Subject: United States et al. v. Live Nation, et al. (1:24-cv-03973) – Request to Withdraw Defendants' Motion to Exclude Trial Exhibits & Related Briefing

DENIED. The plaintiff states have indicated that they oppose the motion, and so withdrawing without prejudice won't solve anything. Of course, the parties should continue to meet and confer to determine whether the motion can be resolved without court intervention. The motion to remove public filings from the docket without justification is also denied.

In the future, motions like these should be publicly docketed and not emailed privately to chambers.

SO ORDERED.

Arun Subramanian, U.S.D.J.
Date: March 10, 2026

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Dear Judge Subramanian:

In light of today's developments, Defendants respectfully request the Court's permission to withdraw their Motion to Exclude Trial Exhibits, filed on March 8, 2026 (ECF Nos. 1144 and 1146), without prejudice to renewing the motion, to give Defendants an opportunity to discuss these issues with the Plaintiff States. Defendants also request that all briefing on the Motion, including the filings made by the United States (ECF Nos. 1161, 1162, 1164), be removed from the docket.

Respectfully submitted,

Robin L. Gushman
