UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Case No.:

COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiffs, Jane Doe 1, Jane Doe 2, Jane Doe 3, Jane Doe 4, Jane Doe 5, Jane Doe 6, Jane Doe 7, Jane Doe 8, Jane Doe 9, Jane Doe 10, Jane Doe 11 and Jane Doe 12 bring this action against Defendant United States of America and allege, upon information and belief:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. For over two decades, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (hereinafter “FBI”) permitted Jeffrey Epstein to sex traffic and sexually abuse scores of children and young women by failing to do the job the American people expected of it and that the FBI’s own rules and regulations required: investigate the reports, tips, and evidence it had of rampant sexual abuse and sex trafficking by Epstein and protect the young women and children who fell victim to him.

2. As a result of the continued failures of the FBI, Jane Does 1-12 bring this lawsuit to get to the bottom-once and for all- of the FBI's role in Epstein's criminal sex trafficking ring.

3. Recently, on December 5, 2023, FBI Director Christopher Wray testified before the Senate Judiciary Committee and was questioned about the FBI's role in permitting Jeffrey Epstein and others to operate a vast criminal conspiracy and sex trafficking ring for years.

4. United States Senator Marsha Blackburn expressed concerns to Wray of the "the FBI's failure to investigate sex trafficking allegations." Senator Blackburn asked specifically what was done by the FBI to investigate the claims that Epstein and others participated and distributed child sex abuse content and other allegations. Wray responded, "it's been a while" and he would "get with my team and see if there is more information we can provide."

5. Senator Blackburn told FBI Director Wray "we have these survivors who say 'Oh, there is so much more, and they swept it under the rug,' and that is wrong, and you need to right that wrong."

6. While Senator Blackburn told Director Wray that he would "need to right that wrong," Director Wray and the FBI have done nothing to "right that wrong." The FBI has again turned its back on survivor-victims of Jeffrey Epstein's sex trafficking ring.

7. In fact, when plaintiffs Jane Does 1-12 filed their Standard Form 95 pursuant to U.S.C 28 C.F.R. 14.2 against the United States of America as a condition precedent to filing this lawsuit, the FBI has neither attempted to "right that wrong" nor has the FBI provided any timeline as to when it will "right that wrong."

8. Since plaintiffs Jane Does 1-12 filed their Standard Form 95 in May of 2023, the FBI has had more than eight months to "right that wrong" to the survivors of Jeffrey Epstein's sex trafficking ring and has not made any effort to do so.

9. Since the 1990s, the FBI has received and been aware of reports of sex crimes, rape, abuse and sex trafficking perpetrated against young women and children by Epstein and associates occurring in New York, Florida, the U.S. Virgin Islands and elsewhere. The full extent of the reports and tips are unknown as the FBI files for Epstein are still largely sealed. Recently, on January 10, 2024, Senator Blackburn called for the unredacted release of FBI documents and stated: "It's time to uncover this information..." Jane Does 1-12 agree.

10. By way of example only, in August of 1996, Maria Farmer reported to the FBI that Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell had sexually abused her and that they, together with others, were committing multiple illegal sexual abuse crimes, including crimes against minors and vulnerable young women. The FBI hung up on Maria Farmer and did nothing in response. The failure to comply with FBI guidelines resulted in the ongoing sexual abuse of Jane Does 1-12.

11. Jeffrey Epstein's penchant for teenage girls was an open secret in the high society of Palm Beach, Florida and the Upper East Side of Manhattan which was disregarded by the FBI. Epstein orchestrated an illegal sex trafficking ring for the elite and the FBI failed to adequately investigate the abuse, failed to interview the victims, failed to investigate the crimes and did not follow routine procedure or offer victim assistance notwithstanding credible reports and tips. The FBI sat back while Epstein and his co-conspirators sexually abused Jane Does 1-12.

12. Between 1996 and 2006, the FBI continued to receive reports, complaints and tips concerning the illegal sex trafficking of women and underage minors, sex abuse and human rights violations committed by Jeffrey Epstein and associates. In March of 2005, the FBI was alerted by the Palm Beach Police Department of child prostitution. In fact, there was a 14-year-old girl who was solicited to Epstein's mansion for sex.

