Raw and Disgusting

Appropriate-Review22 · 2 yr. ago

Got the burger today. It was so fucking raw and disgusting that when I took the top bun off half the burger peeled off. Thank god I was going to add more pickles instead of just going for a bite. I got a full refund. I wish I could add a pic...lol it's sooooo bad literally took 1 bite of my burger and googled 'MrBeast Burger is gross.' Fries were super underdone, and by the time they got here they were in a bag made translucent from the grease and they were all smushed together making one big fry puck. The food was cold and didn't taste fresh at all. It was by far the worst burger and fries I've ever had.

MrBeast Burger is gross

ANJ___ · 2 yr. ago

Granted, I didn't expect much from a delivery only burger joint, risky move, and ontop of that the place is like a 15 min drive from my house and when the order said it was on the way the app then told me that the delivery man was making 1 stop before me.... in the opposite direction of where I live. Fuck me right? Terrible first experience... first and last though.

No QC and lack of Food Safety

LetterToAThief OP · 1 yr. ago

I know Jimmy is a friend of the show, but his restaurant venture seems pretty shitty if he didn't do his due diligence on employing the right kitchens. Ghost kitchens are notorious for flying under the radar on food safety and cleanliness because there's less of a chance of being reported without a dining area (unless it's egregious, as seen here.)

Nope absolutely just a nope...
VEGETARIANS, GLUTEN FREE, AND OTHER FOOD ALLERGY FOLKS BEWARE!!!!

My boyfriend and I ordered from MrBeast Burger on DoorDash and I am a vegetarian so I ordered the Impossible Chandler burger with the plant based patty and cheese, with the added lettuce and onion option. My boyfriend got a beast style burger that contains a regular beef patty, cheese, lettuce and onions. We both got very similar orders of burgers and first off the wrong order was given to use, I am guessing they gave us the Chris burger, which contained Bacon! I did not eat my order because they already messed up the order so I did not know if the patty itself was a regular or a plant based burger or not. Secondly if you have a business and/ or a restaurant that strives on providing food for all kinds of allergies, and the fact that it is online only, you need to be able to tell which burger/ food is which!! If you and/ or your partner/spouse/kids/ friend etc. has a food allergy or different food (animal) views than the other and you order burgers that are similar, there is nowhere on the box does it say which one is the impossible burger. THIS IS A SAFETY HAZARD!! because if god forbid someone accidentally eats the wrong burger because they don't tell you on the box or anywhere, you can seriously sicken or even kill someone.

DO NOT ORDER FROM MRBEAST BURGERS!!!

I was excited to try their burger for the first time and so me and my mom and my sister ordered these burgers for lunch and first of all they sent me the wrong order and never gave me the water or the other stuff I ordered and they gave me chicken sandwiches instead of burgers and those were the worst chicken sandwiches I'd ever eaten!! My mom was extremely disappointed and the chicken was dry like it was cooked a week ago and than put into freezer!! And the fries was cold and rock hard.

And maybe small 1/4 teaspoon of mayo...nothing else..and undercooked....burger was so small we thought it was missing....paid extra for carmelized onions..no where to be found.. awful.. just awful....supposed grilled cheese had 1 piece of cheese..not melted...on terrible dried out hard bread....and cookies....store brought all the way..for the price of 2 I could have brought a whole bag....

The burger was extremely salty to the point of being inedible. The burger was smashed and looked nasty. The fries were cold and seasoning was too spicy.

Sorry but I don't think he will last too long unless he makes drastic changes.

We're all sick

First time customer, for the Waldorf, md delivery location. I ordered 7 hamburgers all the same except one, all were missing browned onions, and other stuff, all were cold, all tasted worse than a McDonald's hamburger, and I don't like McDonald's Donald hamburgers nor do I buy them but compared to this I would buy McDonald's hamburgers. Worst worst hamburgers and on top of that we only ate them about 4 hours ago and we all are starting to fill a little sick. For $70 I could have gone gourmet at any sit down resistant and gotten much more for the money. I wish there was a way that Mr best burger could correct this, I rarely write negative reviews, but this definitely called for it. I highly suggest no one support this hipped up company, seems more like a fly by night company. Like seriously $8-12 for only a mass produced frozen burger, you got me once but never again. DONT BUY DONT WASTE your money. I will update if I hear anything from the company.

The Food Quality is Awful

I do not recommend this place.

The food quality is awful. The meat and fries are so overcooked it may as well be burnt tires with a lot of sauce. The quality control of the food is non-existent.

Note: this is a virtual kitchen concept, so YMMV, by location.

This location, inside Bucca Di Peppo, is awful.

Lastly, we waited 40 minutes for our food. This is fast food right? We ordered ahead on the website.

Got a confirmation via email it would be ready by 1:24. We got there at 1:30, 25 minutes later still waiting waiting waiting.

DO NOT ORDER FROM HERE!

Do yourself a favor and go next door.

Ordered online and got charged about $23 in just tax/fee/tip alone. Ok, I guess fair enough since I'm being lazy to pick it up, but I'm just showing you what to expect. So I made a request not to include pickles and mustard on the Beast style fries. Guess what, there are pickles and mustard. C'mon man! Oh and let's talk about the Beast Burger pictured below, that wasn't a special request either! Talk about well done! Burned bread and patties. Probably the first and last time I'll order. sigh

My son tried this new place called Mr. Beast Burger today. Being that they are new, the only way he could get it was by it being delivered through a 3rd party affiliate (GrubHub). What he received was beyond disgusting. The chicken was not even cooked. He could not find a phone number online to reach out to the company so he DM'd their IG acct. Attached is the response and a picture of the food. For all the people that are looking forward to trying this restaurant, check it before you bite into it. They also sent him the wrong order of fries.

Order has been wrong three times now. Food is cold and drenched in mayo. This last time I ordered their Crispy Chicken Tender Sandwich - it was literally just fried pieces of batter, no chicken. It took 1.5 hours to get our order! This place is not worth the money or the wait. You're better off ordering from literally anywhere else.

So disappointing. Fries were supposedly "seasoned" but tasted like soggy bland fries straight from the freezer section. Nashville hot spicy chicken sandwich was nothing like the picture. No spice and was poorly put together. Stale bun as well. I won't be ordering from here ever again, sad that Mr. Beast would put his name on this.

I placed an order through Uber Eats yesterday, it shows it would be ready in 15 minutes, so I arrived 20 minutes after and the lady said my order will take 10-15 more minutes. Just change the tablet time setting to let customers know how long food will be ready to pick up. Burger was cold, and fries soggy, so disappointed of this place, no wonder why it had so many 1 stars
