-----X

Plaintiff John Doe (“Plaintiff”), by and through his attorneys, The Buzbee Law Firm, for his Complaint alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This case seeks compensatory and punitive damages for a violent sexual assault. The assault occurred at what was termed a “white party” at Combs’ residence in New York. The conduct described herein is shockingly typical of how Defendant Sean Combs conducted himself for many years. Many individuals and entities facilitated and enabled this abhorrent conduct. Sean Combs believed he was above the law. He is not.

2. For decades, Sean Combs (a/k/a “P. Diddy,” a/k/a “Puff Daddy,” a/k/a “Diddy,” a/k/a “PD,” and a/k/a “Love”) (described herein as “Combs”) abused, molested, raped, assaulted, threatened and coerced men, women, minors and others for sexual gratification, to assert dominance, and to conceal his abhorrent conduct. He accomplished these acts by and through a criminal enterprise built on his success as a rapper, record producer and record executive. Combs is one of the wealthiest musical artists in the world. Behind the façade of being a three-time Grammy Award winner, discovering and developing multiple famous musical artists, and ranking on Forbes' list of the highest-paid entertainers in the world, there existed something sinister – a dark underbelly of crime, sex trafficking, forced labor, kidnapping, bribery and prostitution. Combs is a menace to society, women and children. While his wealth has kept him above consequence for years, Combs now faces the awesome power of the American judicial system and ultimately a jury of his peers, who will be asked to punish him for the deplorable conduct described herein.

Combs' Businesses

3. Combs' business enterprise is central to the pervasive acts of sexual assault and abuse committed by him during the last decades. Combs operated his business, headquartered at various times in Manhattan and Los Angeles, under a variety of United States-based corporate entities, including Bad Boy Entertainment, Bad Boy Books Holdings, Inc., Bad Boy Records LLC, Bad Boy Entertainment, LLC, Bad Boy Productions, LLC, Daddy's House Recording Studio, Inc., and CE OPCO, LLC d/b/a Combs Global, f/k/a Combs Enterprises LLC, Combs Enterprises and Combs Global (collectively, the "Combs Business"). Corporate entities in the Combs Business portfolio included record labels, a recording studio, an apparel line, an alcoholic spirits promoting business, a marketing agency, talent discovery, a television network and a media company.

4. On the surface, each of these businesses served a legitimate purpose related to entertainment, music and other subjects. But in reality, Combs, by and through himself and his agents, employees and contractors, used these businesses to sexually assault, abuse, threaten and coerce hundreds of individuals through sexual quid pro quo schemes, as well as to take advantage of individuals with impunity thinking the victims would never seek recourse. Combs and his agents, employees and contractors, through these Combs Businesses, would tell victims, “this is what it takes to be famous,” “what are you willing to do to become a star?,” and “perform this sexual act or else” to coerce the victim into performing a non-consensual sexual act for the gratification of Combs and his cohorts.

5. Members and associates of the Combs Business engaged in (and/or attempted to engage in), among other activities, sex trafficking, forced labor, interstate transportation for the purposes of prostitution, coercion and enticement to engage in prostitution, narcotics offenses, kidnapping, arson, bribery, and obstruction of justice.

6. The Combs Business constituted an ongoing organization whose members functioned as a continuing unit for a common purpose of achieving the objectives of Combs.

Combs' Pervasive History of Sexual Assault and Violence

7. For years Combs and his businesses engaged in a persistent and pervasive pattern of abuse toward women, men, and minors. This abuse was, at times, verbal, emotional, physical and sexual. As part of his pattern of abuse, Combs manipulated both men and women to participate in highly-orchestrated performances of sexual activity with both commercial sex workers and unsuspecting partygoers. In some cases these were individuals who were contractors or vendors. In other cases, they were random individuals pulled from a hotel lobby, a show, or off the street. Combs ensured participation from these individuals by, among other things, obtaining and distributing narcotics to them with or without their knowledge, controlling their careers, leveraging his financial support and threatening to cut off the same, and using intimidation, violence, and illicit drugs.