13. The FBI did not open an investigation until July 24, 2006 according to the FBI vault documents. The gross negligence committed by the FBI resulted in the continued sexual abuse of Jane Does 1-12 at the hands of Jeffrey Epstein. Even once the case was opened on July 24, 2006, there were negligent delays in the investigation, indictment, and in the arrest of Epstein. The FBI investigation was closed on September 18, 2008 according to records in the FBI vault.

14. The FBI failed to comply with FBI protocols and missed reports of bank involvement and government elites as co-conspirators. It was not until the recent case, U.S. Virgin Islands v. JP Morgan Chase Bank NA, U.S. District Court, S.D.N.Y, No. 22-10904 where it was discovered that JP Morgan Chase & Co. (“JP Morgan Chase”) reached out to the federal government on numerous occasions between 2006 to 2008 and via numerous avenues regarding Epstein’s transactions with the bank and concern for child prostitution.

15. During the FBI investigation, the FBI was complicit in permitting Epstein and co-conspirators to continue to victimize Jane Does 1-12 and other young women. The FBI had photographs, videos and interviews and hard evidence of child prostitution and failed to timely investigate and arrest Epstein in deviation from the FBI protocols. Recently, in the litigation between an Epstein victim and JP Morgan Chase, it emerged that the Epstein estate had encountered a trove of pornographic content, some of which might contain sexual abuse material (CSAM). It remains to be seen whether the federal authorities reviewed the materials or what was in fact done with the material.

16. Epstein flew from Newark to the U.S Virgin Islands to judge a beauty pageant in 2007 during the FBI investigation. The FBI allowed Epstein to travel knowing that he was having sex with children, trafficking children and may have been in possession of child erotica. Epstein continued to fly between New York, Florida, the U.S. Virgin Islands and elsewhere during an open FBI investigation of a sex trafficking ring. Jane Does 1-12 continued to be sexually abused, raped and tormented as a result.

17. The FBI and the United States Attorney's Office was grossly negligent in investigating and prosecuting Epstein between 2005 and 2008 and continuing thereafter.

18. In September of 2008, Epstein reached a suspicious deal with the United States government where Epstein only pleaded guilty to solicitation of a minor in exchange for non-prosecution. Epstein served 13 months in jail, during which time he was allowed to leave for work release during the day. He continued to sexually abuse victims during his work release in close proximity to those who were supposed to be monitoring him.

19. The Department of Justice later examined the actions of the United States Attorney's Office and concluded that the victims were not treated with the forthrightness and sensitivity expected by the Department. The Office of Professional Responsibility also concluded that the former U.S. Attorney exercised poor judgment by deciding to resolve the federal investigation through the non-prosecution agreement.

20. After Epstein's 2008 unusual plea deal, more reports, tips and complaints were received by the FBI concerning sex with teenagers, minors, sex trafficking and abuse. The FBI was aware of Epstein's sex trafficking ring between New York, Palm Beach, New Mexico, Paris and the U.S. Virgin Islands which continued after Epstein was a registered sex offender.

21. It was not until 11 years later, Epstein was arrested on July 6, 2019 and charged with sex trafficking of minors and conspiracy. Epstein died in jail before the case could be prosecuted for these heinous crimes.

22. The FBI had a non-discretionary obligation, governed by established policies, procedures, rules, and protocols, to handle and investigate tips concerning potential and ongoing underage child erotica, rape, sex with minors, and sex trafficking in a reasonable manner and to act against Epstein and to prevent him from committing repeated crimes. Yet, contrary to its own established rules, the FBI failed to take appropriate action and botched and covered up investigations for years. If the FBI had complied with its mandatory obligations to investigate and intervene, Epstein would not have been able to continue to commit heinous crimes and sexually abuse and traffic Jane Does 1-12. The FBI's repeated and continued failures, delays and inaction allowed Epstein and others to continue their sex trafficking conspiracy for almost 25 years.

23. The FBI made fundamental errors when it did not respond to the allegations, failed to notify the appropriate FBI field office or state or local authorities of the allegations, and failed to take other steps to mitigate the ongoing threat posed by Epstein and associates. The inaction of the FBI and their omissions, having been alerted by victims and other law enforcement agencies of Jeffrey Epstein's abuse, failed to pursue, delayed, and overall allowed his abuse and trafficking to continue for over twenty years.

