CLERK'S OFFICE U.S. DIST. COURT OF CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA
FILED

I, Christopher Cartwell, do aver under ~~penalty~~ of perjury that the following is true and correct, on this 25th Day of October, 2021.

JILL D. DUNLEY, CLERK
BY: ~~Handwritten Signature~~
DEPUTY CLERK

- 1) My name is Christopher Cartwell, and I am an indigent, incarcerated, pro se defendant in the above styled case.
- 2) I have previously sworn that I submitted a written request to staff at the Central Virginia Regional Jail, seeking computer access to view digital discovery in this case. As of today, that request has not been answered.
- 3) In recent days, I received a credit card sized USB drive in the mail from Plaintiffs' Counsel.
- 4) Today I received, after returning from court at approximately 8pm, a 16GB thumb drive, and a stack of papers roughly 2 inches tall, double sided, from Plaintiffs' Counsel, at the jail.
- 5) Jail staff would not allow me to possess the thumb drive and put it in my stored property.

6) The letter accompanying the thumb drive was from the offices of Cooley LLP, Caitlin B. Munley, and dated 10-22-2021.

7) The letter says the drive contains the following "bates ranges":

- Baker 00001779-1782
- Disc-Impact 00001356-1590
- Fenton 00018702-18708
- Disc-Impact 00001356-1590
- Muniz 00006710-6713
- NoCustodian 00049511-50194
- Romero 00002689-2692
- Sines 00000823-C and 902-C

8) At 9:15pm I filled out another written staff request form, this time addressed to the Captain, asking for access to computer resources.

Having so arrived, I sayeth no more,
under oath.

Respectfully Submitted,
Christopher Cartwell
