Place of occurrence: New York, New York

Date of occurrence: November 24, 2018

FACTS:

On or about November 24, 2018, the plaintiff was arrested and accused of Driving While Intoxicated by defendant Danny Campbell despite not being intoxicated at all. I was transported to the hospital where blood was drawn and a breathalyzer was administered and all results came back negative for any presence of alcohol, but defendant Campbell still started the baseless prosecution.

Despite such results being negative defendant Campbell made up false accusations in the criminal complaint. The prosecution lasted about two months before the District Attorney's Office decided not to further prosecute the charges and the case was terminated in the favor.

Defendant Campbell also applied the handcuffs so tight and purposely to cause injuries and damages to the plaintiff.

INJURIES:

Violation of the plaintiff's constitutional rights under the fourth and fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. Economic loss, nerve damage to the plaintiff's hands. Medication, therapy and various doctors' appointments.

RELIEF:

Plaintiff demands $2,000,000 in damages and for punitive damages to be assessed at trial.