JURISDICTION, VENUE, AND TIMELINESS

24. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331. Jane Doe 1, Jane Doe 2, Jane Doe 3, Jane Doe 4, Jane Doe 5, Jane Doe 6, Jane Doe 7, Jane Doe 8, Jane Doe 9, Jane Doe 10, Jane Doe 11 and Jane Doe 12 proceed herein under the Federal Tort Claims Act.

25. This action in part arises under the Federal Tort Claims Act. This Court is vested with jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1346(b). Jurisdiction is appropriate in this Court insofar as a Federal Question is presented under the Federal Tort Claims Act.

26. If the defendant United States of America were a private individual, based on the facts alleged herein, it would be liable to the plaintiffs Jane Does 1-12 in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

27. The claims set forth herein were presented to the FBI by mailing a Standard Form 95 on behalf of Jane Does 1-12, on May 23, 2023 as required by 28 C.F.R 14.2. In response, the FBI acknowledged receipt of the claims on May 25, 2023 and advised that the matter was pending, however, after more than six months have elapsed, the FBI remains unwilling to attempt to resolve these claims.

28. All conditions precedent to Plaintiffs' filing this action have been satisfied. Specifically, each Plaintiff served proper notice on Defendant, and more than six months has elapsed with neither denial, nor resolution from Defendant.

29. As stated in 42 U.S.C. 233(g)(1)(A), at all times herein mentioned, the Federal Tort Claims Act is the exclusive remedy for injuries caused by all agents, servants and/or employees of the FBI.

30. This Court also has supplemental jurisdiction of the state law claims recounted below pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1337(a), because all claims alleged herein are part of a uniform pattern and practice and form part of the same case or controversy.

31. Venue is proper in the United States District Court of the Southern District of New York, pursuant to 28 USC 1331(b)(2), because substantial activities occurred in this District including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. Epstein's sex-trafficking operation, sex with underage minors and sexual abuse was based, managed and operated out this District;
- b. Financial and non-financial transactions of Epstein's sex trafficking operation originated in this District;
- c. The sexual abuse, committed by Epstein took place in Jeffrey Epstein's New York mansion, located within this District at 9 East 71st Street, New York City

(among other locations). Epstein used his New York mansion to harbor his victims and as a base from which to transport them to other locations outside of New York which was reported to the FBI;

d. The transportation for the Epstein sex-trafficking ring was owned, stored, and maintained in New York State. In particular, Epstein's private jets and vehicles which were used to transport victims and Epstein's clients, or purchased, owned, stored, and were maintained in New York;

e. At the time of the events at issue, several of the Jane Does resided in this District;

f. Reports of sex crimes were made to the FBI in this District;

g. All causes of action arose from 1996 and continued until 2019.

32. This action has been timely filed pursuant to Federal Tort Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1346 and 2671-80 and the discovery rule. The information regarding Defendant's culpability—which is the predicate for Plaintiff's timely claims against Defendant—has only been partially revealed to the public. Such revelations occurred after years of Defendant's willful suppression and concealment of the same. Plaintiffs only became aware of Defendant's negligence, their injuries, and the cause of their injuries after the case against J.P. Morgan Chase & Co., recent congressional hearings and document dumps, and other recent media announcements.

FACTS

A. The FBI was notified of child prostitution and sex abuse as early as 1996 and did nothing in response.

58. The FBI was aware of the Epstein and co-conspirators luring of young women and sex with underage girls in 1996 and continuing until 2019.

59. The FBI was even aware of Mr. Epstein in 1993 when he and two other defendants were charged in federal court with three counts of postal larceny and theft and one count of property theft. Epstein pleaded guilty to a single charge of conspiring to steal U.S. Treasury checks from residential mailboxes and received 5 years’ probation.

Mystery money man faces soliciting charge

By NICOLE JANOK
Palm Beach Post Staff Writer

A part-time Palm Beacher who has socialized with Donald Trump, Bill Clinton and Kevin Spacey was jailed early Sunday with accused drug dealers, drunken drivers and wife beaters after he was charged with soliciting a prostitute.

