Ok I know a lot of the inside drama for IEWU and I just don't know who to share it with so here we are

I'm obviously using a throwaway, but I know someone who worked on the movie for most of its run, who would have gotten these details piping hot, not some grapevine situation. They told me first hand what they know. I'll give bullet points.

- Supposedly, Blake felt that Justin made her uncomfortable on set. One instance in particular they said was that Justin told Blake she looked "Sexy" in what she was wearing on set. I don't know the context around it.
- Apparently Justin wasn't happy with the original editors cut of the movie, so he hired his own team to do his version of the movie. Blake wanted to do her own version of the movie as a result, but Sony said no.
- Blake goes to Sony and threatens to go to the NY Times with a story that says Justin was sexually harassing her on set, if they don't let her have her own version.
- Sony freaks out and says okay whatever you want.
- Justin is banned from the Sony lot. (I don't think forever, just for the run of the movie but I could be wrong).
- Blake hires T Swift's music video editors to do HER version while she's filming in Italy for something.
- Blake has a friends & family screening to get thoughts, with lots of A listers - Ben Affleck, Bradley Cooper (I think) etc etc.
- Everyone is like "???? this movie makes no fucking sense"
- Blake realizes she needs to hire an experienced film editor to fix it
- Blake uses a T Swift song in the movie that the studio loves having in there
- T swift finds out that the original composer for the movie is someone she worked with in the past that was mean to her, and she says it's either me or him
- Sony fires that composer to keep the t swift song

I think that's everything I know.

I am HAPPY for you to say this to that

Source close says - Blake and Ryan need to know that the other side has texts from Leslie Sloane to reporters that SHOW attempting to place stories about Justin from JULY !

She started this.

Off record

Sources close say they are taken aback themselves- and if correct

This is def a real insider - and Sony never told us she threatened to go to ny times so if true and this happened that's crazy.

A large percentage of this is true of what she did at the time - but no one would've known this apart from a real insider so it's really mind blowing

And- off the record again because you're in my circle of BF trust

I saw that Taylor story come out yesterday my 15 year PR instincts told me that it was just them writing a story because that's an obvious story just to be next you know for a filler
1/30/2025 10:27:04 AM

[REDACTED] Melissa Nathan (Owner)
So I kind of ignored it
1/30/2025 10:27:08 AM

[REDACTED] Melissa Nathan (Owner)
But then I have been given 100% confirmation by materials I've seen with my own eyes of why this is true

And then I'm assuming (assuming) that Leslie placed the New York Post story saying they are best friends

Which is the most childish bullshit in the world anyway because these women are nearly 40?

I love them truly, and I've kind of grown up in it because I'm British so I love them but you know I also know how this works like you do. I know what the next story would be.

So I had to find out for myself, and oh my God, I properly found out
