

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

vs.

JUSTIN SUN, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:23-cv-2433 (ER)

NOTICE OF VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL

Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) provides notice that it voluntarily dismisses the claims alleged against DeAndre Cortez Way in this action. The SEC’s decision to seek dismissal of this enforcement action is an exercise of its discretion and does not necessarily reflect the SEC’s position on any other case. Defendant Way has not served “an answer or a motion for summary judgment” so the SEC may dismiss this action against him “without a court order by filing a notice of dismissal.” Fed R. Civ. P. 41(a)(1)(A)(i). Gugliano v. Danbury Hospital, 396 F. Supp. 2d 220, 224 (D. Conn. 2005) (permitting dismissal of claims against a defendant who had not served an answer while litigation continued against a second defendant); see also Blaize-Sampeur v. McDowell, No. 05-CV-4275, 2007 WL 1958909, at *2 (E.D.N.Y. June 29, 2007) (collecting cases supporting the use of Rule 41(a)(1)(A)(i) to dismiss single claims or specific defendants).

Dated: March 5, 2026

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Adam B. Gottlieb
