30. Heretofore, on or about May 4, 2014, Plaintiff caused a written and duly verified Notice of Claim to be filed with the proper agents of the City of New York in accordance with the provisions of the General Municipal Law of the State of New York. Plaintiff's claim has not been adjusted or otherwise disposed of since that time.

31. The aforesaid seizure and arrest of Plaintiff on December 4, 2013 was the result of the maliciously false and perjurious information given to the office of the District Attorney for New York County by Defendants CROSS, SANTANA, and JOHN DOES I and II with the intent to cause Plaintiff to be charged with criminal conduct under the laws of New York State.

32. In reliance upon the false information contained in the complaint prepared by Defendant CROSS, and by reason of the Plaintiff has also incurred legal costs and costs associated with medical and psychological treatment. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff has been damaged by the defendants' acts and conduct in the sum of one million ($1,000,000) dollars.

CAUSES OF ACTION AGAINST MUNICIPALITY AND DEFENDANT NYPD

34. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in each preceding paragraph as if fully set forth at length herein.

35. Defendants CITY OF NEW YORK and the NYPD knew or should have known of the propensity of Defendants CROSS, SANTANA and JOHN DOES I and II to engage in the illegal and wrongful acts detailed above and/or as a matter of policy and practice, have with deliberate indifference, failed to take steps to uncover and/or correct such conduct. Upon information and belief, Defendants CITY OF NEW YORK and the NYPD had prior notice of the dishonest propensities of Defendants CROSS, SANTANA, and JOHN DOES I and II, but took no adequate steps to train them, correct their abuse of authority, or to discourage their unlawful use of authority.

36. Acting under color of law, by and through the policy-makers of the CITY OF NEW YORK, and pursuant to official policy or custom and practice, Defendants CITY OF NEW YORK and the NYPD intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, or with deliberate indifference to the rights of the inhabitants of the CITY OF NEW YORK, failed to effectively screen, hire, train, instruct, supervise, control and discipline, on a continuing basis, their police officers, including Defendants CROSS, SANTANA, and JOHN DOES I and II, for their unlawful propensities, including fabricating criminal charges and falsely swearing to criminal complaints against citizens for the purpose of shielding themselves against criminal and/or civil liability for violations of civil rights; and for their failure to protect citizens from unconstitutional conduct of other police officers, thereby permitting and allowing Defendants CROSS, SANTANA, and JOHN DOES I and II to be in a position to cause Plaintiff injury and violate Plaintiff's federal and state constitutional rights, and/or to permit these actions to take place without Plaintiff's knowledge or consent.

37. Defendants CITY OF NEW YORK and the NYPD had knowledge, or should have had knowledge, that the wrongs heretofore alleged, or other unlawful or unconstitutional acts, were going to be committed by its employees and agents. Defendants CITY OF NEW YORK and the NYPD had the power, authority and duty to prevent or aid in preventing the commission of said wrongs, could have done so, and intentionally, knowingly, recklessly or with deliberate indifference to the rights of the inhabitants of the CITY OF NEW YORK, failed to do so.

38. On information and belief, Defendants CITY OF NEW YORK and the NYPD maintained an inadequate structure for risk containment and stress management relative to its police officers, and failed to create proper means of containing such risk and managing such stress. On information and belief, such structure was deficient at the time of selection of police officers, and thereafter during their employment, in its ability to evaluate and exchange information within the command structure about the performance of individual police officers; in its training of supervisory personnel to effectively and adequately evaluate performance of an officer; and in its ability to otherwise put the command structure on notice that an individual or individuals were at significant levels of risk to the public at large or to specific segments thereof. The effect of this was to permit police officers of the NYPD to function at levels of significant and substantial risk to the public in general.

39. As a result of the foregoing conscious policies, practices, customs and/or usages, Defendants CITY OF NEW YORK and the NYPD have permitted and allowed the employment and retention of individuals as police officers whose individual circumstances place the public or segments thereof at substantial risk of being the victims of improper behavior. Such policies, practices, customs and/or usages are a direct and proximate cause of the conduct alleged herein and otherwise a direct and proximate cause of the Plaintiff's injuries.

40. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff was deprived of liberty, sustained emotional injuries, was subject to great humiliation, and was otherwise harmed, damaged and injured.

The acts and conduct of Defendants CROSS, SANTANA, and JOHN DOES I and II were the direct and proximate cause of damage to Plaintiff, and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York. As Defendant

CITY OF NEW YORK is the employer of Defendants CROSS, SANTANA, and JOHN DOES I and II, Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is liable to Plaintiff for negligent hiring, screening, retention, supervision and training.

43. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff was deprived of liberty, was subject to great humiliation, and was otherwise harmed, damaged, and injured, all to his damage in the amount of One Million ($1,000,000.00) Dollars.

PUNITIVE DAMAGES CLAIM

44. As a result of the extreme, wanton, and outrageous nature of the conduct of Defendants CROSS, SANTANA, and JOHN DOES I and II in, among other things, arresting Plaintiff without cause or reason; reporting false criminal charges; and knowingly and willfully arresting Plaintiff without legal cause, Plaintiff is entitled to punitive damages in the amount of Three Million ($3,000,000.00) Dollars.

RESPONDEAT SUPERIOR LIABILITY

45. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in each preceding paragraph as if fully set forth at length herein.

46. At all times relevant herein, Defendants CROSS, SANTANA, and JOHN DOES I and II were acting within the scope of their employment as officers and agents of the NYPD and the CITY OF NEW YORK.

47. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is liable for compensatory and exemplary damages under the doctrine of respondeat superior or is liable to indemnify the individual defendants pursuant to provisions of the General Municipal Law for the tortious and unlawful acts of Defendants CROSS, SANTANA, and JOHN DOES I and II committed within the scope of their employment.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

A. In favor of Plaintiff in the amount of One Million ($1,000,000.00) Dollars as compensatory damages for each of Plaintiff's Pendent Causes of Action, and for appropriate damages on Plaintiff's federal claims;
