☒ MILITARY SERVICE I asked the person spoken to whether defendant was in active military service of the United States in any capacity whatever and received a negative reply. The source of my information and the grounds of my belief are the conversations and observations above narrated.

☒ Other Wearing sunglasses and a flack jacket identifying him as a federal agent, I spoke with an African American male employee of Mar-a-Lago working the gate. I asked for security and he gestured to a male sitting inside of a black Jeep Cherokee. The male approached and I showed him my credentials, and stated my purpose. He refused to make the Subject available or cooperate in any way. He refused to accept the document I in hand before I was able to ask him to. He refused to provide his name and badge number. I informed him that I was serving him a lawsuit for the Subject and I would leave it on the ground since he refused to cooperate. He walked back to the vehicle and went inside. I did as I said and left said document and took a photo of it. The African American security guard that I first spoke with witnessed all events from less than 20 feet away.