Manhattan money manager Jeffrey Epstein, 53, was picked up at his home on El Brillo Way at 1:45 a.m. He was released hours later on $3,000 bond.

Epstein was indicted last week by a state grand jury, according to state attorney's spokesman Mike Edmondson. Despite Epstein's arrest, the indictment containing the allegations remained sealed Sunday and Edmondson provided no details.

Unlike most accused johns, Epstein was charged with a third-degree felony instead of a misdemeanor. Under state law, a solicitation charge usually is elevated to a more-serious felony when the defendant has at least two solicitation convictions.

However, checks of court records here and in New York Sunday turned up no such convictions.

Epstein could not be reached. Edmondson said he was being represented by West Palm Beach attorney Jack Goldberg, who declined comment.

Epstein is the president of J Epstein & Co., a money management company based in Manhattan that caters to ultra-wealthy clientele, according to public records. See SOLICITING, 68 ► lished reports. National magazines have described him as a "mysterious billionaire" who lives in a 45,000-square-foot New York City mansion.

He has been in trouble before. In 1993, he and two other defendants were charged in federal court with three counts of postal larceny and theft and one count of property theft. Epstein plead guilty to a single charge of conspiring to steal U.S. Treasury checks from residential mailboxes and received 5 years' probation. The remaining charges were dropped.

Since then, Epstein's name has turned up in New York City's tabloids. The New York Post noted he flew President Clinton and Kevin Spacey to Africa on his private Boeing 727. In 2003, the paper dubbed him one of the Big Apple's "top studs."

In 2004, Epstein bid against Trump for a 43,000-square foot Palm Beach estate once owned by healthcare magnate Abe Gosman. Trump topped Epstein with a $41.35 million bid.

60. In 1996, Maria Farmer reported to the New York Police Department and FBI that Jeffrey Epstein and Ghislaine Maxwell had sexually abused her and her sister Annie and that they, together with others, were committing multiple illegal sexual abuse crimes, including crimes against minors and vulnerable young women. In response to the call by Maria Farmer, the FBI "hung up" on her and did nothing to investigate the report. Mr. Epstein was still on probation for pleading guilty to a federal crime.

B. The FBI was aware of Epstein's repeated child prostitution and sex abuse and failed to investigate

61. Between 1996 and 2005, the FBI continued to receive direct reports, complaints and tips concerning the illegal sex trafficking of women and underage minors, sex abuse and human rights violations committed by Jeffrey Epstein and associates. In response, the FBI failed to act upon and investigate the complaints and tips and failed to comply with protocol and guidelines notwithstanding credible reports of solicitation of child prostitution and sex trafficking.

62. In 2002, secret service clearance was given for travel on Epstein's private Boeing 727 to Africa. Epstein would have been on the FBI's radar and should have been cleared by the federal government.

63. Jeffrey Epstein's name and suspicious travels were published in magazines. On October 28, 2002, a New York magazine article was published and distributed. The article entitled "Jeffrey Epstein: International Moneyman of Mystery" by Landon Thomas Jr., noted that "[h]e comes with cash to burn, a fleet of airplanes and a keen eye for the ladies." Further, "[i]t's a life full of question marks, Epstein is said to run $15 billion for wealthy clients, yet aside from Limited founder Leslie Wexner, his client list is a closely held secret." "Epstein is frequently seen around town with a bevy of comely young women." The article discussed Epstein's travels and connections with high profile men and "he has a trip to Brazil coming up in the next few weeks and on all of these trips, he flies alone in his commercial jet size 727."

64. The FBI was aware that Epstein did not fly alone. In November of 2002, a sex abuse survivor was issued a Visa to Brazil to travel with Epstein on his jet. Scores of girls were issued Visas for travel on his private jet and the FBI did nothing to investigate these red flags.

65. Epstein's office initiated a passport on behalf of a sex abuse survivor represented by this firm to travel to Paris, France with Epstein and associates. The issuance of the passports and visas would have required a background check, which was not conducted pursuant to the usual channels. In fact, recently it was disclosed to the public that Epstein's office initiated passports and visas for other women and underage girls for the purpose of sex trafficking them. The FBI failed to investigate the red flags and failed to conduct appropriate background tracks.

