SCHEDULING ORDER

MARGARET M. GARNETT, United States District Judge:

The following case schedule is HEREBY ORDERED. Counsel are free to negotiate interim deadlines among themselves without the involvement of the Court, although the Court's assistance is available if needed. In addition, other than dates for submissions to the Court, and dates for the close of fact discovery and the close of expert discovery, counsel may agree to alterations of other dates listed below without the Court's approval.

Other than as set forth above, the below dates and deadlines will not be extended absent compelling circumstances that could not have been anticipated as of the date of this Order. The start date for the trial, in particular, should be treated as firm. Based on representations of counsel as of the date of this Order and the Court's own assessment of the time needed, the Court anticipates that a trial in this matter will last 3-4 weeks.