8. Combs, while celebrated for his business acumen and influence in the entertainment world, has often been described in a more troubling light as powerful, manipulative, and problematic. His aggressive tactics, both in business and personal dealings, have drawn criticism, with many viewing him as someone who leverages his power to intimidate and control. This darker side of Combs' persona has been underscored by the numerous lawsuits and allegations that have surfaced over the years. Despite his undeniable success, his rise to the top is marred by a reputation for being ruthless and manipulative, using his influence in ways that have left a trail of legal and personal controversies including but not limited to the following:

- a. Nightclub Shooting Incident (1999): Combs was embroiled in a high-profile case related to a nightclub shooting in New York, involving his then-girlfriend, Jennifer Lopez, and rapper Shyne. Combs was acquitted of all charges, though the case remains a significant legal event in his career.
- b. Multiple Assault Allegations: Combs has faced several lawsuits related to alleged physical assaults, many of which have been settled out of court.
- c. Business Disputes: Combs has been involved in various business-related legal conflicts, particularly surrounding his Sean John clothing line and other ventures. These disputes often involved contractual disagreements and trademark claims.
- d. Claims by Cassie Ventura: Combs' former girlfriend, Casandra "Cassie" Ventura, filed a lawsuit accusing him of years of physical, emotional, and sexual abuse during their relationship. Cassie alleged repeated instances of assault, coerced sexual acts, and drug use, all contributing to an environment of fear and manipulation.

9. Combs particularly fancied the use of the popular date-rape drug Rohypnol, or GHB, to commit heinous non-consensual acts of sexual violence and rape onto countless victims. Combs often would secretly use the drug in an alcoholic beverage served at his parties, typically champagne or “lemon drops.” Partygoers were forced to consume the alcoholic beverage, containing GHB, either prior to entering or while at Combs’ party. There are also allegations of Combs dousing victims in lotions or similar body oils, also laced with GBH, so that the drug would be absorbed through the victim’s skin and make it easier to assault him or her.

10. Combs’ recurrent and pervasive physical abuse took place for multiple decades. His tendencies of violence and sexual assault were no doubt well known amongst his colleagues, employees, agents and businesses. On numerous occasions from at least on or about 1996 and continuing for years, Combs assaulted women and men by striking, punching, dragging, throwing objects at, and kicking them. Combs also assaulted children both physically and sexually.

11. In 1996, Combs was found guilty of criminal mischief for threatening a photographer from the New York Post with a gun. In 1999, he was arrested and charged with second-degree assault and criminal mischief in connection with assaulting a record executive. Combs was arrested again the same year for his involvement in a shooting at a club in New York. Another instance of violence occurred at a Los Angeles hotel in or about March 2016, which was captured on video and later publicly reported, where Combs kicked, dragged and threw a vase at a woman as she was attempting to leave his hotel room. When hotel security staff intervened, Combs attempted to bribe the staff member to ensure silence.

12. In the past year, numerous civil complaints have been filed by plaintiffs who allege that they had been sexually abused by Combs between 1991 and 2009. In November 2023, three lawsuits were filed against Combs under the New York Adult Survivors Act. Cassie Ventura, an artist signed to Bad Boy, sued Combs in New York for rape and physical abuse. She alleged Combs facilitated these acts by and through supplying Ms. Ventura with copious amounts of drugs and urging her to take them, beginning in 2006.

13. Joi Dickerson-Neal also sued Combs in New York, alleging Combs drugged her, sexually assaulted her and secretly recorded the assault in 1991.

14. Liza Gardner, whom Combs met at an event hosted by a record label affiliated with Bad Boy, sued him for allegedly raping her and a friend in 1990 or 1991 when she was only 16.

15. In December 2023, an anonymous Plaintiff sued Combs in New York for allegedly drugging and gang-raping her in 2003 when she was only seventeen years old. This victim alleged that employees and business associates of Combs, through their affiliation with the Bad Boy enterprise, lured her to Combs' home where Combs then raped her.

16. In February 2024, Rodney "Lil Rod" Jones, one of Combs' former producers, sued Combs for allegedly forcing him to engage in unwanted sex acts and sex trafficking, among other allegations. Mr. Jones alleged that Combs regularly drugged others, including minors, by giving them drugs laced with ecstasy (MDMA) and other date rape drugs. Mr. Jones alleged that Combs in fact drugged him as well in order to commit acts of sexual assault.

17. In May 2024, former model Crystal McKinney and April Lampros sued Combs. Ms. McKinney alleged that Combs drugged and sexually assaulted her at his recording studio in 2003. Mimicking what has now become a known pattern, Combs promised Ms. McKinney to help her with her modeling career in exchange for engaging in sexual conduct with him. Ms. Lampros, an intern at Arista Records, which was an owner of Bad Boy, also sued Combs in May 2024 in New York County Supreme Court for raping her on multiple occasions, secretly filming these acts, and showing the recordings to multiple people. Ms. Lampros also alleges that Combs ordered her to take drugs on one occasion before he raped her.

18. In July 2024, former adult film star Adria English – who was employed by Combs as an entertainer at his infamous White Parties that brought together the biggest names in the music and entertainment industries – sued Combs in the Southern District of New York for sex trafficking, alleging that he required her to consume drinks laced with ecstasy and secretly recorded the sexual acts.