66. Epstein frequently requested new passports, reported lost passports and would use multiple passports for traveling. Of late, it was discovered that the FBI seized Epstein's passports and he would use different addresses and names on the passports. The FBI was aware of Epstein's passport fraud and failed to do anything in response. Had the FBI done its job, it would have been discovered that Epstein was operating a child sex trafficking ring.

67. Recently, on January 3, 2024, Senator Blackburn reiterated the FBI's failure to investigate flight logs and sent a letter to the Judiciary Committee Chairman Dick Durbin urging the release of names of people who flew on Epstein's plane and who potentially participated in his international sex trafficking ring.

C. In March 2005, the FBI again had evidence of child prostitution and sex trafficking and did nothing

68. In March 2005, a woman contacted Florida's Palm Beach Police Department to report that a 14-year-old girl was recruited to Epstein's mansion for a sexual massage in exchange for money.

69. The Palm Beach Police Department alerted the FBI of child prostitution, however the FBI did not open a case until July 24, 2006.

Description:  Original notes re interview of Biographical file for

71. A search warrant was executed to raid the mansion of Epstein by the Florida Palm Beach County Police Department in 2005, before the FBI case was opened. During the search, messages were handed over to the FBI. The “important message” sheets were appointments for massages with minors and young women.

72. As referenced by investigative journalist Julie Brown in “Perversion of Justice,” “[d]uring the 2005 to 2006 police investigation, police found phone messages...one of them in which... it was hinted that he had twelve-year-old twins to send him.”

73. When the FBI seized the messages, the FBI failed to interview the potential victims and did not contact all the victims even though the FBI had their names and telephone numbers. Sex abuse victims were never contacted by the FBI despite cell phone numbers listed on the seized “important messages” in violation of FBI protocols.

74. The FBI was notified that victims were threatened by billionaire Epstein if they spoke to authorities during the 2006 to 2008 investigation, yet the FBI did nothing to assist the victims. Epstein said things like “You’re going to die; I’m going to break your legs.” The FBI’s incompetence and negligence perpetuated the continued sex abuse of Jane Does 1-12 and trafficking of teenagers and young women in his New York townhouse, Palm Beach mansion, his private island in the U.S. Virgin Islands and elsewhere.

75. During the Palm Beach Police Department investigation police documents included interviews with: (1) a Palm Beach Community College student who said she gave Epstein a massage in the nude, then brought him six girls aged 14 -16 years old for massage and sex tinged sessions at his home; (2) a 27-year-old women who worked as Epstein’s personal assistant also facilitated the liaisons, phoning the Palm Beach Community College student to arrange for girls when Epstein was coming to town, and escorted the girls upstairs when they arrived, putting fresh sheets on a massage table and placed massage oils nearby; and (3) sworn statements from five alleged victims and seventeen witnesses who stated that, on three occasions, Epstein had sex with the girls.

76. Further, the Palm Beach Police Department investigation revealed that Haley Robson met Epstein at the age of 16. Robson brought six girls to Epstein and one of them was the 14-year-old girl who started the investigation by the Palm Beach Police Department.

77. The Palm Beach Police Department investigation was provided to the FBI, and the FBI was grossly negligent in timely arresting Epstein. The FBI delayed, procrastinated and waited three years to arrest Epstein for child prostitution all the while Epstein's sex trafficking operation continued to operate as underage girls and young women were sexually abused such as the Plaintiffs herein.

78. Numerous reports and tips were received by the FBI, however these reports were concealed from the public. It was not until the recent case, U.S. Virgin Islands v. JP Morgan Chase Bank NA, U.S. District Court, S.D.N.Y, No. 22-10904 where it was discovered that JP Morgan Chase contacted the federal government on numerous occasions between 2006-2008 and via numerous vehicles regarding Epstein's suspicious transactions with the bank.

79. In August 2007, the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida issued a subpoena to Bear Stearns regarding transactions out of Epstein's accounts in the amounts of either $1,000 or $100,000. On September 6, 2007, the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Florida followed upon on the subpoena it had issued to Bear Stearns demanding to receive a list of accounts at other financial institutions that Bear Stearns has either transferred money or received money from on behalf of Mr. Epstein.

