SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

JIANGSU HARI WEBBING LEATHER CO. LTD.,

Plaintiff,

-against-

JOES IDENTIFIED IN SCHEDULE “A”,

Defendants.

23-CV-2605 (JLR)

ORDER

JENNIFER L. ROCHON, United States District Judge:

The Court has considered Plaintiff’s ex parte application for the following: 1) a temporary restraining order; 2) an order restraining defendants identified in Schedule A (“Defendants”) and Defendants’ assets in accounts held by Amazon concerning allegedly infringing hanging exercise products; 3) an order to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not issue; 4) an order authorizing bifurcated and alternative service; and 5) an order authorizing expedited discovery against Defendants and Amazon.<sup>1</sup> Having reviewed the Application, Complaint, annexed Declaration of Jiyuan Zhang and Exhibits, the Declaration of Bin Liu, and other evidence submitted in support thereof, and holding a hearing on March 31, 2023, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

FACTUAL FINDINGS & CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Plaintiff Jiangsu Huari Webbing Leather Co., Ltd (“Plaintiff”) is the owner of U.S. Patent No. 11,478,673 (“the ‘673 patent”), which claims a patent over a walking flat belt with hanging exercise means (“Hanging Exercise Products”).
2. The ‘673 patent was issued on October 25, 2022 and has a filing date of March 21, 2020.

<sup>1</sup> During the March 30, 2023 hearing, Plaintiff narrowed its request to enjoin and seek expedited discovery from several third-parties to only Amazon.com.

3. Defendants identified in Schedule A are the trade names of the Defendants who are selling allegedly infringing Hanging Exercise Products to the American marketplace.
4. Defendants are not, nor have they ever been, authorized distributors of Plaintiff or licensees of the '673 patent.
5. Based on what has been presented thus far, Plaintiff has a reasonable likelihood of success on the merits of its claim and no adequate remedy at law exists.
6. As a result of Defendants' infringement, Plaintiff is likely to suffer immediate and irreparable losses, damages, and injuries before Defendants can be heard in opposition, unless Plaintiff's Application for ex parte relief is granted because:
  - a. Defendants have offered for sale and sold products that are likely to infringe the '673 patent;
  - b. Plaintiff has a well-founded fear that Defendants will sell more infringing products in the marketplace, which will result in injury to Plaintiff including market dilution, loss of opportunity, harm to reputation, and loss of sales for its own Hanging Exercise Products; and
  - c. The Court concludes at this time that, in the absence of an ex parte Order, Defendants are likely to (i) secret, conceal, destroy, alter, sell off, transfer or otherwise dispose of or deal with: their infringing products or other goods that infringe the '673 patent; the means of obtaining or manufacturing such infringing products; and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (ii) inform their suppliers and others of Plaintiff's claim with the result being that those suppliers and others may also secret, conceal, sell-off or otherwise dispose of: infringing products or other goods infringing the '673 patent; the means of obtaining or manufacturing such infringing products; and records relating thereto that are in their possession or under their control, (iii) secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of proceeds from their sales of products infringing the '673 patent and records.

7. The balance of potential harm to Defendants of being prevented from continuing to profit from their illegal and infringing activities if a temporary restraining order is issued is outweighed by the potential harm to Plaintiff, its business, the goodwill and reputation built up in and associated with the '673 patent, and to Plaintiff's and/or its business' reputation if a temporary restraining order is not issued.
8. The public interest favors issuance of the temporary restraining order in order to protect Plaintiff's interests in and to its '673 patent, and to protect the public from being defrauded by infringing products.
9. Plaintiff has not publicized its request for a temporary restraining order in any way.
10. If Defendants are given notice of the Application, they are likely to secret, conceal, transfer or otherwise dispose of the proceeds from their sales of products infringing the '673 patent. Therefore, good cause exists for granting Plaintiff's request for an asset restraining order. It typically takes Amazon a minimum of five (5) days after service of the Order to locate, attach and freeze Defendants' assets. As such, the Court will allow seven (7) days for Plaintiff to serve Amazon with this Order, and Amazon to comply with the Paragraphs I(B)(1) through I(B)(2) and I(C)(1) through I(C)(2) of this Order below before requiring service on Defendants.
11. Finally, if Defendants are given notice of this Application for a TRO, they are likely to destroy, move, hide or otherwise make inaccessible to Plaintiff the records and documents relating to Defendants' manufacturing, importing, exporting, advertising, marketing, promoting, distributing, displaying, offering for sale and/or sale of infringing products. Therefore, Plaintiff has shown good cause for expedited discovery.
