MDL No. 1379

ORDER GRANTING FINAL APPROVAL OF
REVISED PROPOSED SETTLEMENT AND FINAL JUDGMENT

This matter is before the Court pursuant to the motion of plaintiffs in the above-captioned action (“Action”) for final approval of a revised proposed class action settlement that plaintiffs reached with defendants The Dialog Corporation, now known as Dialog, LLC, Dow Jones & Company, Inc., Dow Jones Reuters Business Interactive, LLC, now known as Factiva, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Dow Jones ~~Company~~ [✚] Company, Inc., EBSCO Industries, Inc., The Gale Group Inc., now known as Cengage Learning, Inc., Knight-Ridder, Inc., predecessor in interest to The McClatchy Company, Knight Ridder Digital, now known as McClatchy Interactive West, Mediasstream, Inc., Newsbank, Inc., The New York Times Company, ProQuest Company, now known as Voyager Learning Company, ProQuest Information and Learning Company, now known as ProQuest Information and Learning, LLC, Reed Elsevier Inc., The Thomson Corporation, now known as The Thomson Reuters Corporation, The Copley Press, Inc., and West Publishing Corporation d/b/a West Group, and with the non-party “Participating Publishers” listed in Exhibit A to the parties’ Revised Settlement Agreement dated as of November 13, 2013 (“Agreement”). (Defendants and the Participating Publishers shall be referred to herein as the “Defense Group.”) Having read and considered the Agreement, and having held a hearing on the fairness of the revised proposed settlement, at which objectors to the settlement could appear, and based upon familiarity with the files and proceedings in this matter, and with all defined terms herein having the meanings set forth in the Agreement, the Court finds that:

1. The Court preliminarily approved the Agreement by its Order Granting Preliminary Approval Of Revised Proposed Class Action Settlement, dated January 22, 2014 (“Preliminary Approval Order”).

2. Notice of the revised proposed settlement has been timely disseminated in accordance with the terms of the Preliminary Approval Order. Such notice was the best practicable notice under the circumstances, and satisfies the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

3. The issues as to liability and remedies in the Action are issues as to which there are substantial grounds for difference of opinion, and the proposed settlement of the Action constitutes a resolution of those issues that is fair, reasonable and adequate to the members of the Class certified herein.

Accordingly, it is hereby

ORDERED as follows:

4. The Agreement is approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and in the best interest of the Class, and the parties are directed to consummate the Agreement in accordance with its terms.

5. The following Class (the “Class”), provisionally certified in the Preliminary Approval Order, is now finally certified for purposes of this settlement only:

All persons who, individually or jointly, own a copyright under the United States copyright laws in an English language literary work that has been reproduced, displayed, adapted, licensed, sold and/or distributed in any electronic or digital format, without the person’s express authorization by a member of the Defense Group or any member's subsidiaries, affiliates, or licensees (a) at any time on or after August 15, 1997 (regardless of when the work first appeared in an electronic database) or (b) that remained in circulation after August 15, 1997, even if licensed prior thereto, including English language works qualifying for U. S. copyright protection under an international treaty (hereinafter "Subject Work"). Notwithstanding anything in the immediately preceding sentence to the contrary, a copyrighted work created prior to January 1, 1978, is a Subject Work only if it (a) has been electronically or digitally reproduced, displayed, adapted, licensed, sold and/or distributed by a Participating Publisher without the person's express authorization, and (b) is from a publication whose pre-1978 works have not been excluded from this settlement, as indicated on Exhibit A to the Agreement. Included in the Class are all copyright owners of Subject Works who, after June 25, 2001, responded to The New York Times Company's Restoration Request website or print advertisements.

The Court also makes final its previously provisional certification of the Subclasses, consisting of all members of the Class to the extent that they own copyrights in Category A and B works ("A/B Subclass") and all members of the Class to the extent that they own copyrights in Category C Subject Works ("C Subclass"). The Court finds that (a) the Class and Subclasses are so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable; (b) there are questions of law and fact common to the Class and Subclasses; (c) the claims of the A/B Plaintiffs are typical of the claims of the A/B Subclass, and the claims of the C Plaintiffs are typical of the claims of the C Subclass, and therefore the claims of the Representative Plaintiffs as a whole are typical of the claims of the Class as a whole; (d) the Representative Plaintiffs and their counsel have fairly and adequately protected and will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class and Subclasses; (e) common questions of law and fact predominate over questions affecting only individual members of the Class and Subclasses, and a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

6. The Action is hereby dismissed, with prejudice and without costs.

7. The releases contained in the Agreement are hereby effective, with the following provision: No claims shall be released with respect to works published in scientific or research-based medical journals.

8. There is no just reason for delay, and the judgment of dismissal with prejudice as to defendants shall be final.

9. The Agreement and any proceedings taken pursuant thereto are not, and should not in any event be: (a) offered or received as evidence of a presumption, concession or admission by any Released Party of any fact or matter; or (b) offered or received as evidence of a presumption, concession or admission of any liability, fault, wrongdoing or other dereliction of duty, or (except with written consent of the Released Party) in any way referred to for any reason in the Action, or in any other civil, criminal, bankruptcy, or administrative action or proceeding; provided, however, that reference may be made to the Agreement in such proceedings as may be necessary to effectuate the provisions of the Agreement.

10. Consummation of the revised settlement shall proceed as described in the Agreement, and the Court hereby reserves jurisdiction over the subject matter and as to each party to the Agreement with respect to the interpretation, effectuation, and implementation of the Agreement for all purposes, including enforcement of any of the terms hereof at the instance of any party and resolution of any disputes that may arise relating in any way to, or arising from, the implementation of the Agreement or the implementation of this Order.

11. Attached hereto is a list of persons who timely excluded themselves from the Class and revised settlement. Those persons are not bound by any term of the Agreement or this Order.

12 Pursuant to the terms hereof, final judgment shall be entered as provided herein.

DATED this _____ day of _____, 2014.

JUN 10 2014