80. The FBI was on notice of the banking relationships of Jeffery Epstein and instead of obtaining information through the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network and the Federal Reserve System which handles the wiring of funds between banks, the federal prosecutor inquired with a private bank.

81. The FBI was notified that JP Morgan Chase handled more than $1.1 million in payments from Epstein to girls or women, many with Eastern European surnames and failed to investigate and instead the reports were concealed. The FBI was aware of the hard cash flowing out of Epstein's accounts in transactions related to human trafficking yet concealed the reports and did not investigate the crimes until the recent lawsuit filed by the U.S. Virgin Islands against JP Morgan Chase.

82. The FBI delayed their investigation and failed to timely arrest Epstein despite credible evidence of a child sex traffic ring and prostitution. Epstein continued to sexually abuse Jane Does 1-12 along with other girls and young women during the FBI investigation. The FBI was aware of evidence of child trafficking. Epstein's predatory habits stretched back many years and involved dozens of young-looking girls which the FBI ignored.

83. The FBI vault records document that the investigation was closed on September 18, 2008. "Epstein was being prosecuted by the State of Florida and complying with the conditions of his plea and would provide information to the FBI as agreed upon. Case agent advised that no federal prosecution will occur in this matter as long as Epstein continues to uphold his agreement with the State of Florida."

84. The FBI vault records document that on October 7, 2008, Epstein negotiated a Non-Prosecution Agreement with the United States of America and the victims were to be notified of the terms of the agreement. The victims were not notified of the terms of the agreement and this prompted an investigation by the Department of Justice.

85. Epstein served 13 months in jail, during which time he was allowed to leave for work release during the day where he was driven by his limo driver to an office each day.

86. Palm Beach Police Chief Michael Reiter was so angry with the State Attorney's handling of the Epstein case that he wrote a memo suggesting the county's top prosecutor disqualify himself. "I must urge you to examine the unusual course that your office's handling of this matter has taken and consider good and sufficient reason exists to require your disqualification from the prosecution of these cases."

After long probe, billionaire faces
solicitation charge

Palm Beach billionaire Jeffrey Epstein paid to have underage girls and young women brought to his home, where he received massages and sometimes sex, according to an investigation by the Palm Beach Police Department.

Palm Beach police spent months sifting through Epstein's trash and watching his waterfront home and Palm Beach International Airport to keep tabs on his private jet. An indictment charging Epstein, 53, was unsealed Monday, charging him with one count of felony solicitation of prostitution.

Palm Beach police thought there was probable cause to charge Epstein with unlawful sex acts with a minor and lewd and lascivious molestation.

Police Chief Michael Reiter was so angry with State Attorney Barry Krischer's handling of the case that he wrote a memo

87. Epstein was able to continue his sexual assaults of underage girls after his release from jail in July 2009 until he was arrested on federal charges of sex trafficking of minors on July 8, 2019. From 2009 until 2019, the FBI was complicit in permitting the ongoing sex trafficking of minors, rape and sexual abuse of girls and young women which occurred between New York, Palm Beach and the U.S. Virgin Islands, and many other locations.

88. On July 6, 2019, Epstein was arrested for sex trafficking of children and conspiracy. Epstein died in jail on August 10, 2019 from an apparent suicide before the case could be prosecuted for these heinous crimes.

D. The FBI violated its duty to the plaintiffs and departed from FBI Protocol

89. The FBI violated its duty to the plaintiffs and failed to comply with its own mission to “protect the American people and uphold the Constitution of the United States” from 1996 through 2019.

90. The FBI instructs the public to report information about crimes. For example, on the “Contact Us” page of the FBI’s website, the FBI instructs concerned citizens to “submit a tip” to report suspected criminal activity. The website tells the public, “If you see something, say something.” The FBI website says “We protect the American people and uphold the U.S. Constitution.”

91. The FBI website states that the FBI works a case by world class training, tactics, science and technology and intelligence.

