UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF RHODE ISLAND

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA Plaintiff, v. GREGG M. AMORE, in his official capacity as Secretary of State of Rhode Island, Defendant.	CASE NO: 1:25-cv-00639-MSM-PAS CLARIFICATION OF RECORD

NOTICE OF CLARIFICATION

The Court heard argument in this matter on the Defendants' Motions to Dismiss and the United States' Motion to Compel Production of Documents on March 26, 2026. During argument, the Court asked the United States about what actions, if any, had been taken with the nonpublic voter registration data already in its possession.[1] The United States represented that each data set was stored separately. The United States also stated that no analysis had yet been conducted on the data. To correct and clarify the record, preliminary internal data analysis of the nonpublic voter registration data has begun. In particular, Civil Rights Division has begun the process of identifying and quantifying the number and type of duplicate and deceased registered voters in each state. The United States continues to keep each data set stored separately. It also has not shared the information with any other agency.

DATED: March 27, 2026.

Respectfully submitted,
