LEWIS J. LIMAN, United States District Judge:

Before the Court are various requests for sealing and unsealing filed by both parties and non-parties regarding materials submitted in connection with: (1) Plaintiff Blake Lively’s (“Lively”) motion for spoliation sanctions against the Wayfarer Parties,¹ see Dkt. No. 862; (2) Third-Party Defendant Jonesworks LLC’s (“Jonesworks”) motion for spoliation sanctions against Third-Party Plaintiff Jennifer Abel (“Abel”), see Dkt. No. 867; (3) Abel’s motion for conditional summary judgment against Jonesworks, see Dkt. No. 938; and (4) the Wayfarer Parties’ motion for summary judgment against Lively, see Dkt. No. 952.

Oral argument on the Wayfarer Parties’ motion for summary judgment and Lively’s motion for spoliation sanctions is scheduled for next Thursday, January 22, 2026. The public has a right to attend that argument and to follow along based on the unredacted summary judgment and spoliation materials—that is, to the extent continued sealing of the materials cannot be justified. Accordingly, the Court provides the following bottom-line conclusions on the motions for sealing and unsealing so that the parties have sufficient time to appropriately re-redact and refile the materials before oral argument. The parties who submitted the materials at issue shall refile them in accordance with this Order by January 21, 2026, at 1:00 PM. The Court will in short order provide a written opinion with its “specific, on the record findings” explaining why continued sealing of certain materials is justified. See Lugosch v. Pyramid Co. of Onondaga, 435 F.3d 110, 120 (2d Cir. 2006) (citation omitted).²

The motions of non-parties Isabela Ferrer, Betty B Holdings, LLC, Family Hive, LLC, Sony Pictures Entertainment, and William Morris Endeavor Entertainment, LLC are denied except to the extent that they seek sealing of personally-identifying information (“PII”) and except to the extent that Sony seeks sealing of Ex. 23 filed in support of Defendants’ Motion for Summary Judgment.

The motions of the Wallace Non-Parties, Katherine Case (“Case”) and Breanna Butler Koslow (“Koslow”), the Wayfarer Parties, and Lively are denied in part and granted in part as detailed below. The parties are also directed to refile their respective memoranda of law and Rule 56.1 statements consistent with the rulings in this Order. To the extent that the parties’ memoranda of law and Rule 56.1 statements refer to portions of the documents below that the Court now seals, those references should be redacted as well. To the extent that the Court denies a request to seal material that is also referred to in the memoranda of law and the Rule 56.1 statements, that material should not be redacted.

² These bottom-line conclusions do not resolve requests for sealing regarding Abel’s motion for summary judgment or Jonesworks’ motion for spoliation sanctions, as those materials will not be addressed at oral argument and will accordingly be handled in a subsequent order.