92. The FBI’s guidebook explains tips “must all be taken seriously and thoroughly evaluated.”

93. The FBI received its first tip in 1996 as reported by Maria Farmer of sex abuse of a minor and did not take the report seriously and did not investigate the report in violation of FBI protocol. Interestingly, in 1996 Epstein was on probation for a federal crime, yet the FBI hung up on Ms. Farmer. The FBI continued to receive tips and complaints from 1996 until March 2005, when the Palm Beach Police Department notified the FBI of child prostitution.

94. When the Palm Beach County Police department notified the FBI, they continued to violate FBI Protocol by delaying the investigation. The FBI received information from the Palm Beach County Police Department in March 2005 and did not open the investigation until July 24, 2006. The investigation was conducted in a grossly negligent manner and resulted in the ongoing sexual abuse of many women including some of the Jane Does 1-12 during the investigation. The investigation was closed on September 18, 2008, after Epstein agreed to give unknown information to the FBI according to the FBI vault. He pleaded guilty to a much lesser crime, served minimal time in jail and then used double jeopardy to continue his sex abuse and trafficking operation.

95. The FBI had non-discretionary obligations, governed by established protocols, to handle and investigate tips concerning potential and ongoing underage child erotica, rape, sex with minors, and human sex trafficking in a reasonable manner and to act against Epstein and to prevent him from committing repeated crimes. Yet, contrary to its own established rules, the FBI failed to take appropriate action and botched and covered up investigations for years. If the FBI had complied with its mandatory obligations to investigate and intervene, Epstein would not have been able to continue to commit heinous crimes. The FBI's repeated and continued failures, delays and inaction allowed Epstein and others to continue their sex trafficking conspiracy for almost 25 years.

96. The FBI was negligent when it did not respond nor appropriately investigate the allegations, failed to notify the appropriate FBI field office or state or local authorities of the allegations, and failed to take other steps to mitigate the ongoing threat posed by Epstein and associates. The inaction of the FBI and their omissions, having been alerted by victims and other law enforcement agencies of Jeffrey Epstein's abuse, failed to pursue, delayed, and overall allowed his abuse and trafficking to continue for over 20 years.

E. Department of Justice Questioned the handling of the investigation of prosecution of Epstein

97. After Epstein's 2008 plea deal, the Office of Professional Responsibility examined the actions of the Florida federal attorney-prosecutors during that time period between 2006 and 2008. The Office of Professional Responsibility concluded that the victims were not treated with the forthrightness and sensitivity expected by the Department.

98. In a statement released in 2020, the Justice Department said that when Acosta let Epstein enter the non-prosecution agreement in 2008 that spared him from federal sex-trafficking charges, he "failed to make certain that the state of Florida intended to and would notify victims identified through the federal investigation about the state plea hearing."

99. During the probe by the Office of Professional Responsibility, Senator Ben Sasse of Nebraska stated "letting a well-connected billionaire get away with child rape and international sex trafficking isn't poor judgment- its a disgusting failure."

100. During the probe by the Justice Department into the 2006 to 2008 investigation, it came to light that Epstein judged a beauty pageant in the Virgin Islands seven months before he signed the non-prosecution deal that shielded him from federal sex crime charges. The FBI apparently planned to arrest Epstein on or about May 15, 2007, however the Florida prosecutor was unable to obtain authorization from Acosta for the indictment. Instead, Epstein was arrested in 2008, another delay which resulted in continued sexual assault of the plaintiffs and other women and children.

F. The FBI's negligence caused and contributed to the ongoing child prostitution and sex trafficking

101. Epstein could not and would not have sexually trafficked, abused, assaulted, and battered plaintiffs in New York, Florida, the U.S. Virgin Islands and elsewhere without the negligence of the FBI. The FBI failed to collaborate with federal, state and local partners and did not share intelligence nor conduct adequate surveillance. The FBI did not interview victims and provide victim assistance and concealed reports of a sex trafficking venture. The FBI did not act on reports of crimes.

102. Epstein could not have sexually trafficked, abused, assaulted, and battered Plaintiffs without the FBI and its agents, servants and employees' negligent investigation.

CAUSE OF ACTION

COUNT 1: NEGLIGENCE

103. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in all preceding paragraphs.

