I. BASIS FOR JURISDICTION

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation, and the amount in controversy is more than $75,000, is a diversity case. In a diversity case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

Facts:

1. From January 2000 to the present, I have resided in my apartment.
2. Starting in the summer of 2015, detectives from the New York City Police Department forced their way into my apartment approximately six occasions.

Detective Vasquez and Jessica Rivera-Caiced along with other members of the police department, Carlos Matos, Sergeant Christopher Daly, would come into my apartment approximately every two to three weeks looking for my son. I would ignore or refuse to open the door on many occasions. The detectives would leave as a result to my refusal to open my door. On occasions where I was returning home or exiting my apartment, the detectives would force their way in by shoving me out of the way and thereby entering my apartment. Once the police officers entered my apartment, they would conduct a full search of my apartment, without my consent. This search would include my entire apartment including all of my personal items that were in my dresser drawers and closets. My apartment was ransacked and left in disarray. I spent a significant amount of time, fixing up my apartment as a result of these searches.

At no point did I ever consent to the police entering my apartment. The police never showed me any legal documentation (search warrant specific to my apartment) that would allow them to conduct full searches with complete access to my apartment.

3. Most of these searches were conducted at approximately 6 am. Detectives would knock loudly with a metal object which woke up everyone in the immediate area including everyone in my apartment. This object caused extensive damage to my door.
4. Robert James is a security guard employed by Madison Security Group. He is licensed by New York State and has completed appropriate security guard training.

Mr. Orlando Osorio, is employed by Prestige Management. He is the super of the building where I reside. On or about February 22, 2016, at approximately 6 pm, I was returning from work to my apartment. I got off the elevator, and Robert James, and Orlando Osorio, handed me two keys. I asked them what the keys were for. They informed me that they had changed my locked because detective from the NYCPD, had knocked on the super door and asked for entry to my apartment. The super told me that he agreed to their request thereby drilling my locks out and damaging my door. At no point had I granted the super or security guard permission to enter my apartment or let the police into my apartment.

5. After the police conducted a search and seizure, the security guard and the super entered my apartment and changed my locks thereby assisting the police department thereby acting in concert with the police department.

6. Since this incident, I have suffered emotional duress including post trauma stress, headaches, and sleep insomnia.

Prayer for Relief

7. Wherefore, Plaintiff pray that the Court grants such relief as may be appropriate including injunctive orders and damages, and costs as follows:

a. A judgment directing Defendant's to make Plaintiff whole with compensatory damages for mental anguish, loss of dignity, humiliation, pain and suffering, emotional trauma, and denial of civil rights (Fourth Amendment).

b. A judgment awarding Plaintiff punitive damages.

c. An award of prejudgment interest, costs, and fees.

Such other relief that the court may deem just and proper.
