Sir,
the reason I'm just showing those specific links is because they were all created in the last 60 minutes or so. it is CONSTANT and EVERYWHERE. There's some [REDACTED] stuff, but it gets buried by whomever is running the opposition campaign. I need to be able to throw a ton of upvotes at the stuff that is rah rah for [REDACTED] especially in [REDACTED] circles where it might get back to [REDACTED] and need to downvote everything else that's acting as a drag on him as part of our mandate from you and yours.
