I am so sorry. I have bee under it since April really. I was filming one movie, when the studio took the film from the director of the movie I was in post on, and asked me to take over, so I have been reediting the entire film, I brought on mu composer, and whole team to redo everything. I just finished the final sound mix in la yesterday. Flying back now to do final color time this week. And then I'm out from under this. The movie comes out in a month so im diving into the press. I hope to come up for air before that though! CANNOT WAIT TO READ THIS. And I'm excited to see what new ideas came out. I love that it spoke to you .

Thank you for your patience. Speak soon

xx
Ps love that fabric