19. In September 2024, singer and songwriter Dawn Angelique Richard also sued Combs. Richard was employed by Combs as part of the girl group Danity Kane, formed by Combs, and later as a key member of Combs' band Diddy – Dirty Money. She sued Combs in New York for sexual assault, false imprisonment, and for subjecting her to hostile working conditions due to her gender, including degrading comments and threats. Ms. Richard has alleged that Combs regularly supplied others including minors with copious amounts of drugs and alcohol, and subjected them to sexual acts while they were sedated and/or unconscious due to the drugs and alcohol.

20. In September 2024, a federal grand jury in Manhattan indicted Combs and charged him with sex trafficking, racketeering and the “creation of a criminal enterprise in which he abused, threatened and coerced women and others around him to fulfill his sexual desires, protect his reputation and conceal his conduct.” See United States of America v. Sean Combs, a/k/a “Puff Daddy,” a/k/a “P. Diddy,” a/k/a “Diddy,” a/k/a “PD,” a/k/a “Love,” Index No. 24 Crim. 542, Indictment (SDNY), at ¶ 1. The indictment explains that Combs' abuse of women and minors was enabled by “the employees, resources and influence of the multi-faceted business empire that he led and controlled – creating a criminal enterprise whose members and associates engaged in, and attempted to engage in, among other crimes, sex-trafficking, forced labor, kidnapping, arson, bribery and obstruction of justice.”

21. Combs’ long history of violence unequivocally establishes that his actions are motivated by gender – both men and women. Combs has a profound contempt for women and a desire to dominate both minors and other men. His conduct shows a longstanding practice of denigrating, defeating and attempting to humiliate men, women and children. His practices and desires are different for men, women and children. But his actions are unequivocally motivated by the victims’ particular gender and age.

22. Plaintiff’s allegations herein substantially mirror Combs’ prior conduct as established through criminal indictments and other lawsuits. Through this case, Plaintiff seeks a full measure of justice from a man who thought his power, money and influence rendered him untouchable. Plaintiff joins many other victims by filing this Complaint in hopes their common voice makes it impossible for Combs to assault another person ever again.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

30. This Court has subject-matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 because this case is between citizens of different states, and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.

31. This Court has specific personal jurisdiction over Defendants because the acts giving rise to Plaintiff's claims took place in New York State, and because several of the Defendants are domiciled in New York State and/or regularly transact business in New York State.

32. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this District.

JURY DEMAND

33. Plaintiff hereby demands a trial by jury on his claims in this action.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

34. Sean Combs' infamous "White Parties" were legendary events known for their exclusivity, extravagance, and strict dress code, where attendees were required to wear all white. These high-profile parties, particularly those held at Combs' estates in the Hamptons, attracted A-list celebrities from across the entertainment, fashion, and business worlds. The events were lavishly decorated, featured live music performances, and boasted top-tier food and beverages. The atmosphere at these parties was one of opulence and luxury, often making headlines for their celebrity guest lists, over-the-top entertainment, and the stunning aesthetics of the event. Many unsuspecting individuals were recruited to attend these parties. Some of this recruitment took place in Manhattan. Many individuals were also recruited in Los Angeles and were paid to fly in and to attend these functions.

35. In 2007, Plaintiff was employed by a security firm, MASS Security, where he provided security services for nightclubs and private events.

36. In August of that year, Plaintiff accepted a last-minute job at Combs' East Hampton property, which he believed was hosting an exclusive white party for a large, affluent crowd. Plaintiff noted that the guests arrived in luxury vehicles, and many appeared to be executives.

37. Upon Plaintiff's arrival, he was greeted by Combs, the event's host, who expressed interest in meeting all staff members.

38. During their interaction, Combs offered Plaintiff another job opportunity working security, which Plaintiff ultimately declined due to his father's severe illness and the challenges of relocating. Combs appeared sympathetic to Plaintiff's situation and understanding of his decision.

39. As the event progressed, Combs targeted Plaintiff and provided him with two alcoholic drinks throughout the night.

40. After consuming the second drink, Plaintiff began to feel extremely ill and leaned against his truck for support. Based on information and belief, Combs, by himself or through his agents/employees, previously laced the drink with drugs, including but not limited to GHB and/or ecstasy. This behavior towards Plaintiff mimics a pattern of Combs and his agents/employees drugging unsuspecting victims in order to make it easier for Combs to sexually assault that person. Unfortunately, Plaintiff was one such victim. A photograph of an exemplary container used by Combs and/or his agents/employees to insert GHB into alcoholic drinks is seen below:

41. Combs approached him again, inquiring about his well-being and displaying what Plaintiff initially interpreted as concern.

42. However, he soon found himself being forcibly pushed into an open van by Combs, an act that left him in considerable pain.

43. Once inside the van, Plaintiff was held down by Combs, who overpowered him while he struggled to escape due to the effects of the drugs in his system.

