim or liability with respect to which one Party is obligated to indemnify the other Party hereunder, including by making commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate or resolve any such claim or liability. Each Party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to address any claims or liabilities that may provide a basis for an Indemnifiable Claim such that each Party shall respond to any claims or liabilities in the same manner it would respond to such claims or liabilities in the absence of the indemnification provisions of this Agreement. In the event that any Party shall willfully fail to make such commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate or resolve any claim or liability, then notwithstanding anything else to the contrary contained herein the other Party shall not be required to indemnify any Person for any Indemnifiable Loss that could reasonably be expected to have been avoided if such Party, as the case may be, had made such efforts.

ARTICLE XIII GENERAL

Section 13.1 Usage. All terms defined herein have the meanings assigned to them herein for all purposes, and such meanings are equally applicable to both the singular and plural forms of the terms defined. “Include,” “includes” and “including” shall be deemed to be followed by “without limitation” whether or not they are in fact followed by such words or words of like import. “Writing,” “written” and comparable terms refer to printing, typing, lithography and other means of reproducing words in a visible form. Any instrument or Law defined or referred to herein means such instrument or Law as from time to time amended, modified or supplemented, including (in the case of instruments) by waiver or consent and (in the case of any Law) by succession of comparable successor Laws and includes (in the case of instruments) references to all attachments thereto and instruments incorporated therein. References to a Person are, unless the context otherwise requires, also to its successors and assigns. Any term defined herein by reference to any instrument or Law has such meaning whether or not such instrument or Law is in effect. “Shall” and “will” have equal force and effect. “Hereof,” “herein,” “hereunder” and comparable terms refer to the entire instrument in which such terms are used and not to any particular article, section or other subdivision thereof or attachment thereto. References to “the date of this Agreement,” “the date hereof” or words of like import shall mean the Receivership Date. References in an instrument to “Article,” “Section” or another subdivision or to an attachment are, unless the context otherwise requires, to an article, section or subdivision of or an attachment to such instrument.

Section 13.2 Amendments; Waivers. This Agreement and any Disclosure Schedule or Exhibit attached hereto may be amended only by agreement in writing of all Parties, except as set forth in Section 6.4 with respect to the Disclosure Schedules. No waiver of any provision nor consent to any exception to the terms of this Agreement or any agreement contemplated hereby shall be effective unless in writing and signed by the Party to be bound and then only to the specific purpose, extent and instance so provided.

Section 13.3 Disclosure Schedules; Exhibits. Each Disclosure Schedule and Exhibit delivered pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be in writing and shall constitute a part of this Agreement, although the Disclosure Schedules need not be attached to each copy of this Agreement. The mere inclusion of an item in a Disclosure Schedule as an exception to a representation or warranty shall not be deemed an admission by the Company that such item represents an exception or material fact, event or circumstance or that such item is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect. Further, any fact or item which is disclosed on any Disclosure Schedule to this Agreement in such a way as to make its relevance or applicability to information called for by another Disclosure Schedule or other Disclosure Schedules to this Agreement overtly apparent shall be deemed to be disclosed on such other Disclosure Schedule or Disclosure Schedules, as the case may be, notwithstanding the omission of a reference or cross-reference thereto.

Section 13.4 Further Assurances. Each of Buyer and the Company will use commercially reasonable, good faith efforts to cause all conditions to its and the other Party's obligations hereunder to be timely satisfied and to perform and fulfill all obligations on its part to be performed and fulfilled under this Agreement. Each of Buyer and the Company shall execute and deliver both before and after the Closing such further certificates, agreements and other documents and take such other actions as the other Party may reasonably request to consummate or implement the transactions contemplated hereby or to evidence such events or matters. With respect to the securing of any requisite Approvals after Closing, the Parties shall timely and promptly make all filings which may be required for the securing of such Approvals. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, each of Buyer and the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to file notification and report forms and similar applications with any applicable Governmental Entity whose Approval may be required following the Closing Date. Buyer and the Company shall cooperate and use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to respond to any requests for information by any Governmental Entity in connection with such post-Closing Approvals.

Section 13.5 Governing Law; Consent to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) This Agreement and the legal relations between the Parties shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Laws of the State of New York applicable to contracts made and performed in such State and without regard to conflicts of law doctrines (other than New York General Obligations Law, Section 5-1401). Each of the Parties hereto (i) consents to submit itself to the personal jurisdiction of any Federal court located in New York County of the State of New York or any New York state court in New York County in connection with any dispute that arises out of this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (ii) agrees that it will not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from any such court, and (iii) agrees that it will not bring any action relating to this Agreement or any other agreement contemplated hereby or any of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby in any court other than a Federal court or a New York state court sitting in New York County unless venue would not be proper under rules applicable in such courts.

(b) Waiver of Jury Trial. Each Party hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect to any litigation directly or indirectly arising out of, under or in connection with this Agreement or any transaction contemplated hereby. Each Party (i) certifies that no representative, agent or attorney of any other Party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such other Party would not, in the event of litigation, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver, and (ii) acknowledges that it and the other Parties hereto have been induced to enter into this Agreement by, among other things, the mutual waivers and certifications in this Section 13.5(b).

