people that were being transported to the precinct. Paramedics were waiting at the precinct where the Police told him that they would not allow him medical attention until he volunteered for a scrip search.

He was taken to a cell fro the strip search where he was to take off his clothes. When he had his socks and pants off a Police Officer said "hurry the fuck up" and after he he said, it, a Police Officer ran and started to punch him in his face and stomach with hard force. He was hit around twenty times in the face. His lips and gums were split and bleeding, along with welts all over his head.

After defendants beet him up, they sprayed his face with mace, took his clothes and left him on the ground naked in the cell. Later they gave him his clothes back and put him on a strecher and they proceeded to take him to the Harlem Hospital. When plaintiff arrived at Harlem Hospital, he was taken to an examination room where he was questioned by the police. A nurse came into the room and asked what was wrong with him. He told her that his right shoulder/arm were in extreme pain and this occurred when he was being beaten and manhandled by the defendants that he heard something pop when he was tackled to the ground. He followed that with telling her that his face and skull were throbbing and that he had visual lacerations from the punches thrown from the defendants. After forty five minutes, he was taken for x-rays, where He was told they couldn't figure he was taken for x-rays, where He was told they couldn't figure out what with his shoulder. Plaintiff was prescribed pain medicine by the doctor but never received it because he was taken to the Court building. He was told by the Doctor that that he needed to come back for follow-up appointments but he was never allowed due to his incarceration.

When he wnt to the Court building, the captain on duty asked exactly happened to to him. The police officerthat brought him in told the captain, that " he slipped and fell getting into the van. The captain looked at plaintiff's face asked him, was he sure this is what happened?" and he said: Yes because when he was on his way to the Court Building, the Police Officers in the squad car told him that if he has any type of injury, he would be sent back to the precinct where they will have "FUN" with him. Plaintiff told the Captain that he slipped and fell getting to the van out of fear for his safety and well being. He was held for four hours before he appeared in front of Judge. Plaintiff's physical injuries were such that his attorney at the arraignment in NYC Criminal Court in the early morning of December 8th, 2012, sought and received permission from the Court to take pictures via cellphone of his injuries. The attorney proceeded to take pictures of his whole head, the inside of his mouth, his right shoulder, right arm, right and left wrists and his upper torso.

Soon thereafter he was remanded by the Judge, then, taken to the Manhattan Detention Center at 125 White Street, New York, New York.

During his time there, his body was in extreme pain due to the lack of timely medical care and treatment. When he was eventually seen by the medical staff, they immediately gave hims pain medication asked him why he was not given this at the Harlem Hospital. At the Manhattan Detention Center,

Plaintiff had to attend sick call everyday to see what was wrong with his arm, which they ended up giving him a sling to wear on his right arm on the first day [visit to the clinic] and nothing else throughthe rest of his sick call visits.

When he finally was seen by anthepedic specialist he checked his right arm and concluded that he needed physical therapy and more x-rays and they were done at Bellevue Hospital. When he arrived at Bellevue hospital they took x-rays and requested that he get a MRI. He received the x-rays and MRI over the course of a year and it took them that time to prescribe him medicine for his severe migraine headaches which he never had unitl the day that he was unmercifully beaten and assaulted. When he say the neurologlist, she ordered a MRI for this head and then prescribed him migraine medication.

themselves as Police Officers. Nothing on their person would indicate that they were Police Officers. They were dressed in regular civilian clothes and no badges were displayed. As plaintiff was pleading and begging them not to force his arms behind his back, his right shoulder and elbow popped out of its socket, then, he experienced excruciating pain; the defendants then carried him to through the streets yelling and screaming. After he was put in handcluffs, unable to defend himself from the onslaught of punches being thrown, he yelled "oww, my---please stop, I have H.I.V." As soon as plaintiff said that he had HIV, the assault stopped for about 10 seconds. In that ten secondssince plaintiff made his statement, defendants put on gloves before continuing to assault him. Defendants pulled him up by the handcuffs, which sent pain shooting through his right shoulder and arm. After was hauled off of the ground, they walked him with his hands handcuffed behind his back and lifted straight up so his upper torso was parellel with the gorund. When he got to the van a defendant pulled downward on the handcuffs, allowing his his body to go back to a normal upright position. The defendant then told him to step up into the vehicle. When his left foot was planted on the step and he was bringing his right foot onto the step, when he was slammed to the ground, on this back. Defendants closed the side entrance to the van and told him to "stop fucking playing", to which he responded "are you serious". Then, defendants picked him up as he was screaming in pain about his arm and pushed him into the back of a police transport van where he fell into other

Re:

Kenneth Betts v. Rodriquez, et. al.

15-cv-3836(JPO)

Dear Sir or Madam:

Pursuant to FRCP, Rule 15(a) (1)(B), I have amended my 1983 complaint, therefore I submitting to the Court attention one original and two copies of the complaint for filing and docketing.

I have not submitted a new application for informa pauperis seeking poor person status since the Court has already granted me that with the original filing.

I have served a copy of the amended complaint on the defendants. The original defendants remain the same and all of them have been served with summons and complaint by the U.S. Marshals Service. However, I have add the City of New York as a new defendant to this Complaint.

Will be necessary for the Defendant City of New York to be served an independent Summons and Complaint relative to this matter? If so, please send me the appropriate 'Service of Process by the U.S. Marshal Service forms.

Thanks for your assistance with this matter.

Very truly yours,

Kenneth Betts
