I. BASIS FOR JURISDICTION

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation, and the amount in controversy is more than $75,000, is a diversity case. In a diversity case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

Federal Bureau of Investigation

In May of 2023 I made multiple contacts the the FBI office in New York about racketeering within the Bronx, NY. As the investigation went on the evidence was sealed, so I was unable to determine an amount for my investigator reporting and as an informant.
 I was told I could enter witness protection and have not been contacted by them. I am suing for $160,000 and for potential legal representation and security arrangements for my long term safety.

Abuse of a vulnerable adult was found within the investigation by Buffalo FBI and Washington DC and does present a conflict of interest. The FBI office agreed to arbitrate the matter and has not been done so yet.