104. Duty: The FBI owed a legal duty to the victims, Jane Does 1-12, who were sex trafficked, raped and sexually abused by Epstein.

105. The FBI had a non-discretionary obligation, governed by established protocols, to handle and investigate tips concerning potential and ongoing underage child erotica, rape, sex with minors, and human sex trafficking in a reasonable manner and to act against Epstein and to prevent him from committing repeated crimes. The FBI failed to take appropriate action in light of complaints made regarding Epstein and subsequently botched and covered up investigations for years. If the FBI had complied with its mandatory obligations to investigate and intervene based on the information it was receiving, Epstein would not have been able to continue to commit the heinous crimes he did against Plaintiffs. The FBI's repeated and continued failures, delays and inaction allowed Epstein and others to continue their sex trafficking conspiracy for almost 25 years.

106. The FBI made fundamental errors in 1996 and during the 2005 to 2008 investigation. Again, after Epstein served minimal time in jail, the FBI again did not investigate the tips and reports of sex trafficking of minors, sex abuse and rape which occurred between New York and U.S. Virgin Islands and several other locations. The inaction of the FBI and their omissions, having been alerted by victims and other law enforcement agencies of Jeffrey Epstein's abuse, failed to pursue, delayed, and overall allowed his abuse and trafficking to continue for over 20 years.

107. Breach: The FBI failed to exercise reasonable care (a) in complying with mandatory investigative procedures that the FBI had adopted as the standard of conduct for handling information; (b) in complying with non-discretionary duties not to falsely assure people possessing credible information and evidence about ongoing sex trafficking; (c) in performing the task of investigating complaints and other information regarding Epstein's abuse of women and minors; and (d) in the way it handled information regarding Epstein's abuse of women and minors. The FBI failed to exercise reasonable care in the following ways, among other negligent acts and omissions already known and to be revealed in discovery:

- a. Failing to properly respond to a report received from Maria Farmer in 1996 of sex abuse of a minor;
- b. Failing to properly respond to tips and reports regarding sex trafficking of minors and young women and sexual abuse of minors and young women from 1996 until 2005;
- c. Negligently investigating reports of a 14-year-old being sexually abused in Epstein's Palm Beach mansion;
- d. Negligently failing to investigate child sexual abuse material during the 2005 raid of Epstein's Palm Beach mansion;
- e. Negligently failing to interview and assist the victim whose names were on the "Important Messages" from 2001 to 2005;

- f. Negligently permitting Epstein to be a judge at a beauty pageant in the U.S. Virgin Islands in 2007 despite impending charges of sex trafficking of minors and sex abuse;
- g. Negligently permitting—via the clearing of background checks for passengers on Epstein’s private jet—Epstein to sex traffic minors and young women;
- h. Ignoring reports of violence and threats to victims if they cooperated with authorities;
- i. Ignoring reports of child sex trafficking; and
- j. Failing to follow up on improper issuing of passports and federal passport fraud.

108. Causation: As a direct and proximate cause of the FBI’s negligence, Plaintiffs would not have been continued to be sex trafficked, abused, raped tortured and threatened. The FBI’s failure to investigate the tips and information it had received, and failing to follow its mandatory, established protocols was a direct and substantial cause of the Plaintiffs’ damages.

109. Damages: As a direct and proximate cause of the Defendant’s negligence, Plaintiffs were sexually abused, raped, assaulted, tormented, violated, harassed, intimidated, and suffered permanent injuries, including but not limited to severe emotional and physical pain and suffering, post-traumatic stress disorder, insomnia, anxiety, shock, fear, nightmares, shame, embarrassment, loss of enjoyment of life, flashbacks, need for future medical and psychiatric expenses, and other severe injuries.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

110. Jane Does 1-12 respectfully requests that the Court enter judgment in their favor, and against the United States, as follows:

- a. That the Court award Plaintiffs compensatory, consequential, general, and nominal damages, as well as all other available damages, against Defendant in an amount to be determined at trial;
- b. That the Court award to Plaintiffs the costs and disbursements of the action, along with reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses;
- c. That the Court award pre- and post-judgment interest at the maximum legal rate; and;
- d. That the Court grant all such other and further relief as it deems just and proper.