44. In a horrific turn of events, Combs sexually assaulted Plaintiff by inserting his penis into Plaintiff's anus and sodomizing him, all the while dismissing Plaintiff's pleas for help by repeatedly saying, "you'll be alright."

45. After the assault, Combs left Plaintiff in the van and proceeded back to the party.

46. Plaintiff struggled to leave the party due to the drugs he believed to be in his system from the “alcoholic” drinks Combs provided.

47. As Plaintiff was leaving the party, he experienced a disturbing sensation as a lubricant-like fluid leaked from him, which he believed to be semen, causing him profound disgust.

48. When Plaintiff finally managed to leave the scene and return home, he informed his supervisor of the incident.

49. Upon arriving home and showering, Plaintiff noticed more semen discharge, which intensified his feelings of violation and revulsion.

50. In the aftermath of the assault, Plaintiff struggled with intense emotional pain and mental health issues, feeling disgusted and deeply depressed.

51. Plaintiff has experienced a significant impact on his personal life; he was married at the time and was too ashamed to tell his wife after suffering through the assault.

52. Plaintiff describes himself as an “all-American guy,” yet acknowledges that not a day goes by without thoughts of the traumatic incident.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(Violation of New York City Victims of Gender-Motivated Violence Protection Act)
(All Defendants)

53. Plaintiff hereby incorporates each of the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

54. By forcing sexual contact onto Plaintiff, Defendant Combs committed a “crime of violence motivated by gender” under the Victims of Gender-Motivated Violence Protection Act (“VGMVPA”) as defined in New York City Administrative Code § 10-1103.

55. The requirement that the crime of violence be committed because of gender or on the basis of gender, and due, at least in part, to an animus based on the victim’s gender is satisfied because Defendant Combs forced Plaintiff to engage in a sexual interaction without consent. Moreover, Combs' long history of violence and sexual abuse against men evinces a deep contempt and desire for domination over men.

56. The Combs Business enabled Combs to commit the crime of violence motivated by gender because Combs sexually assaulted Plaintiff at a party related to or referencing Combs Business. On information and belief, Combs Businesses routinely committed sexual assault and gender-motivated violence, as detailed in other civil lawsuits, to further the business purpose of Combs' enterprise. Given Combs' long-standing pattern and practice of committing sexual violence against young men, the Combs Business had and/or should have had knowledge of Combs using such parties and venues for this unlawful conduct, and did nothing to stop it.

57. The Combs Business enabled Combs to commit the crime of violence motivated by gender by failing to, among other things, protect Plaintiff from a known danger and/or have sufficient policies and procedures in place to prevent sexual assault and/or train their employees on identifying and preventing sexual assault. Given Combs' long-standing pattern and practice of committing sexual violence against young men, including on premises owned and/or operated by Defendants, the Combs Corporations had and/or should have had knowledge that Combs was a danger to Plaintiff, and did nothing to stop Combs.

58. The Combs Business enabled Combs to commit the crime of violence motivated by gender by failing to properly supervise. The Combs Business had knowledge and/or should have had knowledge of Combs' widespread and well-known practice of committing sexual assault and gender-motivated violence, including on premises owned and/or operated by Defendants, and did nothing to stop it.

59. The Combs Corporations further enabled Combs to commit the crime of violence motivated by gender by actively placing, maintaining, and/or employing Combs in positions of power and authority, despite the fact that they knew and/or should have known that Combs had a widespread and well-known practice of committing sexual assault and gender-motivated violence, including on premises owned and/or operated by Defendants. Combs used his titles and authority conferred by the Combs Business, including as CEO, Founder, and Chairman to facilitate and perpetuate the violent assault on Plaintiff, and to intimidate and force Plaintiff to keep quiet in subsequent years.

60. On information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that Defendant Organizational Does 1 through 10, inclusive, are other parties not yet identified who have enabled Combs to commit the crime of violence motivated by gender, in the ways articulated above and/or in other ways.

61. As a result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial and pursuant to the fee-shifting provision of the statute.

62. This legal action has been commenced within the statutory timeframe provided by the two-year look-back window for VGMVPA claims. See New York City Administrative Code § 10-1105.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that judgment be entered against Defendants as follows:

- a. Awarding compensatory damages for all physical injuries, emotional distress, psychological harm, anxiety, humiliation, physical and emotional pain and suffering, family and social disruption, and other harm, in an amount to be determined at trial;
- b. Awarding punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial;

- c. Awarding attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to any applicable statute or law;
- d. Awarding pre- and post-judgment interest on all such damages, fees, and/or costs;
- e. Attaching any and all of Defendants' real property and other assets located in the State of New York pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 64; and
- f. Awarding such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