(c) Dispute Resolution. The Parties hereto agree that with respect to all disputes, problems or claims arising out of or in connection with this Agreement and all other agreements or other instruments executed in connection herewith (collectively “Disputes”), the Parties hereto shall, in good faith, use their reasonable best efforts to resolve the Dispute. If after such efforts the parties hereto are unable within ten (10) Business Days of the arising of the Dispute to resolve the Dispute in good faith, then either party may submit such Dispute to binding arbitration pursuant to a Din Torah by a Beth Din (Jewish Court Arbitration Panel) Rabbinical Court. Such Beth Din shall be selected by mutual agreement of the Parties. In the event that the Parties fail to agree on such selection, then each such Party will propose a dayan (judge), and shall promptly provide notice of such dayan (judge) so proposed to the other Party. A third dayan (judge) shall be selected by the mutual agreement of the two dayanim (judges) so proposed by the Parties, which third dayan (judge), with the dayanim (judges) proposed by each Party, shall serve as the Beth Din for such dispute or disagreement (referred to herein as the “Designated Beth Din”). The determination of the Designated Beth Din shall be binding upon the Parties and may be entered as a judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties acknowledge that the Designated Beth Din shall have the power to adjudicate issues of liability only; all issues pertaining to enforcing the Designated Beth Din’s ruling will be handled and enforced in a State or Commonwealth court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with applicable State law, and the parties acknowledge and agree that this constitutes a “heter” (permission under religious Jewish law) to pursue collection and to enforce the decision of the Designated Beth Din in a legal proceeding in such State or Commonwealth court under applicable State or Commonwealth law. Each Party shall pay for and bear the cost of its/his own expenses in such arbitration (including, without limitation, the cost of its/his own experts, evidence and attorneys’ fees), except that in the discretion of the arbitrator any award may include the attorneys’ fees of a party if the arbitrator expressly determines that the party against whom such award is entered has caused the dispute, controversy or claim to be submitted to arbitration as a dilatory tactic or in bad faith.

Section 13.6 Headings. The descriptive headings of the Articles, Sections and subsections of this Agreement are for convenience only and do not constitute a part of this Agreement.

Section 13.7 Counterparts. This Agreement and any amendment hereto or any other agreement (or document) delivered pursuant hereto may be executed in one or more counterparts and by different Parties in separate counterparts. All of such counterparts shall constitute one and the same agreement (or other document) and shall become effective (unless otherwise provided therein) when one or more counterparts have been signed by each Party and delivered to the other Party, including by facsimile or electronic mail, it being understood that all Parties need not sign the same counterpart. The parties agree that “PDF” and photocopies of signed counterparts may be used in lieu of original signatures.

Section 13.8 Parties in Interest. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of each Party, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any other Person (except the Real Estate Buyer to the extent provided herein) any rights or remedies of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to relieve or discharge the obligation of any third person to any Party to this Agreement.

Section 13.9 Waiver. No failure on the part of any Party to exercise or delay in exercising any right hereunder shall be deemed a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise preclude any further or other exercise of such or any other right.

Section 13.10 Severability. 5. Miscellaneous.

a. Buyer may assign this Agreement to any entity succeeding to Buyer as the licensed Article 28 operator of the Facility, as applicable. No other assignment of this Agreement may occur without the express prior written consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, and any attempt to assign this Agreement without such consent shall be void.

b. Neither party shall be authorized to act as agent for the other or to incur any liability in the name of or on behalf of the other, unless specifically authorized in this Agreement or in a writing executed by the party that would be responsible for the obligation.

c. This Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to principles of conflicts of law. Each party to this Agreement hereby agrees and consents that any legal action or proceedings with respect to this Agreement shall only be brought in the courts of the State of New York with venue exclusively in Nassau County. By execution and delivery of this Agreement, each such party hereby: (i) accepts the jurisdiction of the aforesaid courts; (ii) waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection which it may now or hereafter have to the venue set forth above; and (iii) further waives any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

d. Nothing express or implied in this Agreement is intended to confer, nor shall anything herein confer, upon any person other than a party hereto any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities whatsoever.

e. The recital clauses set forth above shall be deemed a part of this Agreement as though set forth verbatim and at length herein. Any capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in the APA.

f. This Agreement and the APA are the entire agreement between the parties concerning the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, whether written or oral, concerning the subject matter hereof. This Agreement shall not be changed or modified, except by a writing signed by both of the parties hereto or their respective successors. Except as otherwise provided herein, all rights and remedies set forth in this Agreement shall be in addition to and not exclusive of any other rights or remedies now or hereafter existing at law or in equity.

g. Any notice, request, instruction or document to be given hereunder by any party to another shall be in writing and delivered personally, transmitted by facsimile or email transmission, or mailed, first class registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, or by a nationally recognized overnight courier, to the parties and at the addresses specified herein or to such other address or to such other person as either party shall have last designated by such notice to the other party, and shall be deemed given when so delivered personally, when transmitted electronically, upon confirmation of such transmission, or if by nationally recognized overnight courier, upon receipt. Any notice or other communication hereunder shall be delivered pursuant to the Notice requirements set forth in the APA. Each party shall have the right to give notice to any other party changing its address as stated above and such address shall thereupon be deemed to be changed accordingly.

h. If any provision of this Agreement or the application of any provision hereof to any person or circumstances is held to be legally invalid, inoperative or unenforceable, then the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected unless the invalid provision substantially impairs the benefits of the remaining portions of this Agreement to the other party or parties.

i. Any consent or waiver executed in writing by a party hereto shall be binding upon such party from and after the date of execution thereof unless a later or earlier date is specified therein. No delay or failure to exercise any remedy or right occurring upon any default shall be construed as a waiver of such remedy or right, or an acquiescence in such default, nor shall it affect any subsequent default of the same or a different nature.

j. All headings and captions in this Agreement are for convenience only. They shall not be deemed part of this Agreement and shall in no way define, limit, extend or describe the scope or intent of any provisions hereof.

k. The parties hereto shall execute and deliver all documents, provide all information and take or forbear from all such action as may reasonably be necessary or appropriate to achieve the purposes set forth in this Agreement.

l. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns.
