DEPUTY CLERK

Sines, et al, Plaintiffs vs.
Kessler, et al, Defendants - Civil Case No. 3:17-cv-00072

Sworn Declaration of Christopher Cantwell Regarding Plaintiffs' Weekend Service of their Motion To Sever.

I, Christopher Cantwell, do aver on this 23rd day of October, 2021, that the following is true and correct, under penalty of perjury.

- 1) My name is Christopher Cantwell, and I am an indigent, incarcerated, pro se Defendant in the above styled case.
- 2) Following the October 22nd settlement conference,
I began to prepare for the October 25th trial
date, as best as I could, with the comically limited resources at my disposal.
- 3) On the afternoon of October 23rd, a staff member at the Central Virginia Regional Jail instructed me to call Plaintiffs' Counsel,
"Charlett Carlson" [sic].
- 4) A phone did not become available until after court cleared at 6:30 pm, at which point
I called Ms. Carlson.
- 5) Michael Bloch answered the phone.

- 6) Mr. Bloch asked me if I had seen either of the letters he had filed with the Court that day.
- 7) Amused, I replied in the negative.
- 8) Mr. Bloch offered to read the amended letter out loud to me over the phone. He did so, and paused to let me note the case numbers cited.
- 9) Mr. Bloch then read to me Mr. Kolenich's response, again pausing so I could note citations.
- 10) I thanked Mr. Bloch for providing me this information, and we ended the call with a joke and a chuckle.
- 11) My trial preparations rendered impossible by the cognitive and emotional toll of this new information, I put my papers away, and began pacing the floor.

Having so averred, I sayeth no more, under oath.

Respectfully Submitted,
Christopher Cartwell
